

Joining us at the homesite picnic was Georgie Roberta Grace Hickman Gibson, who was the only child of George Roger Hickman (1880-1912), the youngest brother of my grandfather.

George Roger Hickman about 1912

Kent and Scotty Rose, and their nephew Sam Howell, have recently purchased three properties on Back Creek just below the old family homestead and Kent and I stayed in Scotty's place for the rest of the week while we visited other relatives in Bath County. Marian and Lou Grey visited with Georgie Gibson in Covington for a week or two. We all happened to arrive at the Bath County Historical Society on the same day and gave the ladies there a hilarious summary of life on Back Creek in the 1920's, 30's, and 40's.

Kent and I went to talk with the Virginia Power people about placing a historical marker on the Company property at the site of the old Hickman homestead. The next week I got a letter saying that Virginia Power was agreeable to the proposal and that they would pay for the installation, but that I would have to pay for the marker itself. I then met with them again and we picked a site and a general design for the marker. Now I have to contact the companies who make historic markers, and the State of Virginia sent me a list of those supplying bronze or aluminum markers. Virginia Power came up with a list of companies supplying stone markers.

Less than half of you returned the "interest" questionnaire from the last newsletter, so if anyone else is interested in helping pay for this, please let me know.

While in Warm Springs, I met Brenda Hickman from Gassaway, W. Va., and her cousin Grace Custer Ebner, from Peachtree City, Ga., who were in there digging up old Hickmans. We told them how to find the Sively cemetery where our ancestors are buried and I shared some of my data with them. I have heard twice since from Grace.

On June 20 I attended the funeral of Emma Sue Hepler Souder (1903-1997) at the Woodland Union Church near Millsboro Springs in Bath County. Her grandmother was Manilda Margaret Hickman (1854-1938), a sister of my grandfather. I like several of her sisters, Emma Sue was a school teacher. She was also the Hepler family historian and I was fortunate to have spent a day with her last year copying some of her records and photos, and tape recording her stories. The old-timers are slipping away and I wish that I had started this project 10 or 20 years earlier when there were more people alive to tell the stories about those who wrote the many letters I have dating from the 1770's to the 1970's.

William Brown Hepler & Hattie Lee Goddin with ten of their thirteen children. Left to right: Lula Jessie, Emma Sue, Virginia Margaret, Ruth Goddin (who wrote the letter to Santa), Stella Malvina, Merlin Judson, Laura Jane, Charles William, Minnie Lee. William is holding Mary Frances. About 1916.

While in Bath County I visited with Emma Sue's brother and sister, and a niece and nephew and got some family data that she had not given me the year before.

I also spent one afternoon in the Bath County Courthouse copying some more info from the will books.

On June 20 I attended the funeral of Emma Sue Hepler Souder (1903-1985) at the Woodland Union Church near Millsboro Springs in Bath County. Her grandmother was Maikla Margaret Hickman (1854-1935), a sister of my grandfather. I like several of her sisters, Emma Sue was a school teacher. She was also the Hepler family historian and I was fortunate to have spent a day with her last year copying some of her records and photos, and tape recording her stories. The old-timers are slipping away and I wish that I had started this project 10 or 20 years earlier when there were more people alive to tell the stories about those who wrote the many letters I have dating from the 1770's to the 1970's.

William Brown Hepler & Hattie Lee Goddin with ten of their thirteen children. Left to right: Lula Jessie, Emma Sue, Virginia Margaret, Ruth Goddin (who wrote the letter to Santa), Stella Malvina, Merlin Hudson, Laura Jane, Charles William, Minnie Lee. William is holding Mary Frances. About 1916.

While in Bath County I visited with Emma Sue's brother and sister, and a niece and nephew and got some family data that she had not given me the year before.

I also spent one afternoon in the Bath County Courthouse copying some more info from the will books.

27-Feb-1833
104-May-1833
22-Jun-1833

11010-1864)
Written from Lexington, Rockbridge
County

handwritten

1773 to 1973

The Hickmans have a long association with the town of Cass, W. Va., and with the two lumber companies that used to own it. So, I went to Cass to see if I could locate the home of Robert Sidney Hickman (1872-1954). He was a brother of my grandfather and Marian's grandmother, and I have a photo of the house with which I could locate the lot, but the house is gone. Robert S. Hickman was the manager of the huge company store in Cass, known as the Pocahontas Supply Company, from about 1900 to about 1945, and the store building is still there, but used now for tourist shops, a cafe, and a museum.

Uncle Robert's Packard. Julia M. Hickman, James D. Hoge, Hallie Grey Rose Hoge, George W. Rose, Lula G. Hickman Rose, Lou Grey Hoge, George Hoge, Marian Hoge, Robert S. Hickman, About 1925.

Further up the hill, above where "Uncle Robert" lived, is the house where Frank Edwin Mower lived when he owned the town of Cass, the company store, the sawmill, and the railroad. His mother was a Hickman and he was the uncle of Ed Brown who was at the reunion with us in Lost Creek, W. Va. The remainder of the former Mower Lumber Co. property is now a state park. Ed's grandmother, Mattie Lockridge Hickman Mower, I knew as "Cousin Lockie" when she lived across the street from my uncle Fred Gabriel in Waynesboro, Va.

Ed has shared with me a large collection of old letters and photos saved by his grandmother and mother dating from the 1870's to the 1960's—including some from his uncles telling how they started the Mower Lumber Company.

27-Feb-1833

104-May-1833

22-Jun--

Lexington, Rockbridge

Written from

handwritten

1773 to 1973

The Hickmans have a long association with the town of Cass, W.Va., and with the two lumber companies that used to own it. So, I went to Cass to see if I could locate the home of Robert Sidney Hickman (1872-1954). He was a brother of my grandfather and Marian's grandmother, and I have a photo of the house with which I could locate the lot, but the house is gone. Robert S. Hickman was the manager of the huge company store in Cass, known as the Pocahontas Supply Company, from about 1900 to about 1945, and the store building is still there, but used now for tourist shops, a cafe, and a museum.

Uncle Robert's Packard. Julia M. Hickman, James D. Hoge, Hallie Grey Rose Hoge, George W. Rose, Lula G. Hickman Rose, Lou Grey Hoge, George Hoge, Marian Hoge, Robert S. Hickman. About 1925.

Further up the hill, above where "Uncle Robert" lived, is the house where Frank Edwin Mower lived when he owned the town of Cass, the company store, the sawmill, and the railroad. His mother was a Hickman and he was the uncle of Ed Brown who was at the reunion with us in Lost Creek, W.Va. The remainder of the former Mower Lumber Co. property is now a state park. Ed's grandmother, Mattie Lockridge Hickman Mower, I knew as "Cousin Lockie" when she lived across the street from my uncle Fred Gabriel in Waynesboro, Va.

Ed has shared with me a large collection of old letters and photos saved by his grandmother and mother dating from the 1870's to the 1960's—including some from his uncle telling how they started the Mower Lumber Company.

Mattie Lockridge "Lockie" Hickman (1879-1967) with her children in 1912
 Frank Edwin Mower & Reginald Wiley Mower, standing; Marjorie Lockridge Mower, seated, and Donald Roger Mower on arm of chair.

The girl at bottom left, Marjorie Lockridge Mower (1908-1989), is the mother of Edwin B. Brown.

The people in the next photo are the children and grandchildren of Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906), the oldest brother of my grandfather and a Civil War cavalryman. Ed and I have lost track of the descendants of the Hickmans in this photo. Does anyone know what happened to them or their children?

Mattie Lockridge "Lockie" Hickman (1879-1967) with her children in 1912
 Frank Edwain Mower & Reginald Wilcy Mower, standing; Marjorie Lockridge Mower, seated,
 and Donald Roger Mower on arm of chair.

The girl at bottom left, Marjorie Lockridge Mower (1908-1989), is the mother of Edwin B. Brown.

The people in the next photo are the children and grandchildren of Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906), the oldest brother of my grandfather and a Civil War cavalryman.
 Ed and I have lost track of the descendants of the Hickmans in this photo. Does anyone know what happened to them or their children?

Descendants of Lanty W. Hickman outside home of John R. Hickman, Clarkshurg, W. Va., 1913
 Girl seated on pillar on left is Minnie Lockridge Mower; directly beneath her is her mother, Mattie
 Lockridge Hickman, standing directly to her left is Mary Elizabeth Hickman; seated to her left is her daughter Mary Irl. Seated in Mary's lap is her child Anna Elizabeth Mack. Man with bow tie is John R. Hickman, to his left is his wife Viola. They are parents of Kathleen on the right pillar. Standing to left of Kathleen is Frances Hickman. Man at top on right is H.M. Hickman; below to his right is his wife Pearl. Seated to Pearl on her left is L.W. Hickman; seated in front of him is his wife Myrtle; on her lap is their son, John Rogers Hickman.

Another collection of old papers came to light this year when Kent and Scotty Rose managed to open an old roll-top desk that had been jammed shut since their family moved from Black Creek in 1941. In it they found two tin boxes containing old deeds and a number of old ledgers dating from the 1880's to the 1930's. More wonderful stuff to add to the history of the Hickmans of Black Creek.

Then in Richmond my cousin Nona Hickman Strong found two cardboard boxes full of old papers belonging to her father Julian K. Hickman (1911-1961) who had been a commonwealth's attorney of Bath County, a federal judge in Harrisonburg, Va., and a perpetual candidate for office as a republican when there were no republicans in Virginia. I spent nearly a week in Richmond sorting those papers and putting them in tin lockers and now the boxes so that they can go into the third volume of the family

Descendants of Lanty W. Hickman outside home of John R. Hickman, Clarksburg, W. Va., 1913
Carl seated on pillar on left is Marjorie Lockridge Mower; directly beneath her is her mother, Mattie
Lockridge Hickman, standing directly to her left is Mary Elizabeth Hickman; seated to her left is her daughter Mary Iolk. Seated on Mary's lap is her child Anna Elizabeth Mack. Man with bow tie is John
R. Hickman, to his left is his wife Viola. They are parents of Kathleen on the right pillar. Standing to left of Kathleen is Frances Hickman. Matt at top on right is H.M. Hickman; below to his right is his wife Frank, Sarah to Pearl on her left is L. W. Hickman; seated in front of him is his wife Myrtle; on her lap is their son John Roger Hickman

Another collection of old papers came to light this year when Kent and Scotty Rose managed to open an old roll-top desk that had been jammed shut since their family moved from Back Creek in 1941. In it they found two tin boxes containing old deeds and a number of old ledgers dating from the 1880's to the 1930's. More wonderful stuff to add to the history of the Hickmans of Back Creek.

Then, in Richmond my cousin Neva Hickman Strong found two cardboard boxes full of old papers belonging to her father Julian K. Hickman (1911-1961) who had been Commonwealth's attorney of Bath County, a federal judge in Harrisonburg, Va., and a perpetual candidate for office as a republican when there were no republicans in Virginia. I spent nearly a week in Richmond sorting those papers and putting them in tin boxes and new file boxes so that they can go into the third volume of the family history. I already had many of Julian's letters written to his siblings, but we know there are more yet to be found.

So, I returned home with over 1,100 more old papers, deeds, letters, etc. and about two dozen old photos from the Hickmans and Lockridges. Papers and photos that will eventually find their way into the three volume history.

However, the most exciting part of my trip was going to Pulaski County, Va., to find the final resting place of the Rev. William P. Hickman (1810-1864). He was a brother of my great grandfather, the second Roger Hickman (1813-1889), and was also a brother of James Elliott Hickman (1804-1877 does anyone know when he died??) who is the ancestor of most of you living in West Virginia. I have 78 letters written by William P. Hickman to Roger Hickman from 1833 to 1860 but he was killed in battle in 1864 and I have lost track of his descendants.

Well, on Hickman Cemetery Road I found the Hickman Cemetery and the graves of William and his wife Margaret, four of their children and thirteen grandchildren. I am now trying to locate living descendants with the hope that someone may have saved some letters to William from his brothers or sisters.

Descendants of William P. Hickman

- e. William P. Hickman (23/II/1810-9/V/1864) married ca. 1843 to Margaret Hoge (12/IX/1821-2/III/1904)
 - 5. Elizabeth "Eliza" Jane Hickman (1844-7/IX/1872) married (?) to Edward Huff (1846-19/III/1871)
 - a. Edward Huff (?-?)
 - 5. Mary Crockett Hickman (19/VIII/1816-29/IV/1917) married (?) to William A. Chumbley (22/IX/1841-22/II/1917)
 - a. William Harper Chumbley (6/VII/1867-10/V/1927)
 - a. Edgar Chumbley (1-1)
 - a. Sasse Chumbley (?-?)
 - a. Frederick Chumbley (1874-1947)
 - a. Bessie Chumbley (?-?)
 - a. Mary Chumbley (?-?)
 - a. Margaret Chumbley (?-?)
 - a. James H. Chumbley (1885-1947)
 - a. Clem (Clementine) Chumbley (?-?) she married a ? Stone
 - a. Myrtle W. Chumbley (26/II/1890-27/V/1971)
 - 5. James Brown Hickman (18/XI/1848-1)
 - 5. Emma Soren (Emma Sue) Hickman (?/XI/1850-29/II/1862)
 - 5. William White Hickman (31/XII/1852-9/XI/1854)
 - 5. John Hoge Hickman (9/II/1855-?)
 - 5. Kate Lyle Hickman (27/XII/1856-27/XII/1918) married (?) to John M. Brown (6/XI/1851-5/II/1917)
 - a. Percy Lynn Brown (30/I/1878-3/V/1884)
 - a. Percy Lyle Brown (30/I/1878-8/V/1884)
 - a. Myrtle Pearl Brown (3/IX/1881-8/V/1884)
 - a. Mary M. Brown (25/V/1885-13/IV/1924)
 - a. John Richard Brown (3/V/III/1884-21/III/1948)
 - a. Kate Harriett Brown (15/IV/1891-1/XII/1891)
 - a. William Allen Brown (10/IX/1896-11/XI/1898)
 - 5. Lela Lanny Hickman (6/XI/1854-?) married (?) to Charles Hinshaw (?-?)
 - 5. Maggie L. Hickman (?-1877) married to William N. Gilliam (?-?)

By these various discoveries the family tree grows.

history. I already had many of Julian's letters written to his siblings, but we know there are more yet to be found.

So, I returned home with over 1,100 more old papers, deeds, letters, etc. and about two dozen old photos from the Hickmans and Lockridges. Papers and photos that will eventually find their way into the three volume history.

However, the most exciting part of my trip was going to Pulaski County, Va., to find the final resting place of the Rev. William P. Hickman (1810-1864). He was a brother of my great-grandfather, the second Roger Hickman (1813-1889), and was also a brother of James Elliott Hickman (1804-18?? does anyone know when he died??) who is the ancestor of most of you living in West Virginia. I have 78 letters written by William P. Hickman to Roger Hickman from 1833 to 1860 but he was killed in battle in 1864 and I have lost track of his descendants.

Well, on Hickman Cemetery Road I found the Hickman Cemetery and the graves of William and his wife Margaret, four of their children and thirteen grandchildren. I am now trying to locate living descendants with the hope that someone may have saved some letters to William from his brothers or sisters.

Descendants of William P. Hickman

- 1. William P. Hickman (23/II/1810-9/V/1864) married ca. 1843 to Margaret Hoge (12/IX/1821-2/III/1904)
 - 5. Elizabeth "Eliza" Jane Hickman (1844-7/IX/1872) married (?) to Edward Huff (1846-19/III/1871)
 - 6. Edward Huff (?-?)
 - 5. Mary Crockett Hickman (19/VIII/1846-29/IV/1917) married (?) to William A. Chumbley (22/IX/1841-22/II/1917)
 - 6. William Harper Chumbley (6/VII/1867-10/V/1927)
 - 6. Edgar Chumbley (?-?)
 - 6. Saise Chumbley (?-?)
 - 6. Frederick Chumbley (1874-1947)
 - 6. Berisic Chumbley (?-?)
 - 6. Mary Chumbley (?-?)
 - 6. Margaret Chumbley (?-?)
 - 6. James H. Chumbley (1885-1947)
 - 6. Clara (Clementine?) Chumbley (?-?) she married a ? Stone
 - 6. Myrtle W. Chumbley (26/II/1890-27/V/1971)
- 5. James Brown Hickman (18/XI/1848-?)
- 5. Emily Scurro (Emma Sue) Hickman (2/XI/1850-29/II/1862)
- 5. William White Hickman (31/XII/1852-9/XI/1854)
- 5. John Hoge Hickman (19/II/1855-?)
- 5. Kate Lyle Hickman (27/XII/1856-27/XII/1918) married(?) to John M. Brown (6/XI/1851-5/II/1917)
 - 6. Percy Lynn Brown (30/II/1878-3/V/1884)
 - 6. Percy Lyle Brown (30/II/1878-8/V/1884)
 - 6. Myrtle Pearl Brown (3/IX/1881-12/V/1884)
 - 6. Day M. Brown (25/V/1883-13/IV/1924)
 - 6. John Richard Brown (3/VIII/1884-21/III/1948)
 - 6. Kate Harbison Brown (19/IV/1891-1/XII/1891)
 - 6. William Allen Brown (19/X/1896-11/XI/1898)
 - 6. Lela Lanny Hickman (6/XII/1854-?) married (?) to Charles Eustine (?-?)
 - 5. Maggie L. Hickman (*-1877) married to William N. Gilliam (?-?)

By 1890 a small cluster of the family tree grown.

Rev. William P. Hickman

Among the countless victims of this cruel war, not many will be more deeply lamented than the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Bell Spring who fell in the fight with the Yankee miders near Duhlin while bravely defending his home against the invaders. Though past the military age, he had connected himself with the Home Guard of Pulaski county, and had on former occasions shown himself willing to take up arms in a cause to which he was ardently devoted.

During the hottest of the fight, being near one of the guns, and seeing the soldiers who supported it shot down, he rushed forward to take their place, and almost immediately fell, mortally wounded in the body. The last words he was heard to speak were "Do your best, boys, my work is ended!" — words worthy of a patriot, and Christian soldier.

No truer man, nor braver heart is left behind him. Falling into the hands of the enemy, and finding him in citizen's dress, they chose to consider and speak of him as "a bushwhacker" and it is supposed that he was brutally treated by them. He was left on the field in a dying condition for thirty-six hours without any attention whatever, and died immediately after being removed to a neighboring house.

He had, for a few months past, been in part supplying the church in Salem in the absence of its pastor as chaplain in the army and had greatly endeared himself to the people during his brief ministry. We deeply sympathize with his bereaved widow and children, and lament his loss not only as a dear friend, but as a gifted and devoted minister of the Gospel.

"Servant of God, well done!

Rest from thy blest employ:

The battle fought, the victory one,

Enter thy Master's joy.

The voice at midnight came —

He started up to hear:

A mortal arrow pierced his frame;

He fell, but felt no fear.

Tranquil amidst alarm,

It found him on the field,

A veteran slumbering on his arm,

Beneath his red-cross shield.

Soldier of Christ, well done!

Praise be thy new employ;

And while eternal ages roll,

Rest in thy Savior's joy!"

Salem, Va. May 20th.

FJ

"Bushwhacker" was the Yankee name for Confederate guerrillas, or irregular non-uniformed troops, whose mission was to harass the Union Army behind its lines. The following is an excerpt from the memorial in the Presbytery minutes of June 2, 1865:

BATTLE OF CLOYD'S MOUNTAIN:

THE REV. MR. HICKMAN'S DEATH

"Bro. Hickman fell fighting for civil and religious liberty at Cloyd's Farm on Monday, May 9, 1864. When the sound of cannon and the tramp of the enemies' cavalry were heard approaching his humble home, threatening destruction, as well as the most cherished rights of humanity, he volunteered to join a company assigned to the duty of supporting a Brigade of Artillery; and it was while eagerly and bravely discharging this duty that he fell mortally wounded. After calling to his striding son (who had run to his relief) to never mind him, but to fill his place in the ranks. And after that son and others nearby had been overpowered by numbers and driven from the field, he was allowed by the enemy to remain that evening and all day Tuesday without adequate attention; and it was not until Wednesday the 11th that his spirit took flight. Kind female friends were permitted to sit by him and minister to his wants during Tuesday, but were driven from the place when night came and not permitted to sit and watch with him. On Wednesday morning he was taken to a neighboring home but died a few hours afterwards. He was calm and composed while thus lying in intense suffering and had no fear of death. He was born in Bath county, February 23, 1811. Not until 1842 was he licensed to preach by Lexington Presbytery. As a preacher he was strong, clear and vigorous in thought and style."

Rev. William P. Hickman

Among the countless victims of this cruel war, not many will be more deeply lamented than the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Bell Spring who fell in the fight with the Yankee raiders near Dublin while bravely defending his home against the invaders. Though past the military age, he had connected himself with the Home Guard of Pulaski county, and had on former occasions shown himself willing to take up arms in a cause to which he was ardently devoted.

During the hottest of the fight, being near one of the guns, and seeing the soldiers who supported it shot down, he rushed forward to take their place, and almost immediately fell, mortally wounded in the body. The last words he was heard to speak were "Do your best, boys, my work is ended!" — words worthy of a patriot, and Christian soldier.

No truer man, nor braver heart is left behind him. Falling into the hands of the enemy, and finding him in citizen's dress, they chose to consider and speak of him as "a bushwhacker" and it is supposed that he was brutally treated by them. He was left on the field in a dying condition for thirty-six hours without any attention

"Bushwhacker" was the Yankee name for Confederate guerrillas, or irregular non-uniformed troops, whose mission was to harass the Union Army behind its lines. The following is an excerpt from the memorial in the Presbytery minutes of June 2, 1865:

BATTLE OF CLOYD'S MOUNTAIN:
THE REV. MR. HICKMAN'S DEATH

"Bro. Hickman fell fighting for civil and religious liberty at Cloyd's Farm on Monday, May 9, 1864. When the sound of cannon and the tramp of the enemies' cavalry were heard approaching his humble home, threatening destruction, as well as the most cherished rights of humanity, he volunteered to join a company assigned to the duty of supporting a Brigade of Artillery; and it was while eagerly and bravely discharging this duty that he fell mortally wounded. After calling to his struggling son (who had run to his relief) to never mind him, but to fill his place in the ranks. And after that son and others nearby had been overpowered by numbers and driven from the field, he was allowed by the enemy to remain that evening and all day Tuesday without adequate attention; and it was not until Wednesday the 11th that his spirit took flight. Kind female friends were permitted to sit by him and minister to his wants during Tuesday, but were driven from the place when night came and not permitted to sit and watch with him. On Wednesday morning he was taken to a neighboring home but died a few hours after wounds. He was calm and composed while thus lying in intense suffering and had no fear of death. He was born in Bath county, February 23, 1810. Not until 1842 was he licensed to preach by Lexington Presbytery. As a preacher he was strong, clear and vigorous in thought and style."

whatever, and died immediately after being removed to a neighboring house.

He had, for a few months past, been in part supplying the church in Salem in the absence of its pastor as chaplain in the army and had greatly endeared himself to the people during his brief ministry. We deeply sympathize with his bereaved widow and children, and lament his loss not only as a dear friend, but as a gifted and devoted minister of the Gospel.

"Servant of God, well done!

Rest from thy blest employ;

The battle fought, the victory one,

Enter thy Master's joy.

The voice at midnight came —

He started up to hear:

A mortal arrow pierced his frame;

He fell, but felt no fear.

Tranquil amidst alarm,

It found him on the field,

A veteran slumbering on his arm,

Beneath his red-cross shield.

Soldier of Christ, well done!

Praise be thy new employ;

And while eternal ages roll,

Rest in thy Savior's joy!"

Salem, Va. May 20th. FJ

Hickmans of Back Creek

4. James Elliott Hickman (18/XI/1804-1885?) married 1830 to Elizabeth E. "Betsey" Hamilton (1812-ca.1857)
5. Hamilton Burton Hickman (3/V/1857-16/III/1926) married 29/XI/1875 to Sarah Jane Young (12/X/1859-30/XII/1951)
6. Rosa "Rosie" Hickman (18/II/1878-21/II/1946) married (?) to John H. Ballengee (?-?)
6. James M. Hickman (21/II/1881-30/VI/1942) married 3/VIII/1905 to Nora Wilson (?-?)
6. Henry Preston Hickman (8/X/1882-9/XII/1975) married 9/XII/1901 to Nettie Bell Cart (1880-1967)
7. Ray Hickman (4/XI/1902-?) married (?) Madeline Lewis (?-?)
married (?) to Makine Butcher (?-?)
7. Carl Hickman (30/IX/1905-10/IV/1962) married 4/VII/1925 to Thelma Morris (?-?)
7. Brenford Burton Hickman (17/IV/1927-10/IX/1969) married 1927 to Roney Gertrude Jones (1906-1989)
8. Harry Preston Hickman (21/V/1941-) married 17/II/1963 to Yvonne E. White (?-?)
8. Brenda B. Hickman (21/IX/1942-)
7. Lillian Hickman (26/XI/1914-?) married 14/II/1934 to Raymond Knight (?-?)
7. Delma Ruth Hickman (2/XII/1919-?) married 4/II/1936 to Paul W. Dorsey (?-?)
7. Medford Hickman (13/VIII/1923-18/VII/1925)
6. Roxie (Roxey) B. Hickman (3/V/1884-19/II/1973) married (?) to J. Fred Wilson (?-?)
6. Viola May Hickman (1/III/1887-?) married (?) to Newman L. Wilson (?-?)
6. George Earl Hickman (3/XII/1890-1/I/1962)
6. Willard Branty Hickman (12/IX/1893-13/V/1969) married 26/VI/1923 to Rebecca Dodrill (?-?)
6. Russell Murray Hickman (25/VIII/1895-6/X/1954) married 1918 to Hazel May Childress (1899-1972)
7. Maxine Delores Hickman (2/VII/1919-17/I/1947) married 1936 to George H. Custer Jr. (1911-1988)
8. Evadna Grace Custer (17/III/1937-) married 1957 to Stewart Dwight Ebner (10/X/1933-)
6. Elliott Harling Hickman (11/XII/1897-20/V/1941) married (?) to Norma ??
6. Lavaun (Lavon) Hickman (ca.1904-?) married (?) to Charley Bowling (?-?)
6. possibly as many as three who died in infancy, unnamed, in 1883, 1893, 1899

Hamilton Burton Hickman was the last child of Elliott and Betsey Hickman and his mother may have died the year he was born. I wonder if she died in child-birth? There are still some unknown dates, marked by ?-?, and even several unnamed children on this list. Any help in filling in those data will be appreciated.

Family of Hamilton Burton Hickman at Strange Ck., Nicholas Co., W.Va. about 1904. Left to right: Viola May (1887-), Roxie B. (1884-1973), two unnamed sons, Russell Murray (1895-1954), unnamed son, baby Lavaun (ca.1904-?), Sarah Jane Young Hickman (1859-1951), Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926).

Can anyone name the three unidentified men in the photo sent by Brenda?

Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926)
son of James Elliott Hickman

Russell Murray Hickman (1895-1954)
son of Hamilton Burton Hickman

In January a nice bundle of materials sent from Florida caught up with me while I was in Texas visiting other Hickmans. The package was from Ella Fitzwater Cox, yet another descendant of James Elliott Hickman. However, since her great-grandfather was Stuart Taylor Hickman (1833-1903), and her grandfather was Watson Reed Hickman (1866-1947), she added dozens and dozens of names and dates to my list of the descendants of Elliott and Betsey Hickman, but the additions are too extensive to list here. I can print a couple of her photos.

Family of Stuart Taylor Hickman. Left to right, front row: Watson Reed Hickman (1866-1947), Stuart Taylor Hickman (1833-1903), Maria Louisa Napoleon Bonaparte Josephine Powell (1839-1917), Back row: Nannie Floyd (1861-1948), Coraella Alice (1876-1932), Beatrice Rosalie (1879-1916), Elizabeth "Betty" Sydnor (1872-1959), Mary Agnes (1869-1959). The other son, John William (1863-1892) had gone west and he died there.

Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926)
son of James Elliott Hickman

Russell Murray Hickman (1895-1954)
son of Hamilton Burton Hickman

In January a nice bundle of materials sent from Florida caught up with me while I was in Texas visiting other Hickmans. The package was from Ella Fitzwater Cox, yet another descendant of James Elliott Hickman. However, since her great-grandfather was Stuart Taylor Hickman (1833-1903), and her grandfather was Watson Reed Hickman (1866-1947), she added dozens and dozens of names and dates to my list of the descendants of Elliott and Betsey Hickman, but the additions are too extensive to list here. I can print a couple of her photos.

Family of Stuart Taylor Hickman. Left to right, front row: Watson Reed Hickman (1866-1947), Stuart Taylor Hickman (1833-1903), Maria Louisa Napoleon Bonaparte Josephine Powell (1830-1917). Back row: Nannie Floyd (1861-1948), Cornelia Alice (1876-1932), Beatrice Rosalie (1879-1916), Elizabeth "Betty" Sydnor (1872-1959), Mary Agnes (1869-1959). The other son, John William (1863-1892) had gone west and he died there.

Hickmans of Back Creek

Ella Cox was interested to see that I had knowledge of the marriage of one of the sons of Andrew J. Hickman—as below—and she was able to add generation 6 and 7 to the story

4. Andrew Johnson Hickman (20/X/1811-24/XI/1880) married 20/XI/1834 to Delilah S. Armentrout (3-2/II/1837)
5. Andrew A. Hickman (1847-18/XII/1883?) married 7/XI/1837 to Nancy Wallace (1813-?)
6. Homer Fitzwater (1875-) raised by his mother as a Fitzwater (ca1858-?)
7. daughter

It seems that Amanda was the sister of Ella's grandfather. Her family never knew that she had married Andrew A. Hickman and she raised her son as a Fitzwater. Ella discovered the marriage certificate for Andrew and Amanda at the Nicholas Co. court house in 1991. Now the question is, why did Amanda keep the marriage a secret from her family, and why did her son not have the Hickman name?

Amanda married twice more and had several other children, one of which is shown with her in the next photo. Her son Homer's family lived on the next-door farm to Ella's family and it sounds like Ella will have some good stories to tell. She did a delightful, handwritten, history and genealogy for her son several years ago.

Amanda Fitzwater (ca.1856-?) wife of Andrew A. Hickman (1847-1883?)
seated, with granddaughter Beulah on lap. Daughter Mollie standing.

I am still "desperately searching" for information about the descendants of Arthur Hickman (1803-1884) & Rebecca Walker (1806-1879) who moved to what is now West Virginia in 1848, and his brother Andrew J. Hickman (1811-1880) & Nancy Wallace (1813-?) who left Back Creek in 1834. Gloria A. Barnette, Nicholas Co. Historical Society, was able to send a bit about each of those "lost" Hickmans to me.

But, I finally hit paydirt when Helen Squires Bloomquist, from North Carolina, sent me a copy of some material her mother had collected over ten years ago. She is descended from Arthur Hickman (1803-1884) and his daughter, Mary Matilda Hickman (1832-1912), and could add many names and dates to generations 6 and 7. She also has old photos of Mary Matilda Hickman and her husband Lewis P. McElwain (1932-1911). However, the most interesting

Hickmans of Back Creek

Ella Cox was interested to see that I had knowledge of the marriage of one of the sons of Andrew J. Hickman—as below—and she was able to add generation 6 and 7 to the story

4. Andrew Johnson Hickman (20/X/1811-24/XI/1880) married 20/XI/1834 to Delilah S. Atmentrout (3-2/II/1837)
5. Andrew A. Hickman (1847-18/XII/1883?) married 7/XI/1837 to Nancy Wallace (1813-?)
6. Homer Fitzwater (1875-) raised by his mother as a Fitzwater
7. daughter

It seems that Amanda was the sister of Ella's grandfather. Her family never knew that she had married Andrew A. Hickman and she raised her son as a Fitzwater. Ella discovered the marriage certificate for Andrew and Amanda at the Nicholas Co. court house in 1991. Now the question is, why did Amanda keep the marriage a secret from her family, and why did her son not have the Hickman name?

Amanda married twice more and had several other children, one of which is shown with her in the next photo. Her son Homer's family lived on the next-door farm to Ella's family and it sounds like Ella will have some good stories to tell. She did a delightful, handwritten, history and genealogy for her son several years ago.

Amanda Fitzwater (ca.1856-?) wife of Andrew A. Hickman (1847-1883?)
seated, with granddaughter Beulah on lap. Daughter Mollie standing

I am still "desperately searching" for information about the descendants of Arthur Hickman (1803-1884) & Rebecca Walker (1806-1879) who moved to what is now West Virginia in 1848, and his brother Andrew J. Hickman (1811-1880) & Nancy Wallace (1813-?) who left Back Creek in 1834. Gloria A. Barnette, Nicholas Co. Historical Society, was able to send a bit about each of those "lost" Hickmans to me.

But, I finally hit paydirt when Helen Squires Bloomquist, from North Carolina, sent me a copy of some material her mother had collected over ten years ago. She is descended from Arthur Hickman (1803-1884) and his daughter, Mary Matilda Hickman (1832-1912), and could add many names and dates to generations 6 and 7. She also has old photos of Mary Matilda Hickman and her husband Lewis P. McElwain (1932-1911). However, the most interesting words in these pages were several references like "letters written to my great-grandmother Rebecca Walker Hickman," and "we have many old letters written from the period of 1840 through 1879 to Rebecca Hickman." How I long to see those letters! There are bound to be items that will add to the history of the Hickmans of Back Creek.

Hickmans of Back Creek

My ongoing search for information about the Rev. William P. Hickman and his descendants is still benefiting from the contributions of others who have volunteered to help. The Rev. Joe McCoy sent me copies of two photos of the original Bell Spring Presbyterian Church building, one showing a surrey and a buggy next to the church.

I also heard from the Rev. Michael G. Wingard of the Wytheville Presbyterian Church who sent copies of some of the church session minutes and other bits of information about William Hickman's service there.

Brenda A. Findley, librarian in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library, sent some Pulaski County marriage records containing data on the children and grandchildren of William P. Hickman, and also copies of U.S. Census records from 1880 to 1910 containing the Brown and Chumbley families. Those data helped to extend my knowledge of the descendants of William's daughters as follows:

1. William P. Hickman (23/II/1810-9/V/1864) married 18/VII/1843 to Margaret R. Hoge (12/IX/1821-2/III/1904)
5. Elizabeth "Lizzie" "Eliza" Jane Hickman (1844-7/IX/1872) married 26/I/1870 to Edward J. Huff (1846-19/III/1871)
6. Edward L. Huff (c.1870-?) married 25/XII/1894 to Jennie E. Fix (?-?) in Augusta Co.
7. Isak (Isaac?) F. Huff (1846-?)
7. Lela B. Huff (2/III/1897-?)
5. Mary Crockett Hickman (29/VIII/1846-29/IV/1917) married ca.1866 to William A. Chumbley (22/X/1841-22/I/1917)
6. William Harper Chumbley (6/VII/1867-10/V/1927)
6. Edgar Chumbley (?-?)
6. Susie Chumbley (?-?)
6. Emma S. Chumbley (c.1873-?) married 15/II/1898 to George E. Webb (c.1875-?)
6. Elizabeth Bessie Chumbley (2X/1874-?)
6. Frederick Chumbley (2/X/1877 [1874?]-1947)
6. Mary C. Chumbley (2/X/1881-?) married 23/XI/1908 to Jesse McC. Miller (c.1884-?) [census of 1900 says Mary & Maggie both born in Nebraska]
6. Margaret R. "Maggie" Chumbley (2/X/1881-?) married 17/VI/1907 to W. J. Lucas (c.1876-?) [Pulaski Co. marriage record says she was born in Nebraska]
6. Joseph H. (James?) Chumbley (2/VIII/1885-1947)
6. Clemence V. "Clem" Chumbley (2/XII/1887-?) married 17/IV/1916 to George N. Stone (c.1891-?)
6. Myrtle W. Chumbley (26/II/1890-27/V/1971)
5. James Brown Hickman (18/XI/1848-?) [lived with his sister, Kate Lyle Brown, at 1880 census]
5. Emily Susan (Emma Sue) Hickman (1/XI/1850-29/I/1862)
5. William White Hickman (31/XII/1852-9/XI/1854) 22 months and 14 days old according to letter from Wm.
5. John Hoge Hickman (9/III/1855-?)
5. Kate Lyle Hickman (27/XII/1856-13/IV/1918) married 25/X/1876 to John M. Brown (6/XI/1851-5/II/1917) [Margaret R. Hickman lived with them at 1880 census]
6. Percy Lynn Brown (30/I/1878-3/V/1884)
6. Percy Lyle Brown (30/I/1878-8/V/1884)
6. Mary Brown (2/XI/1879-?)
6. Myrtle Edna Brown (3/IX/1881-8/V/1884)
6. Ray M. Brown (25/V/1883-13/IV/1924)
6. Benjamin W. Brown (2/XI/1884-?)
6. John Richard Brown (3/VIII/1884-21/II/1948) ??
6. Lucille H. "Lucy" Brown (2/X/1888-?) married 10/XI/1913 to Robert Callwright (c.1887-?)
6. Fannie Hickman Brown (19/V/1891-1/XII/1891)
6. Edwards H. Brown (1/X/1892-?) married 16/IX/1920 to James William Bishop (c.1886-?)
6. Margaret Lou "Maggie" Brown (1/V/1894-?) married 20/VIII/1923 to James A. Allison (c.1895-?)
6. William Allen Brown (10/IX/1896-?) married 14/XI/1919 to Leland A. Pullman (c.1894-?)
5. Lela Louisa Hickman (4/XI/1898-?) married 10/VII/1898 to Charles B. Easline (c.1851-?)
5. Lela Louisa Hickman (c.1866-1877) married 10/VII/1879 to William N. Gilliam (c.1858-?)

Hickmans of Back Creek

words in these pages were several references like "letters written to my great-grandmother Rebecca Walker Hickman," and "we have many old letters written from the period of 1840 through 1870 to Rebecca Hickman." How I long to see those letters! There are bound to be items that will add to the history of the Hickmans of Back Creek.

My ongoing search for information about the Rev. William P. Hickman and his descendants is still benefiting from the contributions of others who have volunteered to help. The Rev. Joe McCoy sent me copies of two photos of the original Bell Spring Presbyterian Church building, one showing a surrey and a buggy next to the church.

I also heard from the Rev. Michael G. Wingard of the Wytheville Presbyterian Church who sent copies of some of the church session minutes and other bits of information about William Hickman's service there.

Brenda A. Findley, librarian in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library, sent some Pulaski County marriage records containing data on the children and grandchildren of William P. Hickman, and also copies of U.S. Census records from 1880 to 1910 containing the Brown and Chumbley families. Those data helped to extend my knowledge of the descendants of William's daughters as follows:

1. William P. Hickman (23/II/1810-9/V/1864) married 18/VII/1843 to Margaret R. Hoge (12/IX/1821-2/III/1904)
5. Elizabeth "Lizzie" "Eliza" Jane Hickman (1844-7/IX/1872) married 26/I/1870 to Edward J. Huff (1846-19/III/1871)
6. Edward L. Huff (c.1870-?) married 25/XII/1894 to Jennie E. Fix (?-?) in Augusta Co.
7. Isaac (Isaac) F. Huff (1846-?)
7. Lela B. Huff (1846-?)
5. Mary Crockett Hickman (29/VIII/1846-29/IV/1917) married ca. 1866 to William A. Chumbley (22/X/1841-22/1/1917)
6. William Harper Chumbley (6/VII/1867-10/V/1927)
6. Edgar Chumbley (?-?)
6. Susie Chumbley (?-?)
6. Emma S. Chumbley (c.1873-?) married 15/II/1898 to George E. Webb (c.1875-?)
6. Elizabeth Bessie Chumbley (2X/1874-?)
6. Frederick Chumbley (2/X/1877 [1874?]-1947)
6. Mary C. Chumbley (2/X/1881-?) married 23/XI/1908 to Jesse McC. Miller (c.1884-?) [census of 1900 says Mary & Maggie both born in Nebraska]
6. Margaret R. "Maggie" Chumbley (2/X/1881-?) married 17/VI/1907 to W. J. Lucas (c.1876-?) [Pulaski Co. marriage record says she was born in Nebraska]
6. Joseph H. (James?) Chumbley (2/V/III/1885-1947)
6. Clementine V. "Clem" Chumbley (3/XII/1887-?) married 17/V/1916 to George N. Stone (c.1891-?)
6. Myrtle W. Chumbley (26/II/1890-27/IV/1971)
5. James Brown Hickman (18/XI/1848-?)
5. Emily Susan (Emma Sue) Hickman (1/XI/1850-29/II/1862) [lived with his sister, Kate Lyle Brown, at 1880 census]
5. William White Hickman (31/XII/1852-9/XI/1854) 22 months and 14 days old according to letter from Wm.
5. John Hoge Hickman (9/III/1855-?)
5. Kate Lyle Hickman (27/XII/1856-13/IV/1918) married 25/XI/1876 to John M. Brown (6/XI/1851-5/II/1917) [Margaret R. Hickman lived with them at 1880 census]
6. Percy Lynn Brown (30/I/1878-3/V/1884)
6. Percy Lyle Brown (30/I/1878-8/V/1884)
6. Mary Brown (2/XI/1879-?)
6. Myrtle End Brown (3/XI/1881-8/V/1884)
6. Ray M. Brown (23/V/1883-13/IV/1924)
6. Benjamin W. Brown (2/X/1884-?)
6. John Richard Brown (3/V/II/1884-21/II/1948) ??
6. Lucille H. "Lucy" Brown (2/X/1888-?) married 10/XI/1913 to Robert Carwright (c.1887-?)
6. Kate Hickman Brown (16/V/1891-1/XI/1891)
6. Edwards H. Brown (1/X/1892-?) married 10/IX/1920 to James William Bishop (c.1886-?)
6. Margaret Lou "Maggie" Brown (1/V/II/1894-?) married 20/VIII/1923 to James A. Allison (c.1895-?)
6. to Ellen Alice Brown (1/III/1896-?) married 14/XI/1919 to Claude A. Prillman (c.1891-?)
6. to Lela Lundy Hickman (1/XI/1898-?) married 10/VII/1878 to Charles B. Finstine (c.1851-?)
6. to Margaret L. Hickman (ca. 1860-1877) married 10/VII/1879 to William N. Gilliam (c.1858-?)

However, I still had no information about his two surviving sons. Then, by good fortune and the help of Connie Metheny at the Bath County Historical Society, George R. Conoley called from North Carolina to say that he was a descendant of one of William's sons who had gone to Nebraska in the 1870's. The family left Nebraska for Oregon to escape the Dust Bowl crisis in the 1930's. I am now eagerly awaiting a package of information from Mr. Conoley. I am still hoping to find photos of William and his family, and —most of all— letters written to him by his siblings between 1840 and 1864.

The Hickman family tree grows each month as the word gets around, and as I hear from new people.

However, what I am really looking for is letters, diaries, and other documents that tell of life and times of our ancestors. I already have a wonderful collection of such things saved by Roger Hickman (1813-1889), Peter L. Hickman (1858-1937), and others and they are the basis for my three volume history of the Hickmans of Back Creek. It seems to me that if my Hickman great-grandfather and grandfather saved papers, so must some other Hickman. Those papers are tucked away somewhere just waiting to be discovered.

Since sending the last newsletter I have been away from home on three trips for a total of about ten weeks. In each instance I visited Hickmans, looked at old papers and photos, heard family stories, and enjoyed the company of interesting folks. I am looking forward to meeting more "cousins" in the coming months.

Bill Gabriel

However, I still had no information about his two surviving sons. Then, by good fortune and the help of Connie Metheny at the Bath County Historical Society, George R. Cooley called from North Carolina to say that he was a descendant of one of William's sons who had gone to Nebraska in the 1870's. The family left Nebraska for Oregon to escape the Dust Bowl crisis in the 1930's. I am now eagerly awaiting a package of information from Mr. Cooley.

I am still hoping to find photos of William and his family, and —most of all— letters written to him by his siblings between 1840 and 1864.

The Hickman family tree grows each month as the word gets around, and as I hear from new people.

However, what I am really looking for is letters, diaries, and other documents that tell of life and times of our ancestors. I already have a wonderful collection of such things saved by Roger Hickman (1813-1889), Peter L. Hickman (1858-1937), and others and they are the basis for my three volume history of the Hickmans of Back Creek. It seems to me that if my Hickman great-grandfather and grandfather saved papers, so must some other Hickman. Those papers are tucked away somewhere just waiting to be discovered.

Since sending the last newsletter I have been away from home on three trips for a total of about ten weeks. In each instance I visited Hickmans, looked at old papers and photos, heard family stories, and enjoyed the company of interesting folks. I am looking forward to meeting more "cousins" in the coming months.

Bill Gabriel

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
August 3, 1995

Pocahontas County Historical Society
810 Second Avenue
Marlinton, WV 24954

Dear Sirs:

I am a son of Ruth G. Hickman of Bath County, Va. The Hickmans came to Virginia in the 1600's and some of them settled on Back Creek, in what is now Bath Co., in the mid-1700's. A brother of those Hickmans, Suddeth Hickman, settled further west to what would be, I think, Clarke County. Children and grandchildren of the Back Creek Hickmans moved on to Pocahontas, Greenbrier, Nicholas, Upshur, Braxton, Clay, and Harrison counties between 1832 and 1860.

I have inherited a 200 year accumulation of the letters, warrants, ledgers, wills, deeds, and other papers saved by my mother, grandfather, and great-grandfather. A partial inventory of some of the older papers is enclosed for your information, and I have highlighted the names of counties now in West Virginia. I hope to find a proper home in Virginia for all these papers when I am done with them.

Also enclosed is a sampling of the pages from the first volume of a three-volume history that I am compiling about the Hickmans of Back Creek. Again, I have highlighted names of counties in your state. While none of the Hickmans who went to West Virginia were my ancestors, they were relatives, and they wrote letters to my ancestors. Therefore, I would like to find out more about them to fill out the history of the family, and to add to the sketchy information in the letters.

Even though I have an 20 page outline "family tree" of the descendants of Arthur Hickman (1712-1779) that goes to the 9th generation, I have lost track of the descendants, and history, of some of the older Hickmans who moved to West Virginia. In fact, there is no correspondence from those folks after the beginning of the Civil War

I do know a bit about two or three of the later migrants after 1900. Robert Sidney Hickman (1872-1954), brother of my grandfather, was—for many years—the manager of the company store at Cass when it was owned by Westvaco and later by the Mower Lumber Co. The two owners of the Mower Lumber Co. were grand-nephews of my grandfather—the grandsons of his brother, Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906)—and I have gathered copies of many of their letters written to their mother in Virginia.

My grandfather married a Lockridge, and my great-grandfather also married a Lockridge from Pocahontas County, so I have another large family connection there. However, I have few letters from the Lockridges and have not spent much time with their history.

Rather than asking for specific information at this time, I will ask some general questions and hope that your answers may help to focus my search.

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
August 3, 1995

Pocahontas County Historical Society
810 Second Avenue
Marlinton, WV 24954

Dear Sirs:

I am a son of Ruth G. Hickman of Bath County, Va. The Hickmans came to Virginia in the 1600's and some of them settled on Back Creek, in what is now Bath Co., in the mid-1700's. A brother of those Hickmans, Suddeth Hickman, settled further west to what would be, I think, Clarke County. Children and grandchildren of the Back Creek Hickmans moved on to Pocahontas, Greenbrier, Nicholas, Upshur, Braxton, Clay, and Harrison counties between 1832 and 1860.

I have inherited a 200 year accumulation of the letters, warrants, ledgers, wills, deeds, and other papers saved by my mother, grandfather, and great-grandfather. A partial inventory of some of the older papers is enclosed for your information, and I have highlighted the names of counties now in West Virginia. I hope to find a proper home in Virginia for all these papers when I am done with them.

Also enclosed is a sampling of the pages from the first volume of a three-volume history that I am compiling about the Hickmans of Back Creek. Again, I have highlighted names of counties in your state. While none of the Hickmans who went to West Virginia were my ancestors, they were relatives, and they wrote letters to my ancestors. Therefore, I would like to find out more about them to fill out the history of the family, and to add to the sketchy information in the letters.

Even though I have an 20 page outline "family tree" of the descendants of Arthur Hickman (1712-1779) that goes to the 9th generation, I have lost track of the descendants, and history, of some of the older Hickmans who moved to West Virginia. In fact, there is no correspondence from those folks after the beginning of the Civil War

I do know a bit about two or three of the later migrants after 1900. Robert Sidney Hickman (1872-1954), brother of my grandfather, was—for many years—the manager of the company store at Cass when it was owned by Westvaco and later by the Mower Lumber Co. The two owners of the Mower Lumber Co. were grand-nephews of my grandfather—the grandsons of his brother, Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906)—and I have gathered copies of many of their letters written to their mother in Virginia.

My grandfather married a Lockridge, and my great-grandfather also married a Lockridge from Pocahontas County, so I have another large family connection there. However, I have few letters from the Lockridges and have not spent much time with their history.

Rather than asking for specific information at this time, I will ask some general questions and hope that your answers may help to focus my search.

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
July 26, 1995

Dear Hickman cousins:

In June I made another "collecting trip" to Virginia and West Virginia — collecting cousins, ancestors, old documents and old photos for the three volume history of the Hickmans, ancestors, and old photos for the home of Mary Jane Hickman DuVault for supper with her family. Among other things, she had some old photos to share, one of which is a gem showing three generations of her Hickman ancestors.

Three generations of descendants of James Elliott Hickman and Elizabeth E. Hamilton, about 1908. At center (right) are James William Hickman (1834-1908) & Mary Ann Matley (1838-1915), both born on Back Cr. Standing second from left is their son Lanny Stuart Hickman (1877-1955) and next to him is his brother Edw. and Great Hickman (1874-1948). Seated at the far right is their sister Elm and next to him is his brother Edw. and Great Hickman (1874-1948). Edw. is leaning against his grandfather, Silling, in the center is (1906-7). Their older brother, Fred O. Hunt (?-?), is leaning against his grandfather, Silling, in the center is (1912) and behind her is her husband Isaac Hunt (?-1918). Elm is holding Jessie, Edw. (7-?) and O'Brien O. Hunt. Mother Luvina Lankum (1873-1963), wife of Edward G. Hickman, she is holding their first child, Lankum Hickman (?-?). The child standing at far left is Guy Hickman (1903-?) son of Lanny Stuart and Elmer Lankum. The woman standing at far left is Miss Rydell and her daughter is standing between Lanny and Ed.

Can anyone fill in the dates for births and deaths where I have the ??

Let anyone have a photo of James Elliott Hickman and/or Elizabeth E. Hamilton?

(On June 17 we were joined by Ed & Vero Brown (from Green Village, N.J.) and we all followed the DuVaults down the road to a big Hickman reunion on the farm of John Vero. The man near Ed & Vero, W.Va., That was a wonderful experience, with several of his cousins that had not met, lots of good food, and plenty of good talk. Except that they helped to identify almost everyone in the photo I had copied the night before at Mary Jane's home. Among those I met were James Clinton Hickman, his wife

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
July 26, 1995

Dear Hickman cousins:

In June I made another "collecting trip" to Virginia and West Virginia — collecting cousins, ancestors, old documents and old photos for the three volume history of the Hickmans of Back Creek. On June 16 my brother and his wife (from Dallas, Texas) met me in Morgantown, Va. and we went to the home of Mary Jane Hickman Duval for supper with her family. Among other things, she had some old photos to share, one of which is a gem showing three generations of her Hickman ancestors.

1988
 1987-1988
 1986-1987
 1985-1986
 1984-1985
 1983-1984
 1982-1983
 1981-1982
 1980-1981
 1979-1980
 1978-1979
 1977-1978
 1976-1977
 1975-1976
 1974-1975
 1973-1974
 1972-1973
 1971-1972
 1970-1971
 1969-1970
 1968-1969
 1967-1968
 1966-1967
 1965-1966
 1964-1965
 1963-1964
 1962-1963
 1961-1962
 1960-1961
 1959-1960
 1958-1959
 1957-1958
 1956-1957
 1955-1956
 1954-1955
 1953-1954
 1952-1953
 1951-1952
 1950-1951
 1949-1950
 1948-1949
 1947-1948
 1946-1947
 1945-1946
 1944-1945
 1943-1944
 1942-1943
 1941-1942
 1940-1941
 1939-1940
 1938-1939
 1937-1938
 1936-1937
 1935-1936
 1934-1935
 1933-1934
 1932-1933
 1931-1932
 1930-1931
 1929-1930
 1928-1929
 1927-1928
 1926-1927
 1925-1926
 1924-1925
 1923-1924
 1922-1923
 1921-1922
 1920-1921
 1919-1920
 1918-1919
 1917-1918
 1916-1917
 1915-1916
 1914-1915
 1913-1914
 1912-1913
 1911-1912
 1910-1911
 1909-1910
 1908-1909
 1907-1908
 1906-1907
 1905-1906
 1904-1905
 1903-1904
 1902-1903
 1901-1902
 1900-1901
 1899-1900
 1898-1899
 1897-1898
 1896-1897
 1895-1896
 1894-1895
 1893-1894
 1892-1893
 1891-1892
 1890-1891
 1889-1890
 1888-1889
 1887-1888
 1886-1887
 1885-1886
 1884-1885
 1883-1884
 1882-1883
 1881-1882
 1880-1881
 1879-1880
 1878-1879
 1877-1878
 1876-1877
 1875-1876
 1874-1875
 1873-1874
 1872-1873
 1871-1872
 1870-1871
 1869-1870
 1868-1869
 1867-1868
 1866-1867
 1865-1866
 1864-1865
 1863-1864
 1862-1863
 1861-1862
 1860-1861
 1859-1860
 1858-1859
 1857-1858
 1856-1857
 1855-1856
 1854-1855
 1853-1854
 1852-1853
 1851-1852
 1850-1851
 1849-1850
 1848-1849
 1847-1848
 1846-1847
 1845-1846
 1844-1845
 1843-1844
 1842-1843
 1841-1842
 1840-1841
 1839-1840
 1838-1839
 1837-1838
 1836-1837
 1835-1836
 1834-1835
 1833-1834
 1832-1833
 1831-1832
 1830-1831
 1829-1830
 1828-1829
 1827-1828
 1826-1827
 1825-1826
 1824-1825
 1823-1824
 1822-1823
 1821-1822
 1820-1821
 1819-1820
 1818-1819
 1817-1818
 1816-1817
 1815-1816
 1814-1815
 1813-1814
 1812-1813
 1811-1812
 1810-1811
 1809-1810
 1808-1809
 1807-1808
 1806-1807
 1805-1806
 1804-1805
 1803-1804
 1802-1803
 1801-1802
 1800-1801
 1799-1800
 1798-1799
 1797-1798
 1796-1797
 1795-1796
 1794-1795
 1793-1794
 1792-1793
 1791-1792
 1790-1791
 1789-1790
 1788-1789
 1787-1788
 1786-1787
 1785-1786
 1784-1785
 1783-1784
 1782-1783
 1781-1782
 1780-1781
 1779-1780
 1778-1779
 1777-1778
 1776-1777
 1775-1776
 1774-1775
 1773-1774
 1772-1773
 1771-1772
 1770-1771
 1769-1770
 1768-1769
 1767-1768
 1766-1767
 1765-1766
 1764-1765
 1763-1764
 1762-1763
 1761-1762
 1760-1761
 1759-1760
 1758-1759
 1757-1758
 1756-1757
 1755-1756
 1754-1755
 1753-1754
 1752-1753
 1751-1752
 1750-1751
 1749-1750
 1748-1749
 1747-1748
 1746-1747
 1745-1746
 1744-1745
 1743-1744
 1742-1743
 1741-1742
 1740-1741
 1739-1740
 1738-1739
 1737-1738
 1736-1737
 1735-1736
 1734-1735
 1733-1734
 1732-1733
 1731-1732
 1730-1731
 1729-1730
 1728-1729
 1727-1728
 1726-1727
 1725-1726
 1724-1725
 1723-1724
 1722-1723
 1721-1722
 1720-1721
 1719-1720
 1718-1719
 1717-1718
 1716-1717
 1715-1716
 1714-1715
 1713-1714
 1712-1713
 1711-1712
 1710-1711
 1709-1710
 1708-1709
 1707-1708
 1706-1707
 1705-1706
 1704-1705
 1703-1704
 1702-1703
 1701-1702
 1700-1701
 1699-1700
 1698-1699
 1697-1698
 1696-1697

Can anyone fill in the dates for births and deaths where I have the 7?

Does anyone have a photo of James Elliott Hickman and/or Elizabeth E. Hamilton?

[illegible]

Jessie, and their son Rodney who had responded to one of my mail requests last year. Jim & Jessie had, some years ago, added to the work begun by Marian Hoge MacKenzie as a start on a history of the Hickmans.

Marian, who was born on Back Creek in the ancestral home, and whose grandmother, Lula Hickman Rose (1874-1943), was a sister of my grandfather, Peter L. Hickman (1858-1937), came from Seattle, Wash., for this reunion. She had a wonderful time meeting all the "cousins" and we all owe her a debt of gratitude for beginning the collection of Hickman family stories over 20 years ago. She has been my biggest helper, critic, and booster on the larger effort I am engaged in now.

On June 18, a flock of us Hickmans who had once lived on Back Creek in Bath County, Va., met at the site of the original Hickman homestead. We had a picnic lunch, took photos of everyone under the trees planted by either William Hickman (1770-1843), or his son Roger (1813-1889), and caught up on happenings of the many years since we last were together. Present (with various spouses and children) were Marian Hoge MacKenzie and her sister Lou Grey Hoge Keeter, both of whom were born in the house built in 1799; Kent Rose and his sister Shirley Rose Powell who were born in the home of their parents about half a mile up the creek, and their brother Scotty Rose who was born after the family left Back Creek. My brother and I had lived in the next house up Back Creek—built by our grandfather in 1902.

The home of William Hickman (1770-1843), Roger Hickman (1813-1889), and Lula Georgia Hickman Rose (1874-1943) in 1936 photo.

We discussed possible locations for one or two historical markers concerning the Hickmans on Back Creek. Then Marian led an "expedition" into the woods to visit the slave graveyard that is all grown over with trees now. We did find 17 graves, mostly marked with field stones, but two still had carved stones. One of those marked the grave of Martha M. Robinson (1846-1923) a white woman who was the wife of John Anson Robinson who had been born a slave on June 4, 1858, and grew up on the farm with my grandfather who had been born four months earlier. Martha died in her home, known later as "the John house," down the road from grandfather's house on March 5, 1923. My mother and uncle remembered sitting up all night with her body as people did in those days.

Two other cemeteries along Back Creek contain the Hickman graves but we did not visit them this time.

Jessie, and their son Rodney who had responded to one of my mail requests last year. Jim & Jessie had, some years ago, added to the work begun by Marian Hoge MacKenzie as a start on a history of the Hickmans.

Marian, who was born on Back Creek in the ancestral home, and whose grandmother, Lula Hickman Rose (1874-1943), was a sister of my grandfather, Peter I. Hickman (1858-1937), came from Seattle, Wash., for this reunion. She had a wonderful time meeting all the "cousins" and we all owe her a debt of gratitude for beginning the collection of Hickman family stories over 20 years ago. She has been my biggest helper, critic, and booster on the larger effort I am engaged in now.

On June 18, a flock of us Hickmans who had once lived on Back Creek in Bath County, Va., met at the site of the original Hickman homestead. We had a picnic lunch, took photos of everyone under the trees planted by either William Hickman (1770-1843), or his son Roger (1813-1889), and caught up on happenings of the many years since we last were together. Present (with various spouses and children) were Marian Hoge MacKenzie and her sister Lou Grey Hoge Keeter, both of whom were born in the house built in 1799; Kent Rose and his sister Shirley Rose Powell who were born in the home of their parents about half a mile up the creek, and their brother Scotty Rose who was born after the family left Back Creek. My brother and I had lived in the next house up Back Creek—built by our grandfather in 1902.

The home of William Hickman (1770-1843), Roger Hickman (1813-1889), and Lula Georgia Hickman Rose (1874-1943) in 1936 photo.

We discussed possible locations for one or two historical markers concerning the Hickmans on Back Creek. Then Marian led an "expedition" into the woods to visit the slave graveyard that is all grown over with trees now. We did find 17 graves, mostly marked with field stones, but two still had carved stones. One of those marked the grave of Martha M. Robinson (1846-1923) a white woman who was the wife of John Anson Robinson who had been born a slave on June 4, 1858, and grew up on the farm with my grandfather who had been born four months earlier. Martha died in her home, known later as "the John house," down the road from grandfather's house on March 5, 1923. My mother and uncle remembered sitting up all night with her body as people did in those days.

Two other cemeteries along Back Creek contain the Hickman graves but we did not visit them this time.

Joining us at the homesite picnic was Georgie Roberta Grace Hickman Gibson, who was the only child of George Roger Hickman (1880-1912), the youngest brother of my grandfather.

George Roger Hickman about 1912

Kent and Scotty Rose, and their nephew Sam Howell, have recently purchased three properties on Back Creek just below the old family homestead and Kent and I stayed in Scotty's place for the rest of the week while we visited other relatives in Bath County. Marian and Lou Grey visited with Georgie Gibson in Covington for a week or two. We all happened to arrive at the Bath County Historical Society on the same day and gave the ladies there a hilarious summary of life on Back Creek in the 1920's, 30's, and 40's.

Kent and I went to talk with the Virginia Power people about placing a historical marker on the Company property at the site of the old Hickman homestead. The next week I got a letter saying that Virginia Power was agreeable to the proposal and that they would pay for the installation, but that I would have to pay for the marker itself. I then met with them again and we picked a site and a general design for the marker. Now I have to contact the companies who make historic markers, and the State of Virginia sent me a list of those supplying bronze or aluminum markers. Virginia Power came up with a list of companies supplying stone markers.

Less than half of you returned the "interest" questionnaire from the last newsletter, so if anyone else is interested in helping pay for this, please let me know.

While in Warm Springs, I met Brenda Hickman from Cassaway, W. Va., and her cousin Grace Custer Ebnetter, from Peachtree City, Ga., who were in there digging up old Hickmans. We told them how to find the Sively cemetery where our ancestors are buried and I shared some of my data with them. I have heard twice since from Grace.

Hickmans of Back Creek

the dump when along came a begoggled expert and purchased the mines for an English Syndicate for $25,000.00.

The syndicate sent out a pair of 'Spats and Monocles' to open up the mines. Mister 'Spats and Monocles' built a shed for his horse, a boarding house for the workmen and promptly installed a cook. A quartz mill was in time erected. Then the ore on the dump was put through the mill and the gold went over the plates along with the tailings. Instead of declaring a dividend with the first cleanup, the mine was declared 'the bunk.' The mill shut down and a wire was sent back to the Syndicate for money on which to get home.

In the meantime J. E. Hamilton took his cut from the sale of the mine, went back to Virginia, married his old sweetheart, Virginia. He returned to Julian with his bride and continued his ranch operations until his death some years later, leaving his widow and a host of friends to mourn his loss. His widow passed away in 1933 after living with her nieces, Mary Gunn, Theola Parsons, and Sallie Miller since her husband's death."

If Joe had a one-third interest in the mine, then he must have gotten $8,333 and, if gold was worth $16 an ounce in 1889 and worth $350 an ounce now, he had made the equivalent of about $182,280 in today's funds in his mining venture. So, Joseph E. Hamilton returned to Back Creek as a wealthy man when he came to claim the hand of Virginia A. Hickman.

The three nieces mentioned were three of the four oldest daughters of Thomas Brown Hickman (1849-1928), a younger brother of Virginia Alice Hickman. He married Mary W. Payne (1846-1898) in 1881 and they had four daughters. Mary died in 1898 when the girls were 8, 11, 13, and 15. In 1901 Tom Hickman took Mary Kate Whitmore (1883-?) as his second wife and they had three more children. The second wife was the same age as his oldest daughter and there must have been some conflict in the home because all four of the girls went to California to live with their aunt.

The four daughters of Thomas Brown Hickman and Mary W. Payne who went to California. Top: Mary Brown and Sallie Dawson. Bottom: Theola Brown and Carrie Payne Hickman.

Mary Brown "Blossie" Hickman (1897-1979) married Charles Mathew Gunn in California and they had four children. Her sister, Sallie Dawson Hickman (1885-1978) married that same history tells of Chester Gunn who established a "poor express" mail route between San Diego and Julian in 1871. He then became the first postmaster of the new Julian post office (at $1,000 per month), and a double agent for Charles Matthew Gunn (1884-7) who married Mary Brown Hickman in 1908, but what the genealogist of him was the "Johnny Appleseed" of the apple orchards, Brown had known that her father-in-law was the "Johnny Appleseed" of the region—one that is still well known for its apples.

Isaac Carlsson

[illegible]

Marion L. Miller in 1918 and they raised four children in California. Both of those sisters corresponded with my mother and my aunt, and they visited their cousins in Virginia. (My mother's children were given their daughter's maiden name.)

Some of the best stories I have, though, are about the children of the Miller-McCoy family. My mother's sister, Mary (McCoy) Duncanson (?), and Mary (Miller) Duncanson (?), have contributed stories and photos for the history of the Hitchmans of the South Coast.

Each generation of Hitchmans seemed to have a different story about their family. At least, each generation and were told to me by several of the sisters and nephews. In any case, I have heard the same story from my mother, my aunt, and my grandaunt who was, in any case,

Isaac Cainsion
However, in some instances the date intended by the recorder, in Huldah's case the year of her death is hard to decipher the date intended by the recorder, in Huldah's case the year of her death could have been 1883, 1888, 1893, or 1898. Then a month or so later I heard from George that his cousin in Iowa had seen Huldah's tombstone in Manning, Iowa, and that it gives her date of death as October 6, 1888, not October 20, 1880 as I had heard earlier. I guess this is a lesson in both interpreting handwriting and in checking dates, but now we have the family bible saying Huldah died in January and the gravestone saying October. This is not unusual, and it is hard to decide which date is accurate.

For many years, two published histories of Julian which he was given and sent them on to me, and one contained a summary by the California Division of Mines of the estimated total gold produced in 63 years of mining at the Julian-Barren-Cuyamaca region. It listed the Gold King and Gold King mines — those located by Joe Hamilton and friends — as producing less than $25,000 in gold each. At that rate, the partners made a pretty good deal when they sold their claims.

That same history tells of Chester Gunn who established a "pony express" mail service between San Diego and Julian in 1871. He then became the first postmaster of the new Julian post office (at $100 per month), and a bit later the Julian agent for Wells Fargo. From 1889 on he served two terms as a county supervisor. He was the father of Charles Mathew Gunn (1884-?) who married Mary Brown Hickman in 1908, but what she remembered of him was his apple orchards. Brown claimed that her father-in-law was the "Johnny Appleseed" of the region — one that is still well known for its apples.

—Carmichael who sent

March 11, 1918 and they raised four children in California. Both of these sisters occasionally after their marriage moved to Virginia. Their daughter, Gertrude "Nelly" Gunn Dainton (2) and Mary Louise Miller Moon (1923) have contributed notes and photos for the history of the Hickmans of Black Creek.

Some of the best sources I have, though, are about their grandfather who was, in all the least accurate and were told to me by several of his nephews and nieces.

Each generation of the Hickmans seemed to have a "family character" about which there were many stories to tell. In my great-grandfather's generation that was Captain Polley; in brother, Roger Lockridge Hickman, for the "character" about whom everybody had an outrageous story or two. The jury is still out on the identity of the man who from my own generation.

Lt. Yarbrough, Mindu Ann Callison Bond, Lt. George Clair Bond, Mabel Edith Bond with the Curtis Jenny flown to Abingdon, Ill. by George C. Bond in 1918

THE STORY OF MY FATHER, THE WORLD WAR I PILOT, WHO FLEW THE FIRST AIRPLANE EVER SEEN BY THE RESIDENTS OF ABINGDON, ILLINOIS

By George Cline Bond

My father, George Clair Bond, was the first Bond to become a military pilot, and became a local celebrity during World War I by flying to Abingdon in the first airplane which any of the residents there had seen. It was the highlight event of the summer of 1918. (My brother, Bob, was the second Bond to become a pilot and flew in the Pacific during World War II.)

Dad had gone to Chicago in July to enlist and flew in the Pacific during World War II.) Army Aviation Section Regiment. His enlistment was "for the period of the emergency." He was 23 years old and gave his vocation as "farmer."

He was first sent to ground school and then to flight training at Selfridge Field at Mount Clemens, Michigan. In November of that year he sent a letter to his parents thanking them for a package of warm clothes they had sent to him and wrote:

"At first we had our evenings free, but now we have a class in wireless telegraphy each evening after supper, and I understand they are going to start a class in French. We only fly of mornings so far, and have engine, shop and repair work and machine gun range of afternoons.

"I am just beginning to realize some result of my efforts in flying class. A beginner, learning to fly, sure has some ups and downs in more ways than one. Many is the time my instructor has taken the occasion to tell me how rotten I was, and then day before yesterday he turns me loose to go up alone —the first one in his class. I did well enough to please him, and yesterday I was up alone again and made five nice landings. I begin to get the feel of handling the machine now and it is a great satisfaction to go up alone, and feel you are capable of driving the ship."

The Mt. Clemens field was closed shortly thereafter and Dad was sent to Gersinger Field in Lake Charles, Louisiana, where in February 1918 he received an honorable discharge from the United States Army "by reason of acceptance of a commission as Second Lieutenant, Signal Corps, Air Service."

After about six months in Louisiana he was transferred to Scott Field in Belleville, Illinois as an instructor. One week and the publisher of The Abingdon Herald, his hometown newspaper, had been in St. Louis with another Abingdon businessman and had made a trip to nearby Scott Field to see Dad. Here they met the commandant of the field. He was congenial and friendly and told Dad and his friend, Sam Yarbrough, he was the safest and best instructor at the post and that Yarbrough was the best stunt man. It also seemed that the commandant was formerly a country newspaper publisher so he was asked by Dad and Sam Yarbrough to make a trip to Abingdon in an army plane. Dad had to make a formal request of the officer in charge of flying

THE STORY OF MY FATHER, THE WORLD WAR I PILOT, WHO FLEW THE FIRST AIRPLANE EVER SEEN BY THE RESIDENTS OF ABINGDON, ILLINOIS

My father, George Clair Bond, was the first Bond to become a military pilot, and became a local celebrity during World War I by flying to Abingdon in the first airplane which any of the residents there had seen. It was the highlight event of the summer of 1918. (My brother, Bob, was the second Bond to become a pilot and flew in the Pacific during World War II.) Dad had gone to Chicago in July to enlist as a flying cadet in what was then called the Army Aviation Section Regiment. His enlistment was "for the period of the emergency." He was 23 years old and gave his vocation as "farmer."

He was first sent to ground school and then to flight training at Selfridge Field at Mount Clemens, Michigan. In November of that year he sent a letter to his parents thanking them for a package of warm clothes they had sent to him and wrote:

"At first we had our evenings free, but now we have a class in wireless telegraphy each evening after supper, and I understand they are going to start a class in French. We only fly of mornings so far, and have engine, shop and repair work and machine gun range of afternoons."

"I am just beginning to learn to fly an engine, shop and repair work and machine gun range of afternoons, learning to fly, sure has some ups and downs in more ways than one. A beginner, instructor has taken the occasion to tell me how rotten I was, and then day before yesterday he turned the focus to get up alone — the first one in his class, and then day before yesterday and yesterday I was up alone again and made five nice landings. I begin to get the feel of handling the machine now, and it is a great satisfaction to get up alone, and feel you are capable of driving the ship."

The Mr. Clemens field was closed shortly thereafter and Dad was sent to Gerstner Field in Lake Charles, Louisiana, where in February 1918 he received an honorable discharge from the United States Army "by reason of acceptance of a commission as Second Lieutenant, Cavalry Corps, Air Service."

After about six months in Louisiana he was transferred to Scott Field in Belleville, Illinois on an instructor. One week and the publisher of The Abingdon Kid, his hometown newspaper, had been in St. Louis with another Abingdon businessman and had made a trip to the field. He said that he met the commandant and had made a trip to the field and found that the commandant, Sam Yarbrough, was the best shirt man. He also found that the commandant was formerly a country newspaper publisher, so he was able to get a special request of the War Department for a trip to Abingdon in an army plane. He had to make a special request of the War Department for a trip to Abingdon in an army plane.

"...to take a ship on cross-country flight from Scott Field to Abingdon, Illinois July 27 and return July 28 for the purpose of visiting parents and gaining cross-country experience. I also request permission to carry Lieutenant Vanbrough along as passenger."

"Permission was granted and on July 27th The Abingdon Kadak quitted a letter from dad to the editor:

"The certainty of our appearance over Abingdon sometime Saturday morning now depends chiefly upon the clemency of the weather and gasoline matters upon this occasion. Will you please see that a guard will be furnished for our ship."

The weather and the gasoline matter both responded well and the Kadak reported on their visit as follows:

"...amidst the blowing of whistles, ringing of bells, and gun booms, waving handkerchiefs and shouts and applause, Lieut. Cleveland Bond and Sam Verbruggen, aviator instructors from Scott Field, Belleville, arrived in Abingdon Saturday morning a few minutes before ten o'clock. In a large aeroplane, making the trip in three hours and giving Abingdon the distinction of being the first city in Western Illinois to be visited by an Army aeroplane. The coming had been announced in the Kodak on the previous afternoon and early in the morning the specs of the city were lined with persons eager to get a view of the first birdman ever sent out by the government over this part of the state.

Standing in the center of streets and in open places, persons observed a tiny spot thousands of feet in the air. It moved rapidly and increased in size and a shout went up that the aviators were coming. It was then that the noise let loose, and although the aviators could not hear the noisy reception tendered them, soon after making the landing and during their entire stay in the city there could be no doubt in their minds that all Abingdon and surrounding country were here to give them a glad hand.

Lieut. Bond ... drove the machine from Scott Field. Reaching the city he guided the ship directly over Main Street, and came down near the earth that all could get a good view of the ship. After circling about for a short time, the lieutenant headed the machine for his mother's house, then circled over northeast of the city, where there were two bright eyes eagerly watching the ship and its driver (This is a reference to my mother), and then four miles south and east of Abingdon where Mr. Bond made a landing at his farm."

I interrupt the newspaper account to explain that his father had died in January of that year and left the farm to his four children, which included Dad and his sister, my Aunt Mabel Stockdale. His other brother Uncle Lloyd Bond, was a practicing electrical engineer so it was assumed that Dad, who had a background in farming, would operate the farm when he returned to civilian life. So the reference to his farm is a reference to what is now Jim Stockdale's farm.

"Knowing that the Lieutenant would land first at his farm, there were hundreds of autos there, and he was given a welcome such as would be an honor to anyone.

After a short time spent at the farm the ship was started for Abingdon, and a landing made on the Reynolds farm a short distance west of the city where the plane was guarded and kept while in the city. ...

The streets all afternoon watching for the ship, and when its arrival was noted, the whistles were turned loose, and another grand reception was given the daring birdman. On this trip the ship was away only about forty minutes, yet a grand exhibition was given the Galesburg people, and old and new stuns electrified the people of the county seat.

On the return the aviators put on thrills that never before were given in an exhibition on Western Illinois.

Early Saturday evening the machine was again parked in the Reynolds field, and remained there until after 7:30 when Lieut. Bond went up alone and for nearly an hour gave an exhibition before a crowd estimated at not less than 10,000. ... he volunteered, gave the nose dive, double corkscrow, and made four loops in succession. Paties from a distance who have witnessed many aeroplane exhibitions, say it was the grandest show ever put on in the state.

Mr. Bond made a perfect landing, and after filling the gasoline tanks and inspecting the machine, made ready for the flight home. After bidding his family goodbye, the lieutenant ...and late a ship on cross-country flight from Scott Field to Abingdon, Illinois, July 27 and return July 28 for the purpose of visiting parents and gaining cross-country experience. I also request permission to carry Lieutenant "Bathurst" along as passenger."

"Permission was granted and on July 27th The Abingdon Kodak quitted a letter from dad to the editor:

"The certainty of our appearance over Abingdon sometime Saturday morning now depends chiefly upon the clemency of the weather and gusting winds upon this occasion. Will you please see that a guard will be furnished for our ship."

The weather and the gasoline motor both responded well and the Kodak reported on their visit as follows:

"And under the blowing of whistles, ringing of bells, barking of men, horns, waving of handkerchiefs and shouts and upjumps, Lieut. George Bond and Sam Verhulst, aviator instructors from Scott Field, Belleville, arrived in Abingdon Saturday morning a few minutes after ten o'clock, in a large aeroplane, making the trip in three hours and giving Abingdon the distinction of being the first city in Western Illinois to be visited by an Army aeroplane. The coming had been announced in the Kodak on the previous afternoon and early in the morning the specs of the city were lined with persons eager to get a view of the first birdmen ever seen out by the government over this part of the state.

Standing in the center of streets and in open places, persons observed a tiny spot thousands of feet in the air. It moved rapidly and increased in size and a shout went up that the aviators were coming. It was then that the noise let loose, and although the aviators could not hear the noisy reception rendered them, soon after making the landing and upon their entire stay in the city there could be no doubt in their minds that all Abingdon and surrounding country were here to give them a glad hand.

Lieut. Bond ... drove the machine from Scott Field. Reaching the city he guided the ship directly over Main Street, and came down near the earth that all could get a good view of the ship. After circling about for a short time, the lieutenant headed the machine for his mother's home, then circled over northeast of the city, where there were two bright eyes eagerly watching the ship and its driver (This is a reference to my mother), and then four miles south and east of Abingdon where Mr. Bond made a landing at his farm."

I interrupt the newspaper account to explain that his father had died in January of that year and left the farm to his four children, which included Dad and his sister, my Aunt Mabel Stockdale. His other brother Uncle Lloyd Bond, was a practicing electrical engineer so it was assumed that Dad, who had a background in farming, would operate the farm when he returned to civilian life. So the reference to his farm is a reference to what is now Jim Stockdale's farm.

"Knowing that the Lieutenant would land first at his farm, there were hundreds of autos there, and he was given a welcome such as would be an honor to anyone. After a short time spent at the farm the ship was started for Abingdon and a landing made on the Reynolds farm a short distance west of the city where the plane was guarded and kept while in the city. ...

Early Saturday evening the aviators visited Gatesburg. ... Thousands of persons stood on the streets all afternoon watching for the ship, and when its arrival was noted, the whistles were turned loose, and another grand reception was given the daring birdmen. On this trip the ship was away only about forty minutes, yet a grand exhibition was given the Gatesburg people, and old and new stunts electrified the people of the county seat.

On the return the aviators put on thrills that never before were given in an exhibition on Western Illinois. ...

After the flight Saturday evening the machine was again packed in the Reynolds field, and remained there until after 2:30 when Lieut. Bond went up alone and for nearly an hour gave an exhibition before a crowd estimated at not less than 10,000. ... he vomiting, gave the nose dive, double corkscrow, and made four loops in succession. Parties from a distance who have witnessed many aeroplane exhibitions, say it was the grandest show ever put on in the state.

Mr. Bond made a perfect landing, and after filling the gasoline tanks and inspecting the machine, made ready for the flight home. After hiding his family goodbyes, the lieutenant

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
April 30, 1996

Dear Hickman cousins:

In January I made another trip to Virginia, this time for the funeral of my aunt, Ollie Virginia Hickman, who was born in a log cabin on the east side of Back Creek in Bath County in 1902, and who died in a modern nursing home, but in the company of her nieces, in Richmond in 1996.

The third of seven children born to Ollie Gertrude Lockridge and Peter Lightner Hickman, hers was the fourth generation of Hickmans born at what they called Sun Rise. Her father was a farmer, a justice of the county court, and a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church and her mother was the Sun Rise postmaster. There was no electricity or running water in their house, and her mother worked hard to feed the family with home-grown food cooked on a huge wood-fired range.

Forrest Elwood Hickman, Ollie Virginia Hickman, Roger Lockridge Hickman
In 1904 when they were about five, two, and seven years old. Forrest was born in a log cabin at Green Valley, Virge in a log cabin on Back Creek, and Roger in a home in Columbus, Ohio.

Schooling was a catch-as-catch-can sort of thing, for the families living along Back Creek. Classes were held in abandoned houses, chicken coops, barns, churches, or anywhere else that could accommodate eight to fifteen kids for a few months. School locations shifted up and down the valley as the student population waxed and waned. Anyone aspiring to a higher education was obliged to leave the valley and board with relatives or friends in Warm Springs, Monterey, Millboro, or elsewhere while attending high school.

Virginia went north to Monterey in Highland County to finish her public school education, and graduated from high school in 1922 when she was 20 years old.

Peter Hickman's desire was for his daughter to become a school teacher, but she wanted to be a nurse, too, to keep peace in the family, and to satisfy her father's wishes, Virge traveled across the mountains to Harrisonburg in the Shenandoah Valley where she got a teacher's certificate at the Virginia Normal School - now called James Madison University - and went on to teach school for one year at Cedar Creek in Bath County.

With her heart still set on becoming a nurse, Virge left her familiar mountains and went east to the lowlands of Kentucky and to enroll in the first nursing school class at St. Elizabeth's

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
April 30, 1996

Dear Hickman cousins:

In January I made another trip to Virginia, this time for the funeral of my aunt, Ollie Virginia Hickman, who was born in a log cabin on the east side of Back Creek in Bath County in 1902, and who died in a modern nursing home, but in the company of her nieces, in Richmond in 1996.

The third of seven children born to Ollie Gertrude Lockridge and Peter Lightner Hickman, hers was the fourth generation of Hickmans born at what they called Sun Rise. Her father was a farmer, a justice of the county court, and a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church and her mother was the Sun Rise postmaster. There was no electricity or running water in their house, and her mother worked hard to feed the family with home-grown food cooked on a huge wood-fired range.

Forrest Elwood Hickman, Ollie Virginia Hickman, Roger Lockridge Hickman
In 1904 when they were about five, two, and seven years old. Forrest was born in a log cabin at Green Valley, Virge in a log cabin on Back Creek, and Roger in a home in Columbus, Ohio.

Schooling was a catch-as-catch-can sort of thing for the families living along Back Creek. Classes were held in abandoned houses, chicken coops, barns, churches, or anywhere else that could accommodate eight to fifteen kids for a few months. School locations shifted up and down the valley as the student population waxed and waned. Anyone aspiring to a higher education was obliged to leave the valley and board with relatives or friends in Warm Springs, Monterey, Millboro, or elsewhere while attending high school.

Virginia went north to Monterey in Highland County to finish her public school education, and graduated from high school in 1922 when she was 20 years old.

Peter Hickman's desire was for his daughter to become a school teacher, but she wanted to be a nurse too, to keep peace in the family, and to satisfy her father's wishes, Virge traveled across the mountains to Hagerstown in the Shenandoah Valley where she got a teacher's certificate at the Virginia Normal School — now called James Madison University — and went on to teach school for one year at Cedar Creek in Bath County.

With her heart still set on becoming a nurse, Virge left her familiar mountains and went east to the lowlands of Richmond to enroll in the first nursing school class at St. Elizabeth's

My mother -
from Warren's photo
- and 100% for the
the University of

Hickmans of Back Creek

Hospital in 1924. She followed that with pediatric studies at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore and the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg. She received her public health nursing certification through the Richmond Professional Institute—now Virginia Commonwealth University.

Ottie Virginia Hickman married Warren Maxwell Campbell in 1927, the same year she graduated from the St. Elizabeth's School of Nursing. He was a "local boy" from the upper reaches of Back Creek in Highland County who was working for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad in Richmond. Virginia's grandmother had been a Campbell, and the newly weds W.W.I service in France and was nine years her senior.

She began her nursing career with the Instructive Visiting Nurses Association (IVNA), a forerunner in home health care whose nurses were sometimes referred to as the "newspaper nurses" for their habit of covering almost all surfaces near a sick-bed with newspaper. Virge later became the supervisor of nursing for IVNA, and in 1938 she moved to the Richmond city health department as a staff nurse. In 1940 she was named director of public health nursing for the Richmond department of public welfare.

Ottie Virginia Hickman Campbell (1902-1996)
About 1940 when she was Director of Public Health Nursing

Virginia H. Campbell was a well known person around Richmond, and Virginia, with her name and photo in the Richmond papers frequently from the 1930's through the 1950's. She had a self-assured bearing and a take-charge attitude and was an accomplished public speaker who enjoyed meeting new people and seeing new places. Her ability to get along well with persons of all classes and colors must have been an important aspect of her success as a public health nurse.

After leaving the Richmond City employment in a political dispute she served as the executive secretary of the Virginia State Nurses Association until 1959 when she joined her husband Warren in retirement.

My mother, brother, and I lived for four years during WWII in the attic of the Campbell home in Richmond. During that time Virge became one of my favorite, and "most unforgettable" people, who I always knew as "Tanta."

Like so many of the Hickmans, my "Tanta" suffered from arthritis and she became shorter and more bent over as she aged. But she never lost that cheerful chin-up attitude and

Hickman, Burt, Clerk

The above appeared a while ago in a good story, and could laugh at herself as well as the other children were. I was again in her usual well-organized manner. I was helping to do something for her family, and was helping to do something for her family.

A classroom of Vassar at Kenton's High School in 1925 and was an elementary school work. Commie died in 1925, and they had three daughters. Commie married John Lee Thompson, a Minister, and they had three daughters. Commie married John Lee Thompson, a Minister, and they had three daughters. Commie married John Lee Thompson, a Minister, and they had three daughters.

(Mrs. Ruth Hickman) (Mrs. Thompson) (Mrs. Thompson)

In the final years of her life Commie was a resident of The Hickman, and in January the newspaper there arrived the following on the occasion of her birthday.

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Mrs. Ruth Hickman Cabinet Hardy was born on Back Creek, in Bath County, Virginia on January 16, 1908. She was one of seven children born to Ollie and Peter Hickman. Mrs. Hardy attended one-room schools in Bath County until she reached high school level. At that time, in order for her to attend high school, Ruth moved to Billboro. There she lived with her two youngest brothers in a small rented house and did the cooking, cleaning and chauffeuring. She drove the family Model-T Ford. Mrs. Hardy has two sons by her first husband. During the 1940's, Ruth found the need to work and became a pioneer woman in the man's field of insurance. She became quite well known both in Richmond and across the state. She later became an officer in the firm of Mendenhall & Kayhoe, builders of commercial and residential buildings. Following retirement, Ruth found new love and married the late Edward Ira Hardy. One of Ruth's fondest memories was of being the sole graduate of Millboro High in 1927. Her graduation made the newspapers from coast to coast because Al. L. Combs of Richmond, the supervisor of the research

Mr. Hardy, she drove the family Model-T Ford through the 1940's. Ruth found the need to work and became a power woman in the man's field of aviation. She became quite well known both in Richmond and across the state. She later became an officer in the firm of Hinchman & Kayser, builders of commercial and residential buildings. Following retirement, Ruth found One of Ruth's best memories was of being the sole graduate of Millboro High in 1927. Her graduation made the newspapers from coast to coast because Mr. L. Combs of Richmond, the supervisor of the research

Mrs. Hardy was born on Bull Creek, in Barth County, Virginia on January 16, 1908. She was one of seven children born to Mr. and Mrs. Hickman Gabriel Hardy. She was the youngest of seven children. She attended one-room schools in Barth County until she reached high school level. At that time, in order for her to attend high school, Ruth moved to Millboro, where she lived with her two youngest brothers in a small rented house and did the cooking, cleaning and chauffeuring. She drove the family Model-T Ford.

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

in the final years of her life, Corne was a resident of The Hermitage. Corne was mother also lives at The Hermitage, and in January the two sisters were married. It was on the occasion of her birthday.

(continued) Original (Task 1) responses

sparking sense of humor that made her such a hit to visit. Her absence appeared a whole lot like her own children were "every day" in her usual well-organized manner. I don't know how long it took for her to visit, but she made her way to the house and was talking to her husband and wife. In her usual well-organized manner, I don't know how long it took for her to visit, but she made her way to the house and was talking to her husband and wife. In her usual well-organized manner, I don't know how long it took for her to visit, but she made her way to the house and was talking to her husband and wife.

1992 7 17 1992 7 17 1992 7 17

One of Austin's fondest memories was of being the sole graduate of Millboro High in 1927. Her graduation made the newspapers from coast to coast because M. L. Combs of Richmond, the supervisor of the research

[illegible]

Mrs. Hardy was born on Bull Creek, in Barth County, Virginia on January 16, 1908. She was one of seven children born to Mr. and Mrs. Hickman Gabriel Hardy. She was the youngest of seven children. She attended one-room schools in Barth County until she reached high school level. At that time, in order for her to attend high school, Ruth moved to Millboro, where she lived with her two youngest brothers in a small rented house and did the cooking, cleaning and chauffeuring. She drove the family Model-T Ford.

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

in the final years of her life, Corne was a resident of The Hermitage. Corne was mother also lives at The Hermitage, and in January the two sisters were married. It was on the occasion of her birthday.

(continued) Original (Task 1) responses

sparking sense of humor that made her such a hit to visit. Her absence appeared a whole lot like her own children were "every day" in her usual well-organized manner. I don't know how long it took for her to visit, but she made her way to the house and was talking to her husband and wife. In her usual well-organized manner, I don't know how long it took for her to visit, but she made her way to the house and was talking to her husband and wife. In her usual well-organized manner, I don't know how long it took for her to visit, but she made her way to the house and was talking to her husband and wife.

1992 7 17 1992 7 17 1992 7 17

Hickmans of Back Creek

division of the Virginia state board of education, traveled 176 miles to address her graduating class (which comprised of only her!!).

Goes 175 Miles to Award Diploma to Girl Graduate

STAUNTON, Va., July 30.—M.L. Combs of Richmond, supervisor of the research division of the Virginia state board of education, traveled 176 miles to address a graduating class composed of one person. The exercises were held at Millboro, 40 miles west of Staunton in Bath county, where Miss Ruth Hickman, the lone graduate, received her diploma. This was the first time in the history of Millboro High school that there was only one graduate. Had the graduating class of 1927 been duly organized, Miss Hickman would have been its president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, as well as sergeant at arms.

Ruth Gertrude Hickman Gabriel Hardy (1908-)
June 1927

Ruth was born the year the Model-T was put into production, and she graduated from high school the year Ford ceased making that durable automobile. The ones she drove her father bought from his nephew, Forrest Franklin Hepler (1894-1934), who had the first Ford dealership in Bath County.

A couple months ago I got a call from Helen Traugh, Braxton County Historical Society, who told me that one of the people in a photo printed in an earlier newsletter was still alive. If you look at the first page of the Hickman Family History Newsletter dated July 26, 1995, you will see a group photo of three generations of descendants of James Elliott Hickman and Betsey Hamilton. The caption contained many ?? entries because I did not know the dates for those people pictured. The little girl in the photo, Jessie Iva Hunt, was able to furnish the following dates for her father, brothers, and cousin:

Isaac Newton Hunt	(1877-1918)
Fred O. Hunt	(1902-1982)
Jessie Iva Hunt Robinson	(1904-)
Ohlen Hunt	(1906-1974)
Guy Herbert Hickman	(1903-1995)

I appreciate the help of Mrs. Traugh in sending Jessie's information to me

Grace Custer Ebnetter, in Georgia, sent photos of her great-grandfather, Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926), her grandfather, Russell Murray Hickman (1895-1954), and others, as well as some letters written by Russell Murray Hickman during his service in the army in W.W.I.

Then I heard from Brenda Hickman, in West Virginia, who is also a great-granddaughter of Hamilton Burton Hickman. She sent copies of photos, obituaries, newspaper clippings, etc. Using the data from Grace and Brenda, I could extend my knowledge of the descendants of James Elliott Hickman and Betsey Hamilton as follows:

Hickmans of Back Creek

division of the Virginia state board of education, traveled 176 miles to address her graduating class (which comprised of only her!).

Goes 175 Miles to Award Diploma to Girl Graduate

STAUNTON, Va., July 30.—M.L. Combs of Richmond, supervisor of the research division of the Virginia state board of education, traveled 176 miles to address a graduating class composed of one person. The exercises were held at Millboro, 40 miles west of Staunton in Bath county, where Miss Ruth Hickman, the lone graduate, received her diploma. This was the first time in the history of Millboro High school that there was only one graduate. Had the graduating class of 1927 been duly organized, Miss Hickman would have been its president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, as well as sergeant at arms.

Ruth Gertrude Hickman Gabriel Hardy (1908-)
June 1927

Ruth was born the year the Model-T was put into production, and she graduated from high school the year Ford ceased making that durable automobile. The ones she drove her father bought from his nephew, Forrest Franklin Hepler (1894-1934), who had the first Ford dealership in Bath County.

A couple months ago I got a call from Helen Traugh, Braxton County Historical Society, who told me that one of the people in a photo printed in an earlier newsletter was still alive. If you look at the first page of the Hickman Family History Newsletter dated July 26, 1995, you will see a group photo of three generations of descendants of James Elliott Hickman and Betsey Hamilton. The caption contained many ?-? entries because I did not know the dates for those people pictured. The little girl in the photo, Jessie Iva Hunt, was able to furnish the following dates for her father, brothers, and cousin:

Isaac Newton Hunt	(1877-1918)
Fred O. Hunt	(1902-1982)
Jessie Iva Hunt Robinson	(1904-)
Ohlen Hunt	(1906-1974)
Guy Herbert Hickman	(1903-1995)

I appreciate the help of Mrs. Traugh in sending Jessie's information to me

Grace Custer Ebnetter, in Georgia, sent photos of her great-grandfather, Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926), her grandfather, Russell Murray Hickman (1895-1954), and others, as well as some letters written by Russell Murray Hickman during his service in the army in W.W.I.

Then I heard from Brenda Hickman, in West Virginia, who is also a great-granddaughter of Hamilton Burton Hickman. She sent copies of photos, obituaries, newspaper clippings, etc. Using the data from Grace and Brenda, I could extend my knowledge of the descendants of James Elliott Hickman and Betsey Hamilton as follows:

Hickmans of Back Creek

4. James Elliott Hickman (18/XI/1804-1885?) married 1830 to Elizabeth E. "Betsey" Hamilton (1812-ca.1857)
5. Hamilton Burton Hickman (3/V/1857-16/III/1926) married 29/XI/1875 to Sarah Jane Young (12/X/1859-30/XII/1951)
6. Rosa "Rosie" Hickman (18/II/1878-21/II/1946) married (?) to John H. Ballengee (??)
6. James M. Hickman (21/II/1881-30/VI/1942) married 3/III/1905 to Nora Wilson (??)
6. Henry Preston Hickman (8/X/1882-9/XII/1975) married 9/XI/1901 to Nettie Bell Cart (1880-1967)
7. Ray Hickman (4/XI/1902-?) married (?) Madeline Lewis (??)
married (?) to Makine Butcher (??)
7. Carl Hickman (30/IX/1905-10/IV/1962) married 4/VII/1925 to Thelma Morris (??)
7. Brenford Burton Hickman (17/IV/1927-10/IX/1969) married 1927 to Roney Gertrude Jones (1906-1989)
8. Harry Preston Hickman (21/V/1941-) married 17/II/1963 to Yvonne E. White (??)
8. Brenda B. Hickman (21/XI/1942-)
7. Lillian Hickman (26/XI/1914-?) married 14/II/1934 to Raymond Knight (??)
7. Delma Ruth Hickman (2/XII/1919-?) married 4/III/1936 to Paul W. Dorsey (??)
7. Medford Hickman (13/VIII/1923-18/VII/1925)
6. Roxie (Roxie) B. Hickman (3/V/1884-19/II/1973) married (?) to J. Fred Wilson (??)
6. Viola May Hickman (3/III/1887-?) married (?) to Newman L. Wilson (??)
6. George Earl Hickman (3/XII/1890-1/I/1962)
6. Willard Branty Hickman (12/IX/1893-13/V/1969) married 26/VI/1923 to Rebecca Dodrill (??)
6. Russell Murray Hickman (25/VIII/1895-6/X/1954) married 1918 to Hazel May Childress (1899-1972)
7. Maxine Delores Hickman (2/VII/1919-17/II/1947) married 1936 to George H. Custer Jr. (1911-1988)
8. Evadna Grace Custer (17/III/1937-) married 1957 to Stewart Dwight Ebnetter (10/X/1933-)
6. Elliott Harling Hickman (11/XII/1897-20/V/1941) married (?) to Norma ??
6. Lavaun (Lavon) Hickman (ca.1904-?) married (?) to Charley Bowling (??)
6. possibly as many as three who died in infancy, unnamed, in 1883, 1893, 1899

Hamilton Burton Hickman was the last child of Elliott and Betsey Hickman and his mother may have died the year he was born. I wonder if she died in child-birth? There are still some unknown dates, marked by ??, and even several unnamed children on this list. Any help in filling in those data will be appreciated.

Family of Hamilton Burton Hickman at Strange Ck., Nicholas Co., W.Va. about 1904. Left to right: Viola May (1887-?), Roxie H. (1884-1973), two unnamed sons, Russell Murray (1895-1954), unnamed son, baby Lavaun (ca.1904-?), Sarah Jane Young Hickman (1859-1951), Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926).

Can anyone name the three unidentified sons in the photo sent by Brenda?

Peter Lightner Hickman & Ollie Gertrude Lockridge, 1895

The earliest typewritten letter in my collection of family papers is one written by Ollie G. Lockridge in Ohio to Peter L. Hickman at Sun Rise in 1895.

My grandfather was born on the ancestral farm on Back Creek in 1858 and among his playmates were Charles Lewis Robinson (1856-1977), John Anson Robinson (1858-1927), and Jesse Stuart Robinson (1861-1927), who were all born into slavery but remained on the Hickman farm after the late lamented war for nearly as long as my grandfather. When Peter L. Hickman went to Ohio to woo and wed Ollie in 1895, John Robinson ran the farm and sent him report of the crops and affairs of the valley. It was John's wife Martha who I mentioned in the July newsletter after I had found her gravestone in the old slave graveyard. Stuart was the last of the former slaves to live at Sun Rise on Back Creek, and he is the only one of whom I have a (very poor) photo. However, there are several photos of Susie Green, the daughter of slaves, who lived at the old home place until her death about 1928.

In trying to track down the descendants of two of Roger Hickman's brothers I have written to eleven of the county, regional, and state historical societies in West Virginia. Only three have even bothered to respond.

Elizabeth B. Wiseman, Greenbrier Historical Society, kindly sent me some information about Andrew J. Hickman (1811-1880), Arthur Hickman (1803-1884), and some the children of Andrew and of James Elliott Hickman (1801-1885). Unfortunately, the material started out by saying that the Hickmans were German, and that makes me suspicious of the accuracy of the rest of the stuff.

That is not the first time I have seen — usually in "county histories" — a claim that the Hickmans were German, and it illustrates a practice among authors of such stuff to merely copy one another rather than using primary sources or doing their own research. Another myth passed around is that the Hickmans of Back Creek originated in Delaware, but they were English and were in Virginia by 1623 when "R. Hickman, Cl. Sec. off." signed the "Laws and Orders concluded on by the General Assembly, March the 5th, 1623-4." From such speculations, I now take "county history" and "family history" books and pamphlets with a grain of salt. They can help put people in certain places, but the stories and "facts" must be checked against better data.

I have nine letters written by Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880) from 1833 to 1855. His brother Roger on Back Creek. Andrew moved several times and began several farms in Pocahontas and Greenbrier counties before settling down in Nicholas County. He had two wives and nine children. However, I have lost track of his descendants and know nothing of his grandchildren or great-grandchildren.

Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880)

I have similarly lost track of his brother Arthur Hickman (1803-1884) and Arthur's son, William W. Hickman (1828-), even though I have three letters written by them in 1850.

Another suspect source of data is the dates taken from gravestones — a sometimes unreliable source of dates because some of the stones were inscribed and placed long after the deaths of the people named, and some inscriptions were composed out of memory rather than reference to written records.

An example is the grave of Huldah Shallum Hickman (1806-1887) who married Isaac Callison (1804-1883) in Virginia and moved to Illinois in 1834. About 1880 they moved to Iowa to live with their children. Huldah's great-grandchildren in California sent me a considerable amount of material (clippings, photos, letters, etc.) on Huldah's family, and said that she had died on 26 October 1880. However, I have six letters that she wrote "home" to her brother Roger Hickman on Back Creek from 1855 to 1886. Her great-grandchildren took the date of death from her gravestone and it is certainly in error.

I have nine letters written by Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880) from 1833 to 1855, and his brother Roger on Back Creek. Andrew moved several times, and began several farms in Pocahontas and Greenbrier counties before settling down in Nicholas County. He had ten wives and nine children. However, I have lost track of his descendants and know nothing of his grandchildren or great-grandchildren.

Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880)

I have similarly lost track of his brother Arthur Hickman (1803-1884) and Arthur's son, William W. Hickman (1828-), even though I have three letters written by them in 1850.

Another suspect source of data is the dates taken from gravestones — a sometimes unreliable source of dates because some of the stones were inscribed and placed long after the deaths of the people named, and some inscriptions were composed out of memory rather than reference to written records.

An example is the grave of Huldah Shallum Hickman (1806-1887) who married Isaac Callison (1804-1883) in Virginia and moved to Illinois in 1834. About 1880 they moved to Iowa to live with their children. Huldah's great-grandchildren in California sent me a considerable amount of material (clippings, photos, letters, etc.) on Huldah's family, and said that she had died on 26 October 1880. However, I have six letters that she wrote "home" to her brother Roger Hickman on Back Creek from 1855 to 1886. Her great-grandchildren took the date of death from her gravestone and it is certainly in error.

Hickmatts of Back Creek

Isaac Callison (1804-1883) & Hulah Shallum Hickman (1806-1887)

Grace Custer Ebner, in Georgia, sent photos of her great-grandfather, Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926), her grandfather, Russell Murray Hickman (1895-1954), and others, as well as some letters written by Russell Murray Hickman during his service in the army in WWI. Then her cousin, Brenda Hickman in West Virginia, sent me a better photo of Hamilton Burton Hickman and more family tree data, but I will have to save their contributions for the next newsletter.

After reading the latest draft of Back Creek, Marian Hoge MacKenzie reminded me that Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779) had, indeed, lived briefly on Back Creek, and that his will stated:

"I give and bequeath forever to my son Roger the hulf of a track of land that lies on the westernmost fork of James River which goes by the name of Back Creek

I give and bequeath forever to my daughter Betty the other hulf of same track of land that mentioned on Back Creek which the whole track contains two hundred acres and is marked through the middle by a row of marked trees I marked myself ..."

For this, and other reasons, I hope that no one is treating those drafts as gospel. If you have made copies of some pages, despite the © notice and the Do Not Copy watermark, please turn them away. When everything is sorted out, reviewed, edited, and printed will be the time to reconsider the data to be reliable. At least, I hope they will be much more accurate than the usual "family history" by then. Best wishes and keep the good stuff coming this way.

Bill Gabriel

Hickmans of Back Creek

Isaac Callison (1804-1883) & Huldah Shallum Hickman (1806-1887)

Grace Custer Ebner, in Georgia, sent photos of her great-grandfather, Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926), her grandfather, Russell Murray Hickman (1895-1954), and others, as well as some letters written by Russell Murray Hickman during his service in the army in WWI. Then her cousin, Brenda Hickman in West Virginia, sent me a better photo of Hamilton Burton Hickman and more family tree data, but I will have to save their contributions for the next newsletter.

After reading the latest draft of Back Creek, Marian Hoge MacKenzie reminded me that Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779) had, indeed, lived briefly on Back Creek, and that his will stated:

"I give and bequeath forever to my son Roger the half of a track of land that lies on the westernmost fork of James River which goes by the name of Back Creek.

I give and bequeath forever in my daughter Betty the other half of same track of land also mentioned on Back Creek which the whole track contains two hundred acres and is marked through the middle by a row of marked trees I marked myself ..."

For this, and other reasons, I hope that no one is treating those drafts as gospel. If you have made copies of some pages, despite the © notice and the Do Not Copy watermark, please throw them away. When everything is sorted out, reviewed, edited, and printed will be the time to consider the data to be reliable. At least, I hope they will be much more accurate than the usual "family history" by most best wishes and keep the good stuff coming this way.

Bill Gabriel

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
July 10, 1996

Dear Hickman cousins:

My great-great-great-grandfather was Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779) who acquired land at the headwaters of the James River in Augusta County, Virginia, in the mid-1700's when Virginia extended to the Mississippi River and the Great Lakes. Arthur may not actually have lived on his Back Creek property because he had other interests along the Potomac River, but his will left the Back Creek lands to a daughter, Betty Hickman (?-?), and a son, Roger Hickman (1740?-1827), who was my great-great-grandfather. Another of Arthur Hickman's sons, Sotha Hickman (1748-??), moved further west and settled on Elk Creek in what would become Monongalia County, Virginia.

Roger Hickman had four children and two of those inherited the lands on Back Creek in what had by then become Bath County, Virginia. One son, William Hickman (1770-1843), had nine children. It was some of those children of William Hickman that wrote the letters, and saved the papers, that are the basis for my history of the Hickmans of Back Creek. They were passed down to my grandfather and then to my mother, uncles, and aunt who entrusted the treasure to me.

1. Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779)

2. William Hickman (ca.1746-ca.1808) married ca.1773 to Jean Fletchall (ca.1751-ca.1781)

married 29/VIII/1781 to Nancy "Ann" Lucas (ca.1765-?)

3. Sotha Hickman (1748-??) married (?) to Elizabeth Davies, moved to Elk Creek ca.1771

2. Betty Hickman (?-?) married (?) James Ellis (?-?) she inherited 1/2 Arthur's property on Back Creek

2. Roger Hickman (1740?-1827) married (?) Margaret Davis (?-?) he inherited 1/2 Arthur's Back Creek property

3. Mary Hickman (?-?) married 6/VI/1794 to John Dunlap (?-?) of Rockbridge County, Va.

3. James M. Hickman (?-1851) married 1795 to Margaret Bird (?-?) he inherited 1/2 Roger's Back Cr. property

3. John B. Hickman (?-?)

3. William Hickman (1770-1843) married 1799 to Mary Elliott (1771-1842) he inherited 1/2 Roger's property

4. Martha Elliott "Patsy" Hickman (1800-1875) married 1820 to Stuart Taylor (1796-1874)

5. William Taylor (1821-1902) married 1846 to Isabelle Anne Kimberlin (?-1902?)

4. Jane Elliott Hickman (1802-ca.1841) married 1818 to William Bradshaw (?-1850)

4. Arthur Hickman (1803-1884) married 1827 to Rebecca Walker (1806-1879) in 1848 bought 540 A.

on Glade Cr., Nicholas Co., Va.

4. James Elliott Hickman (1804-1885) married 1830 to Elizabeth E. Hamilton (1812-ca.1857) later moved to Nicholas Co., Va.

4. Huldah Shallom Hickman (1806-1888) married 1828 to Isaac Callison (1804-1880) moved to Vermilion

& Fulton Co., Ill.

4. Mary Hickman (15/II/1808-23/III/1816)

4. William P. Hickman (1810-1864) married 1843 to Margaret R. Hoge (1821-1904) killed in Civil War

4. Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880) married 1834 to Deliah S. Armentrout (?-1837) married 7/XI/1837 to Nancy Wallace (1813-?) he is buried near Persinger, W.Va.

4. Roger Hickman (1813-1889) married 1838 to Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843) he was William's heir married 1846 to Margaret Brown Campbell (1824-1862)

married 1864 to Rebecca Ann Lowry (1835-1896)

5. Peter Lightner Hickman (1858-1937) married 1895 to Ollie Gertrude Lockridge (1870-1965)

6. Ruth Gertrude Hickman (1908-) married 1933 to Herman William Gabriel Jr. (1910-1972)

7. Herman William Gabriel III (1933-) that is me, your newsletter editor

William Taylor was the author of 16 books one of which, Story of My Life, is still in print 100 years after its first printing. In it he tells of his parents, his uncles and aunts, and his fifty years later and it is worth reading. What I am seeing in my search for old Hickman stories that they have accepted as "the word" is that people tend to pass around a few popular to quote passages, taken out of context, from Story of My Life. Fortunately, I have an original 1903 copy of that "set page" autobiography, as well as letters written by William Taylor and brother and their father and mother to my great-grandfather, Roger Hickman (1813-1889).

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
July 10, 1996

Dear Hickman cousins:

My great-great-great-grandfather was Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779) who acquired land at the headwaters of the James River in Augusta County, Virginia, in the mid-1700's when Virginia extended to the Mississippi River and the Great Lakes. Arthur may not actually have lived on his Back Creek property because he had other interests along the Potomac River, but his will left the Back Creek lands to a daughter, Betty Hickman (?-?), and a son, Roger Hickman (1740?-1827), who was my great-great-grandfather. Another of Arthur Hickman's sons, Sotha Hickman (1748-??), moved further west and settled on Elk Creek in what would become Monongalia County, Virginia.

Roger Hickman had four children and two of those inherited the lands on Back Creek in what had by then become Bath County, Virginia. One son, William Hickman (1770-1843), had nine children. It was some of those children of William Hickman that wrote the letters, and saved the papers, that are the basis for my history of the Hickmans of Back Creek. They were passed down to my grandfather and then to my mother, uncles, and aunt who entrusted the treasure to me.

1. Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779)

2. William Hickman (ca.1746-ca.1808) married ca.1773 to Jean Fitchall (ca.1751-ca.1781)

married 29/VIII/1781 to Nancy "Ann" Lucas (ca.1765-?)

3. Sotha Hickman (1748-??) married (?) to Elizabeth Davies, moved to Elk Creek ca.1771

2. Betty Hickman (?-?) married (?) James Ellis (?-?) she inherited 1/2 Arthur's property on Back Creek

3. Roger Hickman (1740?-1827) married (?) Margaret Davis (?-?) he inherited 1/2 Arthur's Back Creek property

1. Mary Hickman (?-?) married 6/V/1794 to John Dunlap (?-?) of Rockbridge County, Va.

3. James M. Hickman (?-1851) married 1795 to Margaret Bird (?-?) he inherited 1/2 Roger's Back Cr. property

1. John B. Hickman (?-?)

3. William Hickman (1770-1843) married 1799 to Mary Elliott (1771-1842) he inherited 1/2 Roger's property

4. Martha Elliott "Patsy" Hickman (1800-1875) married 1820 to Stuart Taylor (1796-1874)

5. William Taylor (1821-1902) married 1846 to Isabelle Anne Kimberlin (?-1902?)

4. Jane Elliott Hickman (1802-ca.1841) married 1818 to William Bradshaw (?-1850?)

4. Arthur Hickman (1803-1884) married 1827 to Rebecca Walker (1806-1879) in 1848 bought 540 A.

on Glade Cr., Nicholas Co., Va.

4. James Elliott Hickman (1804-1885) married 1830 to Elizabeth E. Hamilton (1812-ca.1857) later moved to Nicholas Co., Va.

4. Huldah Shallum Hickman (1806-1888) married 1828 to Isaac Callison (1804-1880) moved to Vernison

& Fulton Co., Ill.

4. Mary Hickman (15/II/1808-23/III/1816)

4. William P. Hickman (1810-1864) married 1843 to Margaret R. Hoge (1821-1904) killed in Civil War

4. Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880) married 1834 to Delilah S. Armentrout (?-1837)

married 7/XI/1837 to Nancy Wallace (1813-?) he is buried near Persinger, W.Va.

4. Roger Hickman (1813-1889) married 1838 to Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843) he was William's heir

married 1846 to Margaret Brown Campbell (1824-1862)

married 1864 to Rebecca Ann Lowry (1835-1896)

5. Peter Lightner Hickman (1859-1937) married 1895 to Ollie Gertrude Lockridge (1870-1965)

6. Ruth Gertrude Hickman (1908-?) married 1933 to Herman William Gabriel Jr. (1910-1972)

? Herman William Gabriel III (1933-?) that is me, your newsletter editor

William Taylor was the author of 16 books one of which, Story of My Life, is still in print (60) years after its first printing. In it he tells of his parents, his uncles and aunts, and his grandfather William on Back Creek. It is a good description of life there as he remembered it fifty years later and it is worth reading. What I am seeing in my search for old Hickman stories that they have accepted as "the word" on their ancestors. A couple decades ago it was popular to quote passages, taken out of context, from Story of My Life. Fortunately, I have an original 1895 copy of that 764 page autobiography, as well as letters written by William (1813-theory) and their father and mother to my great-grandfather, Roger Hickman

It would be wonderful to have similar autobiographies, or even biographies, describing the lives of the other Hickmans of Back Creek but none of William Layton's relatives have authored such helpful books. Some, however, were great writers of letters and I have been fortunate to round up hundreds of their letters and other documents.

Those of you who have been reading these newsletters know that I am trying to trace down the descendants of my great-grandfather's siblings to find additional old letters, photos and stories. I have been successful in finding many descendants, some old photos, a few stories and anecdotes, but no more old letters.

A primary goal of that search has been the children left by the Rev. William P. Hickman after his death in the Civil War in 1864. I am delighted to have heard from four of the descendants of John Hoge Hickman (1855-1935), one of William P.'s sons. It seems that he left Putlaski County, Virginia, and went to Antelope County, Nebraska, in the mid-1870's. There he worked as a printer's helper at a newspaper, in a photography studio, and as a "bull-whacker" driving freight wagons before buying land and devoting his attention to farming. He married Maggie Jane McCartney (1860-1941) in 1877 and they had six or seven children.

One son of Hoge and Maggie, William John Hickman (1880-1949), left Nebraska during the Dust Bowl crisis in 1934 and took his family to the Willamette Valley of Oregon. His grandson, George R. Cooley (1932-), now lives in North Carolina and he has sent copies of obituaries, stories, and photos that help immensely in filling out the history of William P. Hickman's family.

Three children of John Hoge Hickman (1855-1935) born in Nebraska, with spouses in 1941
Margaret Jane Hickman (1887-1960), Edith Elizabeth Davis (1892-1983), Miranda Bird Hickman (1885-1956)
Harry C. Frady (1884-1929), William John Hickman (1880-1949), George Edward Emerick (1882-1958)

The rest of the children of Hoge and Maggie Hickman remained in Nebraska with their spouses and children. A daughter, Miranda Bird Hickman (1885-1956), married George Edward Emerick (1882-1958) and they had three daughters. I have heard from one of those daughters, Vivien Armistea Emerick Yales Dodson (1907-) and two of her grandsons, Randy L. Mitchell (1954-) and Ronald P. Mitchell (1953-). Some years ago Vivien compiled a history of her Emerick and Hickman ancestors that tells of their lives in Nebraska. In it she had copies of photos of Margaret Hoge Hickman (1821-1904), her son John Hoge Hickman (1855-1935) in his first car, his wife Maggie Jane McCartney Hickman (1860-1941), and their daughter Miranda Bird Hickman (1885-1956), as well as later descendants. I am afraid, however, that Vivien had a highly romanticized idea of her great-grandfather and his family life on a

It would be wonderful to have similar autobiographies, or even biographies, about the lives of the other Hickmans of Back Creek but none of William Taylor's circles or cousins authored such helpful books. Some, however, were great writers of letters and I have been fortunate to rummage up hundreds of them and other documents.

Those of you who have been reading these newsletters know that I am trying to track down the descendants of my great-grandfather's siblings to find additional old letters, photos and stories. I have been successful in finding many descendants, some old photos, a few stories and anecdotes, but no more old letters.

A primary goal of that search has been the children left by the Rev. William P. Hickman after his death in the Civil War in 1864. I am delighted to have heard from four of the descendants of John Hoge Hickman (1855-1935), one of William P.'s sons. It seems that he left Pulaski County, Virginia, and went to Antelope County, Nebraska, in the mid-1870's. There he worked as a printer's helper at a newspaper, in a photography studio, and as a "bull-whacker" driving freight wagons before buying land and devoting his attention to farming. He married Maggie Jane McCartney (1860-1941) in 1877 and they had six or seven children.

One son of Hoge and Maggie, William John Hickman (1880-1949), left Nebraska during the Dust Bowl crisis in 1934 and took his family to the Willamette Valley of Oregon. His grandson, George R. Cooley (1932-), now lives in North Carolina and he has sent copies of obituaries, stories, and photos that help immensely in filling out the history of William P. Hickman's family.

Three children of John Hoge Hickman (1855-1935) born in Nebraska, with spouses in 1941: Margaret Jane Hickman (1887-1960), Edith Elizabeth Davis (1892-1983), Miranda Bird Hickman (1885-1956), Harry C. Frady (1884-1929), William John Hickman (1880-1949), George Edward Emerick (1882-1958)

The rest of the children of Hoge and Maggie Hickman remained in Nebraska with their spouses and children. A daughter, Miranda Bird Hickman (1885-1956), married George Edward Emerick (1882-1958) and they had three daughters. I have heard from one of those daughters, Vivien Armistia Emerick Yates Dodson (1907-) and two of her grandsons, Randy L. Mitchell (1954-) and Ronald P. Mitchell (1953-). Some years ago Vivien compiled a history of her Emerick and Hickman ancestors that tells of their lives in Nebraska. In it she had copies of photos of Margaret Hoge Hickman (1821-1904), her son John Hoge Hickman (1855-1935) in his first car, his wife Maggie Jane McCartney Hickman (1860-1941), and their daughter Miranda Bird Hickman (1885-1956), as well as later descendants. I am afraid, however, that Vivien had a highly romanticized idea of her great-grandfather and his family life on a mythical cotton and tobacco plantation near Richmond, Virginia, in the 19th century. Unfortunately, she had no stories about how the Hickmans got to Nebraska, and why John Hoge Hickman's nieces returned to Virginia to marry.

Hickmans of Back Creek

Vivien lives in Seattle, Ron near Denver, and Randy is in Harrisonburg, Virginia, not very far from where his great-great-great-grandfather was born and raised on Back Creek. Randy has provided more current data to help fill in down to the 10th generation on my Hickman Family Tree. That list of the descendants of Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779) has grown to 28 pages—and thousands of names—now.

From these sources I was able to add the following information about the descendants of William P. Hickman and John Hoge Hickman that, sadly, show the gradual loss of the Hickman surname so that few of the living descendants of the Rev. William P. Hickman carry his name:

5. John Hoge Hickman (9/III/1855-19/III/1935) married 8/III/1877 to Maggie Jane McCartney (15/IV/1860-16/III/1941) both married and died in Neligh, Nebr.
[all three children died of diphtheria in 1885]
6. Elbert M. "Berrie" Hickman (5/XII/1877-20/XII/1885)
6. March Hickman (28/XI/1879-29/XI/1885)
6. Ethel Hickman (8/II/1882-18/XII/1885)
6. William John Hickman (13/XII/1880-31/III/1949) married 1910 Edith Elizabeth Davis (11/II/1892-13/V/1983) married in Nebr., moved to Oregon in 1934
7. Freeta Gertrude Hickman (23/XI/1910-?) married 1932 to Willis LeRoy Moore (12/VIII/1896-2/VIII/1957) married 29/V/1958 to Sylvester James Collrin (21/IV/1919-1/IV/1987)
8. Wanda Charlotte Moore (1/XI/1934-) married c.1950 to Ronald Kenneth Copeland (31/X/1931-?) married 16/IV/1976 to Dean Abbot (7/VII/1927-)
7. Florence Margaret Hickman (8/VIII/1912-21/IX/1912) —died in infancy—Orchard, Antelope Co. Nebr.
7. Frances Elizabeth Hickman (19/IX/1913-?) married 1930 to George Michael Cooley (3/III/1905-26/II/1955) both born and married in Antelope Co.
8. Evelyn Elaine Cooley (5/VI/1931-17/V/1987) married 1948 to Clifford Bunch Jr (27/II/1929-24/II/1995) married 14/IV/1956 to Douglas Gentry (19/II/1925-?) married 18/XII/1969 to Joseph Greff (c.1932-1975)
8. George Raymond Cooley (25/VII/1932-) married (?) to
7. John Hoge Hickman (23/VI/1916-?) married 17/X/1936 to Miriam Bessie Mulkey (25/VI/1918-?)
8. LeRoy Hoge Hickman (11/IX/1932-14/X/1972)
8. Janice Darlene Hickman (10/VII/1941-?)
7. Daisy Idell Hickman (15/II/1919-) married 23/II/1937 to Clarence Ernsiein Wilson (11/IV/1897-?)
8. John Keith Wilson (15/VI/1938-) married 30/VII/1960 to Norlene Kathryn Farmer (7/XI/1941-)
8. Douglas Edward Wilson (22/VII/1942-) married 1962 to Helen Gray (1941-?)
6. Miranda Bird Hickman (8/II/1885-19/III/1956) married 1905 George Edward Emerick (5/II/1882-24/V/1958) married 1964 to Constance Joan Miller 3/II/1946-1/VIII/1984
7. Vivien Arminia Emerick (11/III/1907-) married 23/VII/1926 to William John Yates (8/III/1890-2/II/1986) married (?) to ? Dodson(?)?)
8. Amy Marie Yates (10/VIII/1932-) married (?) to Harvey Kamerzell (?) married (?) to ? Clark (?)?) married (?) to ? McQuowen (?)?)
9. Mary Kamerzell (1/XII/1941-)
9. Linda Kamerzell (1/VI/1952-)
9. William Kamerzell (2/VII/1953-)
9. Robert Kamerzell (2/V/1955-)
9. Wanda Kamerzell (11/II/1957-)
9. Dick Clark (11/V/1961-)
9. Shirley McQuowen (1/VI/1963-)
7. Berline Ann Yates (22/XII/1913-24/VIII/1994) married 1952 Don Dean Mitchell (24/XI/1927-?)
9. Ronald Patrick Mitchell (14/II/1953-) married 3/VII/1975 to Judy Byrd (10/V/1955-)
10. Autumn Brooke Mitchell (24/X/1976-)
10. Forrest Mitchell (14/X/1976)
10. Gage Mitchell (24/V/1981)
10. Leroy Mitchell (2/XI/1984)
9. Randle Lynn Mitchell (13/IX/1954) married 15/III/1976 to Lebra Kay Atson (10/IV/1954-)
10. Shonda Dawn Mitchell (25/II/1979)
10. David John Mitchell (12/II/1982)
10. Kimberly Nicole Mitchell (15/X/1984)
9. Jonathan Lewis Mitchell (13/V/1971) married (?) to Jerey Wabely (1-1)
10. Kelly Wabely (1/V/1979)

Hickmans of Back Creek

mythical cotton and tobacco plantation near Richmond, Virginia, in the 19th century. Unfortunately, she had no stories about how the Hickmans got to Nebraska, and why John Hoge Hickman's nieces returned to Virginia to marry.

Vivien lives in Seattle, Ron near Denver, and Randy is in Harrisonburg, Virginia, not very far from where his great-great-great-grandfather was born and raised on Back Creek. Randy has provided more current data to help fill in down to the 10th generation on my Hickman Family Tree. That list of the descendants of Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779) has grown to 28 pages—and thousands of names—now.

From these sources I was able to add the following information about the descendants of William P. Hickman and John Hoge Hickman that, sadly, show the gradual loss of the Hickman surname so that few of the living descendants of the Rev. William P. Hickman carry his name:

5. John Hoge Hickman (9/III/1855-19/VIII/1935) married 8/III/1877 to Maggie Jane McCartney (15/IV/1860-16/III/1941) both married and died in Neligh, Nebr.
[all three children died of diphtheria in 1885]
6. Elbert M. "Berrie" Hickman (5/XII/1877-20/XII/1885)
6. March Hickman (28/XI/1879-29/XII/1885)
6. Ethel Hickman (8/II/1882-18/XII/1885)
6. William John Hickman (13/XII/1880-31/III/1949) married 1910 Edith Elizabeth Davis (11/II/1892-13/V/1983) married in Nebr., moved to Oregon in 1934
7. Freeta Gertrude Hickman (23/XI/1910-?) married 1932 to Willis LeRoy Moore (12/VIII/1896-24/VIII/1957) married 29/V/1958 to Sylvester James Coltrin (21/IV/1919-1/IV/1987)
8. Wanda Charlotte Moore (1/XI/1934-) married c.1950 to Ronald Kenneth Copeland (31/X/1931-?) married 16/IV/1976 to Dean Abbott (7/VI/1927-)
7. Florence Margaret Hickman (8/VIII/1912-21/IX/1912) —died in infancy—Orchard, Antelope Co. Nebr.
7. Frances Elizabeth Hickman (19/IX/1913-?) married 1930 to George Michael Cooley (5/III/1905-26/II/1955) both born and married in Antelope Co.
8. Evelyn Elaine Cooley (5/V/1931-17/V/1987) married 1948 to Clifford Bunch Jr (27/II/1929-24/II/1995) married 14/IV/1956 to Douglas Gentry (19/II/1925-?) married 18/XII/1969 to Joseph Greff (c.1932-1975)
8. George Raymond Cooley (25/V/II/1932-) married (?) to
7. John Hoge Hickman (23/V/II/1916-?) married 17/X/1936 to Miriam Bessie Mulkey (25/V/II/1918-?)
8. LeRoy Hoge Hickman (11/IX/1932-14/X/1972)
8. Janice Darlene Hickman (10/VII/1941-?)
7. Daisy Idell Hickman (15/II/1919-) married 23/II/1937 to Clarence Ernest Wilson (11/IV/1897-?)
8. John Keith Wilson (15/V/1938-) married 30/VII/1960 to Norlene Kathryn Farmer (7/XI/1941-)
8. Douglas Edward Wilson (22/VII/1942-) married 1962 to Helen Gray (1941-?)
6. Miranda Bird Hickman (8/II/1885-19/III/1956) married 1905 George Edward Emerick (5/II/1882-24/V/1958)
7. Vivien Armita Emerick (11/III/1907-) married 23/VII/1926 to William John Yates (8/III/1890-2/III/1986) married (?) to ? Dodson(?)?)
8. Amy Marie Yates (10/V/III/1932-) married (?) to Harvey Kamerzell (?) married (?) to ? Clark (?) married (?) to ? McQuowen (?)?)
7. Mary Kamerzell (I/XII/1941-?)
7. Linda Kamerzell (2/VII/1952-?)
7. William Kamerzell (I/VII/1953-?)
7. Robert Kamerzell (I/V/1953-?)
7. Sandra Kamerzell (I/III/1957-?)
7. Dick Clark (I/IV/1961-?)
7. MarBy McQuowen (I/VII/1963-?)
8. Fern Ann Yates (22/XII/1933-24/VIII/1994) married 1952 Don Dean Mitchell (24/XI/1927-?)
7. Ronald Patrick Mitchell (14/III/1953-) married 3/VII/1975 to Judy Byrd (10/V/1958-?)
10. Autumn Brooke Mitchell (24/X/1976-?)
10. Forrest Mitchell (14/X/1978-?)
10. Sage Mitchell (24/V/1981-?)
10. Lucy Mitchell (12/XI/1984-?)
7. Randle Lynn Mitchell (19/IX/1954-) married 13/III/1976 to Debra Kay Anson (19/IV/1954-?)
10. Amanda Lynn Mitchell (25/II/1979-?)
10. David Brian Mitchell (11/1/1982-?)
10. Landry Brooke Mitchell (13/IX/1984-?)
7. Cynthia Jean Mitchell (13/V/III/1977-?) married (?) to Jerry Waboly (I-?)
10. Kelly Waboly (15/V/III/1979-?)

The eldest son of William P. Hickman, James Brown Hickman (1845-1908), also went to Antelope County, Nebraska, sometime after his first wife had died in Virginia, and maybe after he had married a second time in Iowa. That wife also died, and James married a third time in Nebraska. In all, he had seven children, four of whom were born in Virginia, and one or two in Nebraska. James Brown Hickman, as did his brother, made several trips back to Virginia to visit his mother and siblings. At the time of his death in 1908, he was said to have lived near Brunswick, Nebraska, for 29 years.

5. James Brown Hickman (18/XI/1848-28/V/1908) married 1875 to Florence "Fannie" J. Sneed (14/V/1857-

19/X/1878)

the lived with his sister, Kate L. Brown, in Pulaski Co. at 1880 census

married 21/VII/1880 to Sadie Cole (3/V/1851-23/X/1883)

married 4/VII/1885 to Martha E. Van Buren (1858-1920) they married and died in Antelope Co., Neb.

6. son Hickman (1-?)

6. daughter Hickman (2-?)

6. George H. Hickman (23/X/1877-28/V/1923) born in Pulaski Co., died in Florida, buried in Richmond, Va.

6. Sadie Hickman (1881-1925) married 1890 to Harry (Harold?) Reads (1868-1925) she was born in Pulaski Co.

6. son Hickman (2-?)

6. Mollie Hickman (2-?)

6. son Hickman (2-?) married 11/IV/1915 to Raymond Van Buren (1/VIII/1878-8/V/IV/1950)

6. son Hickman (2-?) married 22/V/1886-23/V/1886) born and died in Clearwater, Antelope Co., Nebraska

5. Emily Susan (Emma Sue) Hickman (2/XI/1850-29/II/1862)—may have died from chorea (St. Vitus dance)—

5. William White Hickman (3/II/1852-9/XI/1854) —died of flu & whooping cough—

A third offspring of William P. Hickman also made the trip to Nebraska; his eldest daughter, Mary Crockett Hickman (1846-1917) who married William A. Chumblley (1841-1917) in about 1866. They had 11 children, two of whom —in girls Mary C. and Margaret R.—

were born in Nebraska in 1881. George Cooley has a photo of Mary C. Chumblley and her first cousin, William John Hickman, taken in 1899 but I do not know whether it was taken in Virginia or Nebraska. The twin girls were married in Pulaski County, Virginia —Maggie in 1907 to W. J. Lucas, and Mary in 1908 to Jesse McC. Miller. Apparently their parents had not found what they were looking for in Nebraska and returned to Virginia with the children.

I suspect that there will be little more to learn of William P. and his wife and children, but I know there is still much to find concerning the lives of some of his siblings.

The eldest son of William T. Hickman, James Brown Hickman (1848-1908), also went to Antelope County, Nebraska, sometime after his first wife had died in Virginia, and maybe after he had married a second time in Iowa. That wife also died, and James married a third time in Nebraska. In all, he had seven children, four of whom were born in Virginia, and one or two in Nebraska, James Brown Hickman, as did his brother, made several trips back to Virginia to visit his mother and siblings. At the time of his death in 1908, he was said to have lived near Brunswick, Nebraska, for 29 years.

9. Carol Marie Birtch (18/11/1961 - married 3/11/1961 - married 1961 to Mark Wayne Birtch (13/11/1934-1)
10. Karl George Birtch (2/12/1981 -)
11. Emily Anne Birtch (23/11/1981 -)
8. William Eric Yates (13/11/1919 - married 3/11/1961 to Marilyn Kay Yates (-? -)
9. Robert Yates (1/11/1967 -)
10. Glen Jay Yates (18/V/1940 - married 3/11/1968 to Pamela Henson (-? -)
5. Glen Yates (1/11/1968 -)
9. Claudia Yates (1/IV/1973 -)
9. Grace Yates (1/11/1976 -)
9. William Eric Yates (13/11/1919 - married 3/11/1961 to Marilyn Kay Yates (-? -)
8. Linda Louise Yates (7/III/1943 - married (-? -) to Don Grippin (-? -1962)
9. Michael Grippin (1/IV/1969 -)
7. Olive Rae Emerick (17/V/1909-5/II/1994) married 29/V/III/1928 to Lloyd Pick (1905-?)
8. Joyce Louise Pick (20/VI/1929-?)
8. George Pick (11/7/VI/1931-?) married (-?) to ??
9. Karen Pick (-?)
9. Carol Pick (-?)
7. Alice Evelyn Hickman (23/1/1912-14/V/II/1929)
6. Margaret Jane "Peg" Hickman (5/XI/1887-12/V/II/1960) married 24/II/1909 to Harry C. Fryck (1884-1929)
7. Helen Fready (11/1-1972) married c.1928 to George Ganskow (C.1910-?) both born and died in Andropo Co. Neb.
7. DeWayne Fready (1913 - 1981?) married 1/XI/1942 to Ora L. Anson (21/XI/1911-29/XI/1981)
7. Hoge Norman Fready (9/V/II/1915-15/II/1990) married 1/XI/1941 to Iva Mitchell Case (-?)
6. Infant son Hickman (21/IX/1890-21/IX/1890) — stillborn according to family story—

[Ila V. Cox (1922) with another boy perhaps of maternal origin the descendants of both James Elihu Hickman (1804-1865) and Arthur Hickman (1813-1899). She also listed several names whom she was a girl. It seems that Ella has really dug into the vicinity of Fritzsche, W. Va. where she lived. Putting together the Hickman family saga. Elizabeth C. Morris wrote to say that her deceased husband was a descendant of Arthur Hickman and his daughter Martha J. Hickman (1816-1904) who married Andrew Leaven McEwen (172-1861). She has some photos, made from letters, of Martha, her husband, and some of the children. I am looking forward to hearing more from her. So, I have now heard from three people with knowledge of the descendants of Arthur Hickman, and I am gradually filling in the gaps on that limb of the Hickman tree. Any other contributions to that line will be appreciated.

The highest priority for my search now will be for the descendants of Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880). I have nine letters that he wrote "home" to Roger J. Hickman (1813-1899) on Black Creek between 1833 and 1855. Andrew moved several times, and began several farms, in Pocahontas and Greenbrier counties before settling down in Nicholas County. He had two wives and nine children, but I have lost track of his descendants and am left with only the following statistics:

4. Andrew Johnson Hickman (20/X/1811-24/X/1880) married 1834 to Bellah S. Armstrong (1-2/II/1837) married 7/X/1837 to Nancy Wallace (1813-?) he is buried on his farm near Persinger, W. Va.
5. George Johnson Hickman (1837-?)
5. Elizabeth Jane "Eliza Jane" Hickman (1839-?) married (2) to H. E. Morgan (2) lived at New River Depot, Va. — died at 18—
5. Mary Virginia Hickman (1842-ca.1860)
5. William Robert Hickman (1844-?)
5. Elizabeth Hulda Hickman (1845-?)
5. Andrew A. Hickman (1847-18/X/II/1883) married 1875 to Amanda Fitzwater (2-?) then divorced or? lived in Beaver District of Nicholas County
6. Homer Fitzwater (1875-?) raised by his mother as a Fitzwater because of her family's objection to Andrew A. Hickman
7. daughter
5. Sarah Agnes "Sallie" Hickman (1849-?) married (2) to Granville "Jack" Berry (2-1860) no children lived above Keesers, W. Va.
5. Henry Margaret Hickman (2-?) married (2) C. A. McMillan (2-1926)
5. Harry Russell Hickman (1851-?) married (2) to Nancy Alice Huff (2-?) lived near Persinger, Nicholas Co.
6. Horis L. Hickman (10/VI/1880-?)
6. Arthur Hickman (18/III/1882-?)
6. Mary R. Hickman (10/VI/1884-?)
6. Ann E. Hickman (19/VII/1885-?)

So far, I have heard from only two persons with the briefest of data to help compile the above list. Does anyone else know of the family of Andrew J. Hickman?

All writers and editors like to get mail indicating that people are reading the product, so I was delighted to receive a couple of responses to the newsletter of October 30, 1995.

First, my brother, Henmar, was in southern California in May and he went out of his way to visit the town of Julian to see what he could learn of Virginia and Joseph Hamilton. I had described how Virginia Alice Hickman (1848-1933) waited over twenty years on Black Creek for her sweetheart to return from California, marry her, and take her with him to the little mining town of Julian (see page 3 and photo on page 4 of that newsletter).

The Julian Pioneer Museum provided an unpublished history containing the following account of Joe and Jennie coming to that area:

"Joseph E. Hamilton ... came to Julian in the seventies and settled on a ranch a few miles out of town and engaged in farming with a few cattle on the side. He was a backslider but could be counted on in any social function. Along about 1889, Hamilton, Eh Feceler, and Bob McEwen went on a prospecting tour, locating the Gold King and Queen Mines, six miles south of Julian. The quartet held was narrow but the ore showed sufficient value to warrant development and the boys went to work, sinking a shaft on the property. They had been at work a short time and had worked five or six Ellis V. Cox (1925) sent mother his mother his package of material about the descendants of both James Ellison Hickman (1864-1895) and Arthur Hickman (1813-1897) who also had several sons. It seems that Ellis has really dug into the vicinity of Strasburg, Va. when he was a G.I. It pictures together the Hickman family saga. Elizabeth C. Morris wrote to say that her deceased husband was a descendant of Arthur Hickman and his daughter Martha J. Hickman (1836-1904) who married Andrew Leavenworth (17-?) in 1861. She has some pictures, made from tinypes, of Martha, her husband, and some of the children. I am looking forward to hearing more from her. So, I have now heard from three people with knowledge of the descendants of Arthur Hickman, and I am gradually filling in the gaps on that limb of the Hickman tree. Any other contributions to that line will be appreciated.

The highest priority for my search now will be for the descendants of Andrew Johnson on Back Creek between 1833 and 1855. Andrew moved several times, and began several farms, in Pocahontas and Greenbrier counties before settling down in Nicholas County. He had two wives and nine children, but I have lost track of his descendants and am left with only the following statistics:

4. Andrew Johnson Hickman (20/X/1811-24/X/1880) married 1834 to Bellah S. Armstrong (1-2/I/1837) married 7/X/1857 to Nancy Wallace (1813-?) he is buried on his farm near Petersburg, Va.
5. George Johnson Hickman (1837-?)
5. Elizabeth Jane Eliza Jane Hickman (1839-?) married (?) to H. E. Morgan (?) lived at New River Depot, Va. — died at 18—
5. William Robert Hickman (1844-?)
5. Elizabeth Hulda Hickman (1845-?)
5. Andrew A. Hickman (1847-18/X/1/1883?) married 1875 to Amanda Fitzwater (?) then divorced or ? lived in Beaver District of Nicholas County
6. Homer Fitzwater (1875-?) raised by his mother as a Fitzwater because of her father's objection to Andrew A. Hickman
7. daughter
5. Sarah Agnes "Sallie" Hickman (1849-?) married (?) to Granville "Jack" Berry (?) >1860) no children lived above Hearers, W. Va.
5. Henry Margaret Hickman (?) married (?) C. A. McMillan (?) 1926
5. Harry Russell Hickman (1853-?) married (?) to Nancy Alice Huff (?) lived near Petersburg, Nicholas Co.
5. Horat L. Hickman (1870/1/1880-?)
6. Arthur Hickman (1871/1/1882-?)
6. Mary R. Hickman (10/V/1/1884-?)
6. Ann E. Hickman (19/V/1/1885-?)

So far, I have heard from only two persons with the briefest of data to help compile the above list. Does anyone else know of the family of Andrew J. Hickman?

All writers and editors like to get mail indicating that people are reading the product, so I was delighted to receive a couple of responses to the newsletter of October 30, 1995.

First, my brother, Henmar, was in southern California in May and he went out of his way to visit the town of Julian to see what he could learn of Virginia and Joseph Hamilton. I had described how Virginia Alice Hickman (1848-1933) waited over twenty years on Back Creek for her sweetheart to return from California, marry her, and take her with him to the little mining town of Julian (see page 3 and photo on page 4 of that newsletter).

The Julian Pioneer Museum provided an unpublished history containing the following account of Joe and Jennie coming to that area:

"Joseph E. Hamilton ... came to Julian in the seventies and settled on a ranch for miles out of town and engaged in farming with a few cattle on the side. He was a bachelor but could be counted on in any social function.

Along about 1889, Hamilton, Eb Feeler, and Bob Michose went on a prospecting tour, locating the Gold King and Queen Mines, six miles south of Julian. The quartet led was narrow but the ore showed sufficient value to warrant development and the boys went to work, sinking a shaft on the property. They had been in work a short time and had some fine ore on the dump when along came a begoggled expert and purchased the mines for an English Syndicate for $25,000.00.

Hickmans of Back Creek

The syndicate sent out a pair of 'Spats and Monocles' to open up the mines. Mister 'Spats and Monocles' built a shed for his horse, a boarding house for the workmen and promptly installed a cook. A quartz mill was in time erected. Then the ore on the dump was put through the mill and the gold went over the plates along with the tailings. Instead of declaring a dividend with the first cleanup, the mine was declared 'the bunk.' The mill shut down and a wire was sent back to the Syndicate for money on which to get home.

In the meantime J. E. Hamilton took his cut from the sale of the mine, went back to Virginia, married his old sweetheart, Virginia. He returned to Julian with his bride and continued his ranch operations until his death some years later, leaving his widow and a host of friends to mourn his loss. His widow passed away in 1933 after living with her nieces, Mary Gunn, Theola Parsons, and Sallie Miller since her husband's death."

If Joe had a one-third interest in the mine, then he must have gotten $8,333 and, if gold was worth $16 an ounce in 1889 and worth $350 an ounce now, he had made the equivalent of about $182,280 in today's funds in his mining venture. So, Joseph E. Hamilton returned to Back Creek as a wealthy man when he came to claim the hand of Virginia A. Hickman.

The three nieces mentioned were three of the four oldest daughters of Thomas Brown Hickman (1849-1928), a younger brother of Virginia Alice Hickman. He married Mary W. Payne (1846-1898) in 1881 and they had four daughters. Mary died in 1898 when the girls were 8, 11, 13, and 15. In 1901 Tom Hickman took Mary Kate Whitmore (1883-?) as his second wife and they had three more children. The second wife was the same age as his oldest daughter and there must have been some conflict in the home because all four of the girls went to California to live with their aunt.

The four daughters of Thomas Brown Hickman and Mary W. Payne who went to California. Top: Mary Brown and Sallie Dawson. Bottom: Theola Brown and Carrie Payne Hickman.

Mary Brown "Brownie" Hickman (1887-1929) married Charles Matthew Gunn in California and they had four children. Her sister, Sallie Dawson Hickman (1888-1978) married

RICHMOND TIMES-DISPATCH

HARDY

Ruth Hickman Gabriel Hardy of Richmond died January 2, 1997, just a few days before her 89th birthday. Born at Sun Rise near Warm Springs in Bath County, Va. on January 16, 1908, Ruth was one of seven children of Peter L. and Ollie L. Hickman. She attended one-room schools in Bath County for her grammar school education. In order to attend high school, Ruth moved to Milboro where she lived with her two younger brothers in a small rented house. There, Ruth did the cooking, cleaning, and chauffeuring until she graduated. One of Ruth's fondest memories was of being the sole graduate of Milboro High in 1927. Her situation made the newspapers from coast to coast because M. L. Combs of Richmond, the supervisor of the research division of the Virginia State Board of Education, traveled 196 miles to address the graduating class of one. Ruth married Herman W. Gabriel Jr. in 1933 in Richmond and they had two sons. She entered the insurance business with the local firm of Muhlenberg & Kayhoe in 1941. At a time when few women held such positions, Ruth H. Gabriel became well known in the field and was an officer in the firm before she retired in 1969. Ruth H. Gabriel and Edward J. Hardy were married in 1969 and she acquired a new set of children and grandchildren to delight and entertain her. Ed preceded Ruth in death in 1975. Ruth Gabriel Hardy had lived at The Hermitage since 1987. Survivors include two sons, Herman W. Gabriel III, Montana, and Hennar R. Gabriel, Texas; a stepson, Edward J. Hardy Jr., Richmond; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Richard M. Lewis, North Carolina and Mrs. William E. Welsh, Ohio; twelve grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She is also survived by two of her six brothers and sisters: Clare B. Hickman, Staunton, and Harry H. Hickman, Tenn. Her remains rest at the Wiley Funeral Home's Central Chapel, 3801 August Ave. where the family will receive friends 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday. Graveside services will be conducted 11 a.m. Monday in Westhampton Memorial Park. Memorial contributions may be made to The Hermitage Home in her name.

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
October 30, 1995

Dear Hickman cousins:

I have been working on the history of the Hickmans of Back Creek for some five years now, beginning with the six file drawers of old family letters, deeds, photos, etc. that I inherited and then adding the letters and other documents collected in the past two years. There are now three volumes totaling about 1,400 pages in draft form in my computer. In September I printed a draft of the first 300+ pages that take the Hickmans from about 1770 to about 1890 and sent it out to several people for a critical review of the content. That is the third draft version of that portion of the history and is a radical revision from what some of you had read in the earlier drafts.

Revisions are a result of new information, and/or a new interpretation of old data. As various people send me "stuff" I get to know our ancestors better and have a clearer idea of who they were, who their neighbors were, how they lived, and how they fit into the history of our country. The information about Hickmans of yore keeps trickling in from the most unexpected places, and I will use the following photo to illustrate that point.

Six Hickman cousins at Sun Rise on Back Creek, August 1944. Left to right: Noel Wick, Bill Gabel, Elmer Gabriel, Kathleen "Joanne" Hickman, Evelyn Hickman, and David Wick.

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
October 30, 1995

Dear Hickman cousins:

I have been working on the history of the Hickmans of Back Creek for some five years now, beginning with the six file drawers of old family letters, deeds, photos, etc. that I inherited and then adding the letters and other documents collected in the past two years. There are now three volumes totaling about 1,400 pages in draft form in my computer. In September I printed a draft of the first 300+ pages that take the Hickmans from about 1770 to about 1890 and sent it out to several people for a critical review of the content. That is the third draft version of that portion of the history and is a radical revision from what some of you had read in the earlier drafts.

Revisions are a result of new information, and/or a new interpretation of old data. As various people send me "stuff" I get to know our ancestors better and have a clearer idea of who they were, who their neighbors were, how they lived, and how they fit into the history of our country. The information about Hickmans of yore keeps trickling in from the most unexpected places, and I will use the following photo to illustrate that point.

Five Hickman cousins at Sun River on Back Creek, August 1944. Left to right: Bud, Wilb, Bill, Gabriel, Herman. Kathleen "Dinner" Hickman (sister) is Hickman (sister) Wilb.

Hickmans of Back Creek

The photo was taken of us kids standing on a rock wall and rock fireplace built by my father (but that is another story) in the yard of my grandmother's farm on Back Creek. I always knew the place as Sun Rise, but after I began writing this history I realized Sun Rise was not the name of the farm, but the name of a locality and its post office.

The postmaster of the Sun Rise post office from 1902 to 1916 was my grandmother, Olive Gertrude Lockridge Hickman (1870-1965), and it did indeed hang through the dining room window of her home. Before that her sister, Minnie Herman Lockridge Gwin, was the Sun Rise postmaster from 1890 to 1902 and the post office must have been in her home down the creek a bit. From 1880 to 1888 the postmaster was Laura Eugenia Hickman (1856-1999), a sickly woman who never married and who died of Bright's disease. She was succeeded by her step-mother, Rebecca Ann Lowry Hickman (1835-1896), the third wife of my great-grandfather, Roger Hickman (1813-1889), and during their tenure the Sun Rise post office was at the Hickman ancestral home place a mile down the creek from what I had known as "Sun Rise" as a child.

Howard William "Bud" Wilt (1934-1989) and Lorelei Loraine Wilt (1933-1994) in the photo were the children of Minnie Lee Hepler (1908-1987). Lorelei married Andrew Allen Peterson (?-?) and he works for Boeing in Pennsylvania. Last month I had a phone call from David R. Poling who happens to work with Andy Peterson. They had been talking about my family history and it turned out that Dave Poling is a descendant of Gottlieb Hartman who came to Pennsylvania in the 1700's. Gottlieb's son William Hartman was one of the "Pennsylvania Dutch" settlers in the mountains of Virginia, and he married Sophia Cleek, from another German family that is also related to my (English) Hickmans and (Scots-Irish) Lockridges. William Hartman and Sophia had a son, Isaac Vernon Hartman, who married Nancy Bradshaw (1819-1864). They are buried in a Hartman family cemetery near Green Bank, Pocahontas County, W.Va.

Nancy Bradshaw was a favorite niece of the second Roger Hickman (1813-1889) and his brother William P. Hickman (1810-1864) who mentioned her in many of his letters. All I had known about Nancy's place in the family tree had come from the will of her grandfather and some letters from her uncles and aunt, as follows:

2. Roger Hickman (?/VI/1740-1827) married (?) Margaret Davis (?) moved to Back Creek
3. William Hickman (5/VI/1770-25/X/1843) married 1799 to Mary Elliott (1/VI/1771-18/X/1842)
4. Jane Elliott Hickman (27/II/1802-ca.1841) married 2/VI/1818 to William Bradshaw (?-?) who had been a soldier in the War of 1812.
5. Nancy Bradshaw (1819-?) married 13/X/1838 to Isaac Hartman (?-?)
6. child
5. Matilda M. Bradshaw (?-?)
5. 6 sisters and 1 brother not otherwise named in the will of William Hickman in 1843

David Poling added the following information about Nancy Bradshaw and her descendants on the family tree:

4. Jane Elliott Hickman (27/II/1802-ca.1841) married ?/VI/1818 to William Bradshaw (?-1850) who had been a soldier in War of 1812
5. Nancy Makemie Bradshaw (30/III/1819-22/IV/1864) married 13/X/1838 to Isaac Vernon Hartman (17/XI/1808-18/XI/1872) and lived in Pocahontas Co.
6. Huldah Jane Hartman (25/VI/1839-?) married 20/XI/1870 to Lorenzo Humphreys (?-?)
6. Sophiah Susan Hartman (13/II/1841-?) married 1865 to Benjamin Franklin Potts (?-?)
6. William Bradshaw Hartman (27/II/1843-27/II/1920) served in Co. F, 19th Va. Cavalry, CSA
6. Peter Newton Hartman (19/II/1845-4/XI/1923) married 4/VI/1877 to Bridget G. Griffin (26/VI/1854-11/II/1933) served in Co. F, 19th Va. Cav., CSA
7. Myrtle Grace Hartman (16/VI/1885-25/VI/1963) married (?) to Clarence Henry Shannon (1890-1973)
8. Lloyd Gale Shannon (9/IV/1919-27/II/1970) married (?) to Margie Rose Miller (13/X/1922-12/XI/1978)
9. Patricia Ann Shannon (28/II/1939-?) married (?) to Thomas Francis Hruska (1937-)
6. John Blain (Blair?) Hartman (17/VI/1847-?)
6. Henry Siedr (Siedr?) Hartman (10/VI/1849-25/XI/1872) he and his father both died of typhoid fever in 1872
6. Arista Mathews Hartman (6/VI/1853-?) married 3/XII/1874 to Sarah Mildred Slaven (?-?)
6. Mary Ella Hartman (25/VI/1855-?) married 27/X/1877 to Elgin E. Dinkell (?-?)
6. Isaac Vernon Hartman Jr. (14/II/1859-26/VI/1860)—died in infancy—
5. Matilda M. Bradshaw (?-?)
5. 6 sisters and 1 brother not otherwise named in the will of William Hickman in 1843

Hickmans of Back Creek

The photo was taken of us kids standing in a rock wall and rock fireplace built by my father (but that is another story) in the yard of my grandfather's farm on Back Creek. I always knew the place as Sun Rise, but after I began writing this history I realized Sun Rise was not the name of the farm, but the name of a locality and its post office.

The postmaster of the Sun Rise post office from 1902 to 1906 was my grandmother, Olive Gertrude Lockridge Hickman (1870-1963), and it did business through the dining room window of her home. Before that her sister, Minnie Herman Lockridge Gwin, was the Sun Rise postmaster from 1890 to 1902 and the post office must have been in her home down the creek a bit. From 1880 to 1888 the postmaster was Laura Eugenia Hickman (1856-1999), a sickly woman who never married and who died of Bright's disease. She was succeeded by her step-mother, Rebecca Ann Lowry Hickman (1835-1896), the third wife of my great-grandfather, Roger Hickman (1813-1889), and during their tenure the Sun Rise post office was at the Hickman ancestral home place a mile down the creek from what I had known as "Sun Rise" as a child.

Howard William "Bud" Willi (1934-1989) and Lorelei Loraine Will (1933-1994) in the photo were the children of Minnie Lee Hepler (1908-1987). Lorelei married Andrew Allen Peterson (?-?) and he works for Boeing in Pennsylvania. Last month I had a phone call from David R. Poling who happens to work with Andy Peterson. They had been talking about my family history and it turned out that Dave Poling is a descendant of Gottlieb Hartman who came to Pennsylvania in the 1700's. Gottlieb's son William Hartman was one of the "Pennsylvania Dutch" settlers in the mountains of Virginia, and he married Sophia Cleek, from another German family that is also related to my (English) Hickmans and (Scottish-Irish) Lockridges. William Hartman and Sophia had a son, Isaac Vernon Hartman, who married Nancy Bradshaw (1819-1864). They are buried in a Hartman family cemetery near Green Bank, Pocahontas County, W.Va.

Nancy Bradshaw was a favorite niece of the second Roger Hickman (1813-1889) and his brother William F. Hickman (1810-1864) who mentioned her in many of his letters. All I had known about Nancy's place in the family tree had come from the will of her grandfather and some letters from her uncles and aunt, as follows:

2. Roger Hickman (?/VI/1740-1827) married (?) Margaret Davis (?) moved to Back Creek
3. William Hickman (5/VI/1770-25/X/1843) married 1799 to Mary Elliott (1/VI/1771-18/X/1842)
4. Jane Elliott Hickman (27/II/1802-ca.1841) married 2/VI/1818 to William Bradshaw (?-?) who had been a soldier in the War of 1812.
5. Nancy Bradshaw (1819-?) married 13/X/1838 to Isaac Hartman (?-?)
6. child
5. Matilda M. Bradshaw (?-?)
5. 6 sisters and 1 brother not otherwise named in the will of William Hickman in 1843

David Poling added the following information about Nancy Bradshaw and her descendants on the family tree:

4. Jane Elliott Hickman (27/II/1802-ca.1841) married 2/VI/1818 to William Bradshaw (?-1850) who had been a soldier in War of 1812
5. Nancy Makemie Bradshaw (30/III/1819-22/VI/1864) married 13/X/1838 to Isaac Vernon Hartman (17/XI/1803-18/XI/1872) and lived in Pocahontas Co.
6. Huldah Jane Hartman (25/VI/1839-?) married 20/X/1870 to Lorenzo Humphreys (?-?)
6. Sophiah Susan Hartman (13/II/1841-?) married 1865 to Benjamin Franklin Potts (?-?)
6. William Bradshaw Hartman (27/II/1843-27/II/1920) served in Co. F, 19th Va. Cavalry, CSA
6. Peter Newton Hartman (19/II/1845-4/XI/1923) married 4/VI/1877 to Bridget G. Griffin (26/VI/1854-11/II/1933) served in Co. F, 19th Va. Cav., CSA
7. Myrtle Grace Hartman (16/VI/1885-25/VI/1963) married (?) to Clarence Henry Shannon (1890-1973)
8. Lloyd Gale Shannon (9/IV/1919-27/II/1970) married (?) to Margie Rose Miller (13/XI/1922-12/XI/1973)
9. Patricia Ann Shannon (28/II/1939-) married (?) to Thomas Francis Hruska (1937-)
6. John Blain (Blair?) Hartman (17/VI/1847-?)
6. Henry Steier (Stelir?) Hartman (10/VI/1849-25/XI/1872) he and his father both died of typhoid fever in 1872
6. Arista Mathews Hartman (6/VI/1853-?) married 3/XII/1874 to Sarah Mildred Slaven (?-?)
6. Mary Ella Hartman (25/VI/1855-?) married 27/X/1877 to Elgin E. Driskell (?-?)
6. Isaac Vernon Hartman Jr. (14/II/1859-26/VI/1860)—died in infancy—
5. Matilda M. Bradshaw (?-?)
5. 6 sisters and 1 brother not otherwise named in the will of William Hickman in 1843

Poling. She is the descendant of Nancy Bradshaw underlined on the previous list. Patricia enclosed family group sheets and long lists of the descendants of the Bradshaws and Hickmans as turned up by her research in West Virginia. By that roundabout way, I was able to add to the very little I had known previously of the descendants of Jane Elliott Hickman. The following is a much shortened set of those new data:

4. Isaac Elliott Hickman (27/II/1802-ca.1841) married 27/II/1818 to William Bradshaw (?-1850) who had been a soldier in War of 1812
5. Nancy Makemie Bradshaw (30/II/1819-22/VI/1864) married 13/X/1838 to Isaac Vernon Hartman (13/X/1808-18/X/1872) and lived in Pockhontas Co. (20/II/1839-22/VI/1872) married 20/X/1870 to Lorenzo Humphreys (?-?)
6. Judith Jane Hartman (25/VI/1839-?) married 20/X/1870 to Lorenzo Humphreys (?-?)
6. William Bradshaw Hartman (13/II/1841-21/II/1920) served in Co. F, 19th Va. Cavalry, CSA
6. Peter Newton Hartman (19/II/1845-41/XI/1923) married 41/VI/1877 to Bridget G. Griffin (26/VI/1854-11/II/1933) served in Co. F, 19th Va. Cav., CSA
7. Myrtle Grace Hartman (16/VI/1885-25/VI/1963) married (?) to Clarence Henry Shannon (12/VI/1890-29/XII/1973)
8. Lloyd Gale Shannon (9/VI/1919-27/II/1970) married (?) to Margie Rose Miller (13/X/1922-12/XI/1978)
9. Patricia Ann Shannon (28/II/1939-) married (?) to Thomas Francis Hruska (1937-)
6. John Blain (Blair) Hartman (17/VI/1847-?)
6. Henry Seider (Seitz) Hartman (10/VI/1849-25/XI/1872) he and his father both died of typhoid fever in 1872
6. Arista Mathews Hartman (6/VI/1853-?) married 3/XII/1874 to Sarah Mildred Staven (?-?)
6. Mary Ella Hartman (25/VI/1855-?) married 27/II/1877 to Elgin E. Driskill (?-?)
6. Isaac Vernon Hartman Jr. (14/II/1859-20/VI/1860)—died in infancy—
5. Marietta Margaret Bradshaw (?-?) married (?) to Nicholas Linger (?)
5. Mary Jane Bradshaw (?-?) married 25/X/1839 to Alexander Moore (?-?)
5. Huldah Hickman Bradshaw (10/VI/1823-15/II/1908) married 1851 to John A. McLaughlin (1826-1906)
5. Martha Ann (Alice?) Bradshaw (?-?) married 1845 to Beverly H. Vaughn (?-?)
5. Emily Ester (Elliot) Bradshaw (30/II/1828-24/VI/1883) married 1846 to Washington Nottingham (1818-1890)
5. Rachel Hannah Bradshaw (?-?) —died at 6 yrs of age—
5. William James Bradshaw (1840-?) married (?) to Mary Ellen Watson (?-?)

It turns out that David Poling is also related to the Peter Hall who's said "140 acres being part of a tract of 260 acres, lying on Back Creek a branch of Jackson's River" to Roger Hickman in 1796. It was on that tract that Roger's grandchildren were born. So, David Poling and Patricia Hruska added greatly to our collective knowledge of the Hickmans of Back Creek and I appreciate their contributions.

In July I heard from W. Clay Hamilton, Jr. in Maryland, a descendant of the Hamiltons that lived on Back Creek in the 1700's and 1800's. There were two lines of Hamiltons and he was able to help me sort them out and add data to family trees that I had started for them because they are mentioned in Hickman letters, wills, and deeds, and because they married Hickmans on Back Creek as follows:

- James Vance Hamilton (?-?) married Catherine Hickman (?-?) daughter of James M. Hickman (?-1851) and niece of William Hickman (1770-1843)
- Elizabeth L. "Betsey" Hamilton (?-1852) married James Elliott Hickman (1804-c.1885)
- son of William Hickman (1770-1843)
- Joseph Irvine Hamilton (1842-?) married Virginia Alice Hickman (1848-1932)
- daughter of Roger Hickman (1813-1889)

Virginia Alice Hickman was to have with the neighbor boy, Joseph Hamilton, and when he went to California to make his fortune after the Civil War, she wanted to wait for his return. It was twenty-six years before he returned to Back Creek, Virginia and Joe were married April 1st, 1890, in the house of her sister, Emma Susan Hickman Bulger. She would be this time be fifteen, a nursing lover near Sam Pargo. She was then 42 years old

Poling. She is the descendant of Nancy Bradshaw underlined on the previous list. Patricia enclosed family group sheets and long lists of the descendants of the Bradshaws and Hickmans as turned up by her research in West Virginia. By that rounded-up way, I was able to add to the very little I had known previously of the descendants of Jane Elliott Hickman. The following is a much shortened set of those new data:

4. Jane Elliott Hickman (27/II/1802-1841) married 27/VI/1818 to William Bradshaw (?-1850) who had been a soldier in War of 1812
5. Nancy Makeitie Bradshaw (30/III/1819-22/VI/1864) married 13/X/1838 to Isaac Vernon Hartman (13/XI/1808-18/XI/1872) and lived in Pocahontas Co. (25/VI/1839-?) married 20/XI/1870 to Lorenzo Humphreys (?-?)
6. Judith Jane Hartman (13/II/1841-7/1875) married 1865 to Benjamin Franklin Fort (?-?)
6. William Bradshaw Hartman (12/II/1843-27/II/1920) served in Co. F, 19th Va. Cavalry, CSA
6. Peter Newton Hartman (19/II/1845-4/XI/1923) married 41/VI/1877 to Bridget G. Griffin (26/VI/1854-11/II/1933) served in Co. F, 19th Va. Cav., CSA
7. Myrtle Grace Hartman (16/VI/1885-25/VI/1963) married (?) to Clarence Henry Shannon (12/VI/1890-29/XII/1973)
8. Lloyd Gale Shannon (9/VI/1919-27/II/1970) married (?) to Margie Rose Miller (13/XI/1922-12/XI/1978)
9. Patricia Ann Shannon (28/II/1939-?) married (?) to Thomas Francis Hruska (1937-)
6. John Blain (Blair) Hartman (17/VI/1847-?)
6. Henry Seider (Seitz) Hartman (10/VI/1849-25/XI/1872) he and his father both died of typhoid fever in 1872
6. Arisa Mathews Hartman (6/VI/1853-?) married 3/XII/1874 to Sarah Mildred Staven (?-?)
6. Mary Ella Hartman (25/VI/1855-?) married 27/IX/1877 to Elgin E. Diskell (?-?)
6. Isaac Vernon Hartman Jr. (14/II/1859-20/VI/1860)—died in infancy—
5. Judith Margaret Bradshaw (?-?) married (?) to Nicholas Linger (?-?)
5. Judith Jane Bradshaw (?) married 25/X/1839 to Alexander Moore (?-?)
5. Bulahy Hickman Bradshaw (10/VI/1823-15/II/1908) married 1851 to John A. McLaughlin (1826-1906)
5. Martha Ann (Alice?) Bradshaw (?) married 1855 to Beverly H. Waugh (?-?)
5. Emily Ester (Ellie?) Bradshaw (30/II/1828-24/VI/1883) married 1846 to Washington Nottingham (1818-1890)
5. Rebecca Frances Bradshaw (1840-?) married (?) to Mary Ellen Watson (?-?)
—died at 6 yrs of age—
—died in youth—
5. William James Bradshaw (1840-?) married (?) to Mary Ellen Watson (?-?)

It turns out that David Poling is also related to the Peter Hull who's said "140 acres being part of a tract of 250 acres, lying on Back Creek a branch of Jackson's River" to Roger Hickman in 1796. It was on that tract that Roger's grandchildren were born. So, David Poling was able to help me sort them out and add data to family trees that I had started for them that lived on Back Creek in the 1700's and 1800's. There were two lines of Hammonds and the Hickmans on Back Creek as follows:

James Vance Hammon (?-?) married Catherine Hickman (?-?) daughter of James M. Hickman (?-1851) and niece of William Hickman (1770-1843) Elizabeth L. "Betsey" Hammon (?-1852) married James Thout Hickman (1804-1885) son of William Hickman (1770-1843) Joseph Irvine Hammon (1842-?) married Virginia Alice Hickman (1848-1932) daughter of Dinger Hickman (1813-1889)

Virginia Alice Hickman was to have with the magnificent Mary Joseph Hammon, and when we was to California to make his fortune after the Civil War, she would to wait for his return. It was twenty six years before we returned to Back Creek, Virginia and we were married April 1st, 1900, in the latter of her sister, Emma Emma Hickman Bridger. She would to wait for him, a meeting, however near San Diego. She was then 42 years old and the couple never had children, I have two letters written by Joe Hamilton and Virginia Hickman from California from 1891 to 1916 to my grandfather on Black Creek

Hickmans of Black Creek

Joseph E. Hamilton (1842-?) & Virginia Alice Hickman (1848-1933)

Next came a package from the Rev. Joe McCoy of Belspring, Va., who is now the pastor of the church served by the Rev. William P. Hickman when he was killed in the Civil War. He sent me twenty years of records of his church, from the time of its founding in 1844 as the White Glade church, to 1851 when the name was changed to Bell Spring church, and then to 23 July 1864 when the Session minutes read:

"... the Rev. Mr. Blanton being present was invited to moderate the Session. members present A. G. Mathews Isaac Hudson A. Chumbley and J. M. Hoge (Elders) when Mrs Margaret M. Hickman and Miss Eliza J. Hickman were received on certificate from Blacksburg Church.

When the following paper was adopted in regard to the death of the Rev Wm P Hickman who fell (a martyr to his country and the cause of religion) mortally wounded on the 9th of May 1864 and died on the 11th.

"The Session of Bell Spring church in entering upon record an expression of their feelings & views upon the occasion of the death of their late pastor Rev Wm. P. Hickman would in the first place render thanks to God on behalf of the church & congregation that they were permitted for more than twenty years to sit under his ministry & to have him among them as a neighbor for the greater part of that time. We feel that not only the church has lost an able minister of the new Testament a workman that needeth not to be ashamed and an uncommonly gifted expounder of the word of God but the Church at large which was just coming to appreciate his qualities as a minister & a man has sustained a loss not to be easily repaired. We would humbly submit to the will of our heavenly Father in this rare dispensation of his Providence and pray that we may be enabled to profit by it and to be more stirred up to earnest and the couple never had children. I have five letters written by Joe Hamilton and Jennie Hickman from California from 1891 to 1916 to my grandfather on Back Creek.

Hickmans of Back Creek

Joseph E. Hamilton (1842-?) & Virginia Alice Hickman (1848-1933)

Next came a package from the Rev. Joe McCoy of Belspring, Va., who is now the pastor of the church served by the Rev. William P. Hickman when he was killed in the Civil War. He sent me twenty years of records of his church, from the time of its founding in 1844 as the White Glade church, to 1851 when the name was changed to Bell Spring church, and then to 23 July 1864 when the Session minutes read:

"... the Rev. Mr. Blanton being present was invited to moderate the Session. members present A. G. Mathews Isaac Hudson A. Chumbley and J. M. Hoge (Elders) when Mrs Margaret M. Hickman and Miss Eliza J. Hickman were received on certificate from Blacksburg Church.

When the following paper was adopted in regard to the death of the Rev Wm P Hickman who fell (a martyr to his country and the cause of religion) mortally wounded on the 9th of May 1864 and died on the 11th.

"The Session of Bell Spring church in entering upon record an expression of their feelings & views upon the occasion of the death of their late pastor Rev Wm. P. Hickman would in the first place render thanks to God on behalf of the church & congregation that they were permitted for more than twenty years to sit under his ministry & to have him among them as a neighbor for the greater part of that time. We feel that not only the church has lost an able minister of the new Testament a workman that needeth not to be ashamed and an uncommonly gifted expounder of the word of God but the Church at large which was just coming to appreciate his qualities as a minister & a man has sustained a loss not to be easily repaired. We would humbly submit in the will of our heavenly Father in this rare dispensation of his Providence and pray that we may be enabled to profit by it and to be more stirred up to earnest faithful labours & diligence in our master's working that we may will to mind the many rich lessons of wisdom recieved from our late beloved pastor ... and put them in practice & follow him as he followed Christ And while we are prone to think that our Pastor was taken away too soon while just in the prime of his usefulness & zeal for his Master's glory we would call in such thoughts & be still & know that he that did is God and we would rejoice in the in the full assurance that our loss is our departed friends eternal gain & that not too soon comes the Masters crown not too soon the joy of Heaven where the wicked cease from troubling & the weary are at rest.'

Hickmans of Back Creek

Session adjourned. Closed with prayer.

J. M. Hoge clk"

I have 78 letters written by William P. Hickman to his brother Roger from 1832 to 1859 and they form a large part of my Hickman history manuscp. The materials from Joe McCoy add some details and color to that history. He has tried to find descendants of William P. Hickman still living in the area, but with no success so far. That seems strange, because there are many people in Pulaski and Wythe counties with the same surnames as William's grandchildren — maybe they are unaware of their "ancient ancestors."

Interestingly, many of the people mentioned in the material sent by Joe McCoy are Hoges. And some are ancestors of Marian Hoge MacKenzie so I sent her a copy of my transcription of the handwritten records.

John and Shirley Frey Morris checked in again with more information about our Scots-Irish Lockridge and Campbell connections. As many of you know, my great-grandfather, Roger Hickman (1813-1889), had three wives and eighteen children. His first wife was Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843), a daughter of Col. Lanty Lockridge of Pocahontas County. They had three children, and one of their many great-grandchildren is Edwin B. Brown.

Ed Brown's daughter, Martha Anne, was married this summer to John Edwin Russell. They had a big wedding at Ash Lawn, the former home of President James Monroe, in Albemarle County. Among the treasure of old Hickman papers are two land patents to William Hickman dated 14 August 1801 and signed by James Monroe when he was Governor of Virginia. They are now in the possession of Kent Rose in Maryland.

Roger Hickman (1813-1889)
son of William Hickman

Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843)
first wife of Roger Hickman

Hickmans of Back Creek

faithful labours & diligence in our master's working that we may will to mind the many rich lessons of wisdom received from our late beloved pastor ... and put them in practice & follow him as he followed Christ. And while we are prone to think that our Pastor was taken away too soon while just in the prime of his usefulness & zeal for his Master's glory we would call in such thoughts & be still & know that he that did is God and we would rejoice in the full assurance that our loss is our departed friends eternal gain & that not too soon comes the Masters crown not too soon the joy of Heaven where the wicked cease from troubling & the weary are at rest."

Session adjourned. Closed with prayer.

J. M. Hoge clk"

I have 78 letters written by William P. Hickman to his brother Roger from 1832 to 1859 and they form a large part of my Hickman history manuscript. The materials from Joe McCoy add some details and color to that history. He has tried to find descendants of William P. Hickman still living in the area, but with no success so far. That seems strange, because there are many people in Pulaski and Wythe counties with the same surnames as William's grandchildren — maybe they are unaware of their "ancient ancestors."

Interestingly, many of the people mentioned in the material sent by Joe McCoy are Hoges. And some are ancestors of Marian Hoge MacKenzie so I sent her a copy of my transcription of the handwritten records.

John and Shirley Frey Morris checked in again with more information about our Scots-Irish Lockridge and Campbell connections. As many of you know, my great-grandfather, Roger Hickman (1813-1889), had three wives and eighteen children. His first wife was Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843), a daughter of Col. Lanty Lockridge of Pocahontas County. They had three children, and one of their many great-grandchildren is Edwin B. Brown.

Ed Brown's daughter, Martha Anne, was married this summer to John Edwin Russell. They had a big wedding at Ash Lawn, the former home of President James Monroe, in Albemarle County. Among the treasure of old Hickman papers are two land patents to William Hickman dated 14 August 1801 and signed by James Monroe when he was Governor of Virginia. They are now in the possession of Kent Rose in Maryland.

Roger Hickman (1813-1889)
son of William Hickman

Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843)
first wife of Roger Hickman

2. Roger Hickman (7/X/1740-1827) married 174 Margaret Davis (?) moved to Black Creek
3. William Hickman (8/V/1770-25/X/1815) married 1799 to Mary Elton (1715/17-1848-89)
4. Roger Hickman (20/VII/1813-14/II/1889) married 1838 to Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-41)
5. Lanty William Hickman (22/X/1838-19/X/1906) married 1857 to Mary Angeline Wiley (1841-89)
 - a. Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Hickman (31/VIII/1861-1/X/1948) married (1) to James P. Wiley (1841-89) he served in U.S. P. 11th Cav Reg. (1861-62)
 - a. Eva Hickman (1867-?) married (1) to F. L. Kern (1871-?)
 - a. Frances "Fannie" Hickman (1871-?) married (2) to ? Blackman (?) married 25/IX/1902 to Lamar Bready
 - a. C. W. "Joe" Hickman (1871-?) married (2) to Myrtle ?
 - a. H. M. "Mack" Hickman (1871-?) married (2) to Pearl ?
 - a. John R. Hickman (1871-?) married (2) to Viola ?
 - a. Thomas Hickman (1871-?) —died in infancy—
 - a. Ida Hickman (7-ca.1895) married (2) to ? Cummings (2-?)
 - a. Mattie Lockridge "Lockie" Hickman (13/VII/1879-19/V/1967) married 1898 to Frank Edwin Mower (20/VIII/1877-15/X/1948)
 7. Frank Edwin Mower (31/X/1899-11/XII/1956) married (2) to Dorothy Higgins (1871-?)
 7. Reginald Wiley Mower (3/II/1903-7/VIII/1958) married (2) to Roberta Boyd (1871-?)
 7. Marjorie Lockridge Mower (23/IV/1908-29/IX/1989) married 1936 to Leland Caffrey Brown (22/XII/1906-11/V/1960)
 8. Edwin Beecher Brown (14/II/1937-) married 1962 to Yaroslava Sofia Sacho (1937-)
 9. Edwin Roman Brown (17/II/1963-)
 9. Katherine Jaroslava Brown (1/XII/1964-)
 9. Martha Anne Brown (21/VI/1968-) married 7/X/1995 to John Edwin Russell (2-?)
 7. Donald Roger Mower (17/III/1910-2/III/1964) married 24/X/1936 to Elizabeth Low Liles
 5. Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Hickman (17/II/1840-12/IV/1909) married 1884 to Stuart S. Ryder
 5. Harriet Ellen Hickman (27/VII/1842-19/V/1843)—died in infancy—

Ed Brown found that the grave stone for his great-grandmother, Mary Angeline Wiley (1841-1891), has an incorrect date for her death — probably because it was not placed until 1906 following the death of her husband Lanty William Hickman.

Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906)
First of Roger Hickman's eighteen children

Mary Angeline Wiley (1841-1891)
Wife of Lanty William Hickman

2. Roger Hickman (7/V/1740-1827) married (?) Margaret Davis (?) moved to Black Creek
3. William Hickman (8/V/1770-25/X/1843) married 1799 to Mary Hiett (1/IV/1740-1828) 1828-29
4. Roger Hickman (20/VII/1813-14/II/1889) married 1836 to Martha Ann Lockridge (1814-81)
5. Lanty William Hickman (27/X/1838-19/X/1906) married 1859 to Mary Angeline Wiley (2/X/1841-1906)
 - a. Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Hickman (31/VIII/1861-1/X/1948) married (?) to James J. Woods 30/IV/1891; he served in U.S. P. 11th Reg. Inf.
 - b. Eva Hickman (1867-?) married (?) to E.C. Keim (?)
 - c. Frances "Fannie" Hickman (18?-?) married (?) to ? Blackham (?) married 25/IX/1901 to Lamar Beaudy
 - d. C.W. "Joe" Hickman (18?-?) married (?) to Myrtle ?
 - e. H. M. "Mack" Hickman (18?-?) married (?) to Pearl?
 - f. John R. Hickman (18?-?) married (?) to Viola ??
 - g. Thomas Hickman (?-?) —died in infancy—
 - h. Ida Hickman (?-ca.1895) married (?) to ? Cummings (?-?)
 - i. Mattie Lockridge "Lockie" Hickman (13/VII/1879-19/IV/1967) married 1898 to Frank Edwin Mower (20/VIII/1877-15/X/1916)
 - j. Frank Edwin Mower (31/X/1899-11/XII/1956) married (?) to Dorothy Higgins (?-?)
 - k. Reginald Wiley Mower (3/III/1903-7/VIII/1958) married (?) to Roberta Boyd (?-?)
 - l. Marjorie Lockridge Mower (23/IV/1908-29/IX/1989) married 1936 to Leland Coffey Brown (22/XII/1906-11/VI/1986)
 - m. Edwin Beecher Brown (14/II/1937-) married 1962 to Yaroslava Sofia Sacho (1937-)
 - n. Edwin Roman Brown (17/II/1963-)
 - o. Katherine Jaroslava Brown (1/XII/1964-)
 - p. Martha Anne Brown (21/VI/1968-) married 7/X/1995 to John Edwin Russell (?-?)
 - q. Donald Roger Mower (17/III/1910-?/III/1964) married 24/X/1936 to Elizabeth Low Liles
5. Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Hickman (17/II/1840-12/IV/1909) married 1884 to Stuart S. Ryder
5. Harriet Ellen Hickman (27/VII/1842-19/V/1843)—died in infancy—

Ed Brown found that the grave stone for his great-grandmother, Mary Angeline Wiley (1841-1891), has an incorrect date for her death — probably because it was not placed until 1906 following the death of her husband Lanty William Hickman.

Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906)
First of Roger Hickman's eighteen children

Mary Angeline Wiley (1841-1891)
Wife of Lanty William Hickman

Hickmans of Back Creek

Roger Hickman's second wife was Margaret Brown Campbell from Highland County, and she was my great-grandmother. A partial list of their descendants follows.

4. Roger Hickman (1813-1889) first married 1838 to Martha Ann Lockridge
 5. Martha Ellen Hickman second married 1846 to Margaret Brown Campbell 14/X/1824-16/V/1862
 5. Virginia Alice Hickman (4/III/1847-31/I/1861) —died young—
 5. Thomas Brown Hickman (1/XI/1848-1933) married 1890 to Joseph Ervine Hamilton (1842-?)
 5. James Elliot Hickman (30/I/1851-1863) —died when in teens—
 5. Emma Susan Sabina Hickman (15/XI/1852-10/III/1919) married (?) to James W. Bulger (21/XI/1852-1935)
 5. Matilda Margaret Hickman (24/VII/1854-29/VII/1925) married 1873 to Charles Isaac Hepler (1851-1925)
 5. Laura Eugenia Hickman (12/I/1856-27/IV/1888) —died of Bright's disease—
 5. Peter Lightner Hickman (23/III/1858-20/IV/1937) married 1895 Ollie G. Lockridge (1870-1965)
 6. Roger Lockridge Hickman (4/VII/1896-28/III/1979) married 1930 to Nellie C. Shaw (1907-1978)
 6. Forrest Elwood "Si" Hickman (20/XI/1898-25/X/1954) unmarried
 6. Ollie Virginia Hickman (29/V/1902-) married 1927 to Warren M. Campbell (1/I/1893-1974)
 6. Clare Brown Hickman (12/I/1905-) married 1935 to Juanita Elizabeth Rohr (8/VII/1909-)
 7. Carolyn Brown Hickman (13/X/1837-) married 1961 to Gilbert Paris Bowman (26/VII/1936-)
 7. Kathleen James "Jimmie" Hickman (27/X/1939-) married 1966 to Charles Earle Edwards (?)
 6. Ruth Gertrude Hickman (16/I/1908-) married 1933 to Herman William Gabriel Jr. (1910-1972)
 7. Herman William "Bill" Gabriel III (21/XII/1933-) unmarried
 7. Henmar Ruskin Gabriel (31/I/1936-) married 10/VI/1961 to Jo Ann Overby (21/VII/1940-)
 6. Julian Kenneth Hickman (6/VII/1911-20/X/1964) married 1937 to Neva Lee Maun (8/III/1910-)
 7. Neva Martin Hickman (3/VIII/1939-) married 1960 to Thomas Mudd (10/VII/1940)
 7. Julian K. Hickman II (1945-) married 1964 to Ruth Bennett (?)
 6. Harry Herman Hickman (5/XII/1914-) married 1939 to Ozella Howard Carpenter (2/III/1914-)
 5. Andrew Johnson Hickman (5/XI/1861-31/XI/1862) —died in infancy—

The two smaller girls in the photo on page one are the daughters of my uncle, Clare Brown Hickman (1905-), who has many wonderful tales of people in Bath and Highland counties and has been a great help in the compilation of this family history. He lives in Staunton now, and a few weeks ago George Campbell Bird (1935-), from Highland County, sent me a clipping from the Staunton paper containing an article about people who get their exercise walking at the mall. It was illustrated with a photo of Clare B. Hickman who is now 90 years old.

Another cousin, Becky Gabriel McGann—from my father's family this time—sent an article from the Waynesboro paper containing an interview with, and photo of, Julian K. "Pete" Hickman II, whose father was once the Commonwealth's Attorney for Bath County and later a federal judge. Pete supervises the Virginia spinal chord injury program and was interviewed after the Christopher Reeve injury.

And, to top it off, the summer 1995 issue of ASMP Showcase (a quarterly from the American Society of Media Photographers) carried a profile of me and two pages of my photos.

There was another "Hickman" wedding this summer when Norma Jean Hepler Vaughan (1938-) married Robert Taylor, Sr. at the historic old Windy Cove Presbyterian Church near Millboro Springs in Bath County. She is the great-granddaughter of Matilda Margaret Hickman (1854-1835) and Charles Isaac Hepler (1851-1925). Norma Jean's grandfather was Forrest Frank Hepler (1884-1939) who had the first Ford dealership in Bath County, and who employed three or four of my uncles at various times in his auto businesses at Millboro and Mitchelltown.

The Windy Cove church was established in 1749 and was the first Presbyterian church in what would become Bath county in 1791. Tradition says that the early worshippers came armed and set a sentinel to warn of Indian attack.

Norma Jean's sister, Carol, told me that their uncle, James H. Hepler (1917-1995), had died this fall.

Hickmans of Bark Creek

Roger Hickman's second wife was Margaret Brown Campbell from Highland County, and she was my great-grandmother. A partial list of their descendants follows:

4. Roger Hickman (1813-1889) first married 1838 to Martha Ann Lockridge second married 1846 to Margaret Brown Campbell (4/X/1824-16/V/1862)
 5. Martha Ellen Hickman (4/III/1847-31/I/1861) —died young—
 5. Virginia Alice Hickman (13/V/1848-1935) married 1890 to Joseph Ernie Hamilton (1842-?)
 5. Thomas Brown Hickman (1/X/1849-21/I/1928) married 22/XIV/1881 Mary W. Payne (1846-1898)
 5. James Elliot Hickman (30/I/1851-1863) —died when in teens—
 5. Emma Susan Sabina Hickman (15/X/1852-10/III/1919) married (?) to James W. Bulger (21/X/1852-1935)
 5. Matilda Margaret Hickman (24/VII/1854-29/VII/1935) married 1873 to Charles Isaac Hepler (1851-1925)
 5. Laura Eugenia Hickman (12/I/1856-27/VI/1888) —died of Bright's disease—
 5. Peter Lightner Hickman (23/II/1858-20/IV/1937) married 1895 Ollie G. Lockridge (1870-1965)
 6. Roger Lockridge Hickman (4/VII/1896-28/III/1979) married 1930 to Nellie C. Shaw (1907-1978)
 6. Forrest Elwood "Si" Hickman (20/XI/1898-25/X/1954) unmarried
 6. Ollie Virginia Hickman (29/V/1902-) married 1927 to Warren M. Campbell (1/I/1893-1974)
 6. Clare Brown Hickman (12/I/1905-) married 1935 to Juanita Elizabeth Rohr (8/VII/1909-)
 7. Carolyn Brown Hickman (13/X/1837-) married 1961 to Gilbert Paris Bowman (26/VII/1936-)
 7. Kathleen James "Himmie" Hickman (27/X/1939-) married 1966 to Charles Earle Edwards (?)
 6. Ruth Gertrude Hickman (16/I/1908-) married 1933 to Herman William Gabriel Jr. (1910-1972)
 7. Herman William "Bill" Gabriel III (21/XII/1933-) unmarried
 7. Hennie Ruskin Gabriel (31/I/1936-) married 10/VI/1961 to Jo Ann Overby (21/VII/1940-)
 6. Julian Kenneth Hickman (6/VII/1911-20/X/1964) married 1937 to Neva Lee Martin (8/I/1910-)
 7. Neva Martin Hickman (3/VII/1939-) married 1960 to Thomas Mudd (10/VII/1940)
 7. Julian K. Hickman II (1945-) married 1964 to Ruth Bennett (?)
 6. Harry Herman Hickman (5/XII/1914-) married 1939 to Ozella Howard Carpenter (2/III/1914-)
 5. Andrew Johnson Hickman (5/XI/1861-31/XI/1862) —died in infancy—

The two smaller girls in the photo on page one are the daughters of my uncle, Clare Brown Hickman (1905-), who has many wonderful tales of people in Bath and Highland counties and has been a great help in the compilation of this family history. He lives in Staunton now, and a few weeks ago George Campbell Bird (1935-), from Highland County, sent me a clipping from the Staunton paper containing an article about people who get their exercise walking at the mall. It was illustrated with a photo of Clare B. Hickman who is now 90 years old.

Another cousin, Becky Gabriel McGann—from my father's family this time—sent an article from the Waynesboro paper containing an interview with, and photo of, Julian K. "Pete" Hickman II, whose father was once the Commonwealth's Attorney for Bath County and later a federal judge. Pete supervises the Virginia spinal chord injury program and was interviewed after the Christopher Reeve injury.

And, to top it off, the summer 1995 issue of ASMP Showcase (a quarterly from the American Society of Media Photographers) carried a profile of me and two pages of my photos.

There was another "Hickman" wedding this summer when Norma Jean Hepler Vaughan (1938-) married Robert Taylor, Sr. at the historic old Windy Cove Presbyterian Church near Millboro Springs in Bath County. She is the great-granddaughter of Matilda Margaret Hickman (1854-1835) and Charles Isaac Hepler (1851-1925). Norma Jean's grandfather was Forrest Frank Hepler (1884-1939) who had the first Ford dealership in Bath County, and who employed three or four of my uncles at various times in his auto businesses at Millboro and Mitchellown.

The Windy Cove church was established in 1749 and was the first Presbyterian church in what would become Bath county in 1791. Tradition says that the early worshippers came armed and set a sentinel to warn of Indian attack.

Norma Jean's sister, Carol, told me that their uncle, James H. Hepler (1917-1995), had died this fall.

Peter Lightner Hickman & Ollie Gertrude Lockridge, 1895

The earliest typewritten letter in my collection of family papers is one written by Ollie G. Lockridge in Ohio to Peter L. Hickman at Sun Rise in 1895.

My grandfather was born on the ancestral farm on Back Creek in 1858 and among his playmates were Charles Lewis Robinson (1856-1977), John Anson Robinson (1858-1927), and Jesse Stuart Robinson (1861-1927), who were all born into slavery but remained on the Hickman farm after the late lamented war for nearly as long as my grandfather. When Peter L. Hickman went to Ohio to woo and wed Ollie in 1895, John Robinson ran the farm and sent him report of the crops and affairs of the valley. It was John's wife Martha who I mentioned in the July newsletter after I had found her gravestone in the old slave graveyard. Stuart was the last of the former slaves to live at Sun Rise on Back Creek, and he is the only one of whom I have a (very poor) photo. However, there are several photos of Susie Green, the daughter of slaves, who lived at the old home place until her death about 1928.

In trying to track down the descendants of two of Roger Hickman's brothers I have written to eleven of the county, regional, and state historical societies in West Virginia. Only three have even bothered to respond.

Elizabeth B. Wiseman, Greenbrier Historical Society, kindly sent me some information about Andrew J. Hickman (1811-1880), Arthur Hickman (1803-1884), and some the children of Andrew and of James Elliott Hickman (1804-1885). Unfortunately, the material started out by saying that the Hickmans were German, and that makes me suspicious of the accuracy of the rest of the stuff.

That is not the first time I have seen — usually in “county histories” — a claim that the Hickmans were German, and it illustrates a practice among authors of such stuff to merely copy one another rather than using primary sources or doing their own research. Another myth passed around is that the Hickmans of Back Creek originated in Delaware, but they were English and were in Virginia by 1623 when “R. Hickman, Cl. Sec. off.” signed the “Laws and Orders concluded on by the General Assembly, March the 5th, 1623-4.” From such speculations, I now take “county history” and “family history” books and pamphlets with a grain of salt. They can help put people in certain places, but the stories and “facts” must be checked against better data.

with the Emmitt Lightner family and taught at the Lightner School. It was about four miles north of the home of my grandparents and about another mile from that of Lula Georgia Hickman (1874-1943) and George Washington Rose (1864-1962), known as the "old Hickman home place," where the pavilion now stands in the recreation area below the Vepco dam.

In 1923 Lillie Brinkley married their son, Bedford Dewey Rose (1898-1960), and moved into a house that had been purchased from Emmitt Lightner by Bedford's uncle, Robert Sidney Hickman (1872-1954). Bedford and Lillie had eight children, some of whom were born after they left Back Creek in 1941 for greener pastures in Southwest Virginia. During WWII she was a government inspector at the Hercules Powder Company in Radford, and she later taught school in Giles County.

Two sons of Lillie Brinkley Rose, George Scott Rose and Lewis Kent Rose, have since "moved back" and purchased land on Back Creek downstream from where the Hickmans lived at Sun Rise.

Lillie's sister, Cornelia Brinkley, boarded with my grandparents and taught seven grades at the "Hickman School Number 2" where her teaching salary was $65 per month. From that she paid $19 a month to Ollie Lockridge Hickman (1870-1965) for room and board. That wood-frame school building stood across the road from the Puffenberger house and had been the home of my grandfather's oldest half-sister, Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Hickman Ryder (1840-1909) before becoming a school. The school closed after 1923 due to a lack of students and grandfather tore it down and used the lumber to build a granary behind his house on the other side of Joe Hollow.

In 1924 Cornelia married Walter Lawson Sively from a bit further down Back Creek. It is in the Sively Cemetery that my grandfather, great-grandfather, and other Hickmans are buried.

Now the old Sively farm is owned by a grandson of Lillie Brinkley and Bedford Rose.

Another of the "Hickman cousins" was quite sick in the hospital at Hot Springs recently. She is Louise "Sue" Hepler (1913-), one of three children of Forrest Franklin Hepler (1884-1939), and grand-daughter of Matilda Margaret Hickman (1854-1939), who was another sister of my grandfather. In 1933 Sue married George Brown Venable (1913-1987) and they had one son, George Franklin Venable (1934-1989). For many years their house on the road between Millboro and Warm Springs was marked by a fancy mailbox in the shape of Uncle Sam.

Sue had a broken hip, pneumonia, and a series of strokes and I have heard that she is now living at the nursing home on the hill near Hot Springs.

Murray C. Hepler (1910-1971) and Louise "Sue" Hepler (1913-)
about 1932

Sue Hepler's brother Murray married Lillian Corbett (1912-1977) and they had two daughters — Marian Carol Hepler (1936-) and Norma Jean Hepler (1938-). Lillian and Murray were divorced after WWII and she and the girls moved into the apartment building in Richmond. Lillian and my mother were best friends and her girls were as close to me and my brother "cousins" to me and my brother.

Forrest Franklin Hepler (1894-1979), father of Sam and Murray, owned the first Ford dealership in Bath County. In those days the Model T's were shipped to customers in the car and in freight cars. However, to save space and freight costs, the autos arrived in "knock-down" condition with the frames, axles, wheels, bodies, gas tanks, etc. in separate boxes hanging on the walls of the freight car. After paying his bill at the railroad freight office, Hepler could open the box car and have his employees remove the Ford parts for assembly into automobiles. Think about that the next time you hear someone complain about having to assemble a bike or other present at Christmas.

Those early Fords could be ordered without a windshield, bumpers, lights and other parts unnecessary on the terrible roads of the day. The chain of Western Auto stores so familiar in my youth was initiated to supply such after-market parts and accessories for the Model-T.

Forrest Franklin Hepler's garage, Millboro, Virginia
the first Ford automobile dealership in Bath County

My uncle Forrest Elwood "Si" Hickman (1898-1954) worked for his uncle, F. F. Hepler, in that garage and he lived in a room on the second floor. One Thanksgiving holiday—but I do not know the year—uncle Si went to Roanoke for the annual VPI-VMU football game and returned to Millboro to find the F. F. Hepler garage burned to the ground and all his belongings burned with it. Si then moved to Elkton where he eventually owned two service stations of his own.

F. F. Hepler also owned a garage at Mitchelltown where another of my uncles, Clare Brown Hickman (1905-), worked. Hepler had cars to rent, but in those days when one hired a car it came with a driver and that was the job of Clare B. Hickman. He drove all those rocky, rutted, muddy mountain roads in all sorts of weather before moving to Staunton to run his own gas station and eventually become a bailiff of the Augusta County Court.

In Romeo and Juliet, Shakespeare asks, "What's in a name? that which we call a rose,
By any other name would smell as sweet."

One of the mysteries I have encountered in this compilation of the descendants of my ancestors in Bath and Pocahontas counties is the origin and meaning of the name Lanty II were divorced after WWII and she and the girls moved into the apartment with her son, Richmond. Lillian and my mother were best friends and her girls were as close to my "cousins" to me and my brother.

Forrest Franklin Hepler (1884-1939), father of Sue and Murray, owned the first Ford dealership in Bath County. In those days the Model-T's were shipped to him on the railroad in freight cars. However, to save space and freight costs, the autos arrived in "knock-down" condition with the frames, axles, wheels, bodies, gas tanks, etc. in separate boxes hanging on the walls of the freight car. After paying his bill at the railroad freight office, Hepler could open the box car and have his employees remove the Ford parts for assembly into automobiles. Think about that the next time you hear someone complain about having to assemble a bike or other present at Christmas.

Those early Fords could be ordered without a windshield, bumpers, lights and other parts unnecessary on the terrible roads of the day. The chain of Western Auto stores so familiar in my youth was initiated to supply such after-market parts and accessories for the Model-T.

Forrest Franklin Hepler's garage, Millboro, Virginia
the first Ford automobile dealership in Bath County

My uncle Forrest Elwood "Si" Hickman (1898-1954) worked for his uncle, F. F. Hepler, in that garage and he lived in a room on the second floor. One Thanksgiving holiday—but I do not know the year—uncle Si went to Roanoke for the annual VPI-VMI football game and returned to Millboro to find the F. F. Hepler garage burned to the ground and all his belongings burned with it. Si then moved to Elkton where he eventually owned two service stations of his own.

F. F. Hepler also owned a garage at Mitchelltown where another of my uncles, Clare Brown Hickman (1905-), worked. Hepler had cars to rent, but in those days when our hired a car it came with a driver and that was the job of Clare B. Hickman. He drove all those rocky, rutted, muddy mountain roads in all sorts of weather before moving to Staunton to run his own gas station and eventually become a bailiff of the Augusta County Court.

In Romeo and Juliet, Shakespeare asks, "What's in a name? that which we call a rose,
By any other name would smell as sweet."

One of the mysteries I have encountered in this compilation of the descendants of my ancestors in Bath and Pocahontas counties is the origin and meaning of the name Lantry. It appears first with the naming of Lanty Lockridge in 1777, who named his son Lanty Lockridge in 1818. Then seven of the first Lanty's grandsons were named Lanty. Two were called Lanty Lockridge; another was named Lanty Rucker, a fourth was Lanty Lockridge, and the last was named Lanty William Hickman. So, the Lockridges used that name through four generations and then it disappeared.

Hickmans of Back Creek

Occurrence of the name Lanty—used for about 100 years, from 1777 to 1872—

1. Andrew Lockridge (1720-1791) married 1761 to Jane (Jean ?) Graham (1742-1796) in the Lockridge and Hickman families
2. Lanty Lockridge (1777-1858) married 1802 to Elizabeth Benson (1779-1861) Minnehaha Springs, W.Va.

3. Rucker Lockridge (1804-1885) married (?) to Joseph F. Seibert (1801-1881)—a soldier in the CSA, died a prisoner of war at Elmira, N.Y.—
4. Maria Seibert (?) married (?) to Andrew Herold (?)
5. Lanty Washington Herold (1849-1918) married 1881 to Lavia L. Lockridge (1859-1908)

3. Elizabeth Lockridge (?) married 1825 to Henry Simmons Herold (1800-1890)
4. Washington Herold (?) married (?) to Sarah Anne Harper (?)
3. Eleanor "Nelly" Lockridge (?) married 1825 to Jacob Gillespie Slaven (?)

4. Lanty Lockridge Slaven (?) married (?) to Isabella Borner (?)
3. Andrew Lockridge (1812-1854) married 1836 to Elizabeth Gilliam (?) 1854

3. Mathias Lockridge (?) married (?) to ? Crow (?)
4. Lanty Lockridge (?) married (?) to ? Crow (?)
3. Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-25/V/1843) married 1838 to Roger Hickman (1813-1889)

3. Lanty Lockridge, Jr. (1818-?) married 1854 to Caroline Elizabeth Clegg (?)
4. Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906) married 1859 to Mary Angeline Wiley (1841-1891)

The name hopped over to the Hickmans when Roger Hickman married Martha Ann Lockridge and, using the names of both his grandfathers, named their first child Lanty William Hickman in 1838. Two of that Lanty's Hickman cousins were also named Lanty. Lanty William Hickman (1872-1955) named for a Lockridge neighbor in West Virginia? Does anyone know anything about Lanty P. Hickman (?)?

1. Arthur Hickman (1712/13-1779) Montgomery Co., Md. son of William Hickman of Somerset Co., Md.
2. Roger Hickman (1730-1827) married (?) Margaret Davis (?) moved to Back Creek

3. James Elison Hickman (1804-1885) married 1831 to Elizabeth E. Hamilton (1812-ca.1857)
4. Lanty William Hickman (1834-1908) married 1857 to Mary Ann Marley (1838-1915)
5. George Hickman (1838-1891) married (?) to Dora Lane (?)

6. Lanty P. Hickman (?) married (?) to Martha Morrison (1841-1905)
- Clay Co., W.Va.
4. Roger Hickman (1813-1889) married 1838 to Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843) daughter of Col. Lanty Lockridge of Pocahontas Co.

3. Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906) married 1859 to Mary Angeline Wiley (1841-1891)
- served in Co. B, 11 Va. Cav. Reg., CSA

Lanty is not, from any information I have, an abbreviation of Lancelot, even though some of the "Century" histories¹ and "family histories" have made that assumption. I have seen no letters or original documents with Lanty, although there is one letter referring to Roger Hickman? Where has it gone? Help in solving this puzzle will be appreciated.

¹The second Roger's first son, Lanty William Hickman, was a cavalryman in Company B, 11th Virginia Cavalry, Regiment, Confederate States Army. Lanty's great-grandson, Edwin Dean of Virginia Cavalry, is recording the history of the 11th Va. Cav. The title me that it was part of the 11th Virginia Cavalry, turned from Artillery a Cavalry and that he has found so much material appears first with the naming of Lanty Lockridge in 1777, who named his son Lanty Lockridge in 1818. Then seven of the first Lanty's grandsons were named Lanty. Two were called Lanty Lockridge; another was named Lanty Rucker, a fourth was Lanty Seibert, a fifth grandson was Lanty Lockridge slaven, a sixth was called Washington Lanty Lockridge, and the last was named Lanty William Hickman. In 1849 a great-grandson was named Lanty and then it disappeared.

Hickmans of Back Creek

Occurrence of the name Lanty —used for about 100 years, from 1777 to 1872—

1. Andrew Lockridge (1730-1791) married 1761 to Jane (Jean ?) Graham (1742-1796)

2. Lanty Lockridge (1777-1858) married 1802 to Elizabeth Benson (1779-1861) Minnetaha Springs, W.Va.

3. Rucker Lockridge (1804-1885) married (?) to Joseph F. Seibert (1801-1881) —a soldier in the CSA, died a prisoner of war at Elmira, N.Y.—

4. Maria Seibert (?) married (?) to Andrew Herold (?)

5. Lanty Washington Herold (1849-1918) married 1881 to Laria L. Lockridge (1859-1908)

6. Elizabeth Lockridge (?) married 1825 to Henry Simmons Herold (1800-1890)

7. Eleanor "Nelly" Lockridge (?) married 1825 to Jacob Gillespie Slaven (?)

8. Lanty Lockridge slaven (?) married (?) to Isabella Bortner (?)

9. Andrew Lockridge (1812-1854) married 1836 to Elizabeth Gillian (?) 1854

10. Lanty Lockridge (?) married (?) to ? Crow (?)

11. Lantius Lockridge (?) married (?) to ? Crow (?)

12. Lanty Lockridge (1813-1889) married 1838 to Roger Hickman (1813-1889)

13. Lanty Lockridge, Jr. (1818-?) married 1854 to Caroline Elizabeth Clegg (?)

14. Lanty Lockridge (1816-25/V/1843) married 1838 to Roger Hickman (1813-1889)

15. Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906) married 1859 to Mary Angeline Wiley (1841-1891)

16. Lanty Lockridge (1816-1843) daughter of Col. Lanty Lockridge of Pocahontas Co.

17. Roger Hickman (1813-1889) married 1838 to Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843) daughter of

18. Lanty P. Hickman (1838-1891) married (?) to Martha Morrison (1841-1905)

19. Lanty P. Hickman (1838-1891) married (?) to Maria Lane (?)

20. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) first married (?) to Maria Lane (?)

21. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

22. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

23. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

24. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

25. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

26. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

27. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

28. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

29. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

30. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

31. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

32. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

33. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

34. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

35. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

36. Lanty Hickman (1872-1955) married 1857 to Mary Ann Harney (1838-1915)

about where Lanty's company was at various times during the war that there could be a chapter in the Hickman history on just that topic

Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906), Confederate States Army
son of Roger Hickman (1813-1889) and Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843)

Lanty had two cousins in the Confederate Army — William Bradshaw Hartman (1843-1920) and Peter Newton Hartman (1845-1923), grandchildren of his aunt, Jane Elliott Hickman and William Bradshaw. Both served in Co. F, 19th Virginia Cavalry, CSA, and William B. Hartman received a leg injury. A first-cousin, Archibald Hickman (1845-1912) son of James Elliott Hickman and Betsey Hamilton, may have served as a private in Co. D, 22nd Virginia Infantry, CSA, but the scanty info I have is not clear. Can any of you help fill in their histories?

George Cline Bond (1920-) kindly sent me copies of the service records of two sons of Huldah Shallum Hickman who were soldiers in the Union Army. The first to enlist was Woods B. Callison (1838-1925) who joined Company G, 50th Illinois Infantry Regiment on 24 September 1861 at Quincy, Illinois. At his time of enlistment Woods was 5 feet 6 1/2 inches tall, weight 150 pounds, had gray eyes, and gave his occupation as farmer. He served three years as a sergeant and was discharged on 27 September 1865 in Rome, Georgia. I wonder if he was with Sherman on his march through Georgia?

Victor Lesure Callison, (1844-1921) enlisted in Company I, 72nd Illinois Volunteer Infantry Regiment at Chicago, Illinois, on 14 August 1862. He was 5 feet, 6 inches tall, with gray eyes and brown hair, and listed his occupation as farmer. Victor served with General U. S. Grant on the Mississippi River and was wounded at Vicksburg in June 1863. He lost the sight in his left eye and had impaired vision in the right. Victor L. served two more years and was discharged on 29 May 1865 in Washington, D.C. He later received a veteran's pension of $24 per month as an invalid.

He was only a private soldier, but a photo shows Victor L. Callison wearing the coat of an Union officer. It may have been a prop, because it was customary for the studio photographers of the time to keep clean officer-style coats for the use of anyone having their photos taken. Therefore, one cannot reliably determine the rank or organization of Civil War era soldiers from the way they were dressed in photos made in a studio.

Lanty W. Hickman was a first-cousin of the Callison brothers but, fortunately, they did not meet in battle.

Do any readers of this newsletter have other information about the military service of these, or other, Hickmans in the Civil War? If so, please send me a note on who, what, where, and when. Are there any other Civil War era photos of Hickmans?

Hickmans of Back Creek

about where Lanty's company was at various times during the war that there could be a chapter in the Hickman history on just that topic

Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906), Confederate States Army
son of Roger Hickman (1813-1889) and Martha Ann Lockridge (1816-1843)

Lanty had two cousins in the Confederate Army — William Bradshaw Hartman (1843-1920) and Peter Newton Hartman (1845-1923), grandchildren of his aunt, Jane Elliott Hickman and William Bradshaw. Both served in Co. F, 19th Virginia Cavalry, CSA, and William B. Hartman received a leg injury. A first-cousin, Archibald Hickman (1845-1912) son of James Elliott Hickman and Betsey Hamilton, may have served as a private in Co. D, 22nd Virginia Infantry, CSA, but the scanty info I have is not clear. Can any of you help fill in their histories?

George Cline Bond (1920-) kindly sent me copies of the service records of two sons of Huldah Shallum Hickman who were soldiers in the Union Army. The first to enlist was Woods B. Callison (1838-1925) who joined Company G, 50th Illinois Infantry Regiment on 24 September 1861 at Quincy, Illinois. At his time of enlistment Woods was 5 feet 6 1/2 inches tall, weight 150 pounds, had gray eyes, and gave his occupation as farmer. He served three years as a sergeant and was discharged on 27 September 1865 in Rome, Georgia. I wonder if he was with Sherman on his march through Georgia?

Victor Lesure Callison, (1844-1921) enlisted in Company I, 72nd Illinois Volunteer Infantry Regiment at Chicago, Illinois, on 14 August 1862. He was 5 feet, 6 inches tall, with gray eyes and brown hair, and listed his occupation as farmer. Victor served with General U. S. Grant on the Mississippi River and was wounded at Vicksburg in June 1863. He lost the sight in his left eye and had impaired vision in the right. Victor L. served two more years and was discharged on 29 May 1865 in Washington, D.C. He later received a veteran's pension of $24 per month as an invalid.

He was only a private soldier, but a photo shows Victor L. Callison wearing the coat of an Union officer. It may have been a prop, because it was customary for the studio photographers of the time to keep clean officer-style coats for the use of anyone having their photos taken. Therefore, one cannot reliably determine the rank or organization of Civil War era soldiers from the way they were dressed in photos made in a studio.

Lanty W. Hickman was a first-cousin of the Callison brothers but, fortunately, they did not meet in battle.

Do any readers of this newsletter have other information about the military service of these, or other, Hickmans in the Civil War? If so, please send me a note on who, what, where, and when. Are there any other Civil War era photos of Hickmans?

Victor L. Callison (1844-1921), United States Army
Son of Huldah Shallum Hickman (1806-1888) and Isaac Callison (1804-1880)
photo probably taken in New Orleans

I have been compiling the letters of Lanty W. Hickman, his daughter Mattie Lockridge Hickman (1879-1967) and two of her children —Frank Edwin Mower (1899-1956) and Donald Roger Mower (1910-1964)— telling something of how they became millionaires in the West Virginia hardwood lumber business. The Mowers owned the town of Cass, W.Va., with its sawmill, shops, and houses, and the Greenbrier, Cheat & Elk Railroad that are now within a state park. They also owned the town of Nallen, W.Va., with a sawmill, office, store, boarding house, and some forty dwellings. Mower also had sawmills at Dailey, Omar, Rupert and Marmet, W.Va., and an important portion of their business was exporting hardwood lumber to South America.

Mattie Lockridge Hickman Mower also had a farm, called "Frankholme," near Mint Spring, Va., and Frank Edwin Mower owned an estate near Charles Town, W.Va., called "Claymont Court," and another large farm near Deerfield, Va., that he called "Poca Dot Farms" (for Pocahontas Co. and his wife Dorothy).

Frank Edwin Mower had invested in The Hickman Producing Company which seems to have been an oil and gas company with wells in Oklahoma. Does anyone know anything about that company? From which Hickmans did it derive its name?

Victor L. Callison (1844-1921), United States Army
Son of Huldah Shallum Hickman (1806-1888) and Isaac Callison (1804-1880)
photo probably taken in New Orleans

I have been compiling the letters of Lanty W. Hickman, his daughter Mattie Lockridge Hickman (1879-1967) and two of her children —Frank Edwin Mower (1899-1956) and Donald Roger Mower (1910-1964)— telling something of how they became millionaires in the West Virginia hardwood lumber business. The Mowers owned the town of Cass, W.Va., with its sawmill, shops, and houses, and the Greenbrier, Cheat & Elk Railroad that are now within a state park. They also owned the town of Nallen, W.Va., with a sawmill, office, store, boarding house, and some forty dwellings. Mower also had sawmills at Dailey, Omar, Rupert and Marmet, W.Va., and an important portion of their business was exporting hardwood lumber to South America.

Mattie Lockridge Hickman Mower also had a farm, called "Frankholme," near Mint Spring, Va., and Frank Edwin Mower owned an estate near Charles Town, W.Va., called "Claymont Court," and another large farm near Deerfield, Va., that he called "Poca Dot Farms" (for Pocahontas Co. and his wife Dorothy).

Frank Edwin Mower had invested in The Hickman Producing Company which seems to have been an oil and gas company with wells in Oklahoma. Does anyone know anything about that company? From which Hickmans did it derive its name?

Hickmans of Back Creek

Mattie Lockridge Hickman (1879-1967)
Youngest child of Lanty William Hickman
Mother of Frank Edwin Mower and Donald
Roger Mower

C. W. "Joe" Hickman (7-2)
Brother of Mattie Lockridge Hickman was in lumber business in W Va. His nephew, Frank
Edwin Mower joined him in business in 1924.

Frank Edwin Mower (1899-1956)
Watchers Creek Lumber Company
F. Edwin Mower Lumber Company
The Mower Lumber Company

Donald Roger Mower (1910-1964)
The Mower Lumber Company
The Don Mower Lumber Company

All this will add another interesting chapter to the history of the Hickmans of Back Creek.

Hickmans of Back Creek

Mattie Lockridge Hickman (1879-1967)
Youngest child of Lanty William Hickman
Mother of Frank, Edwin Mower and Donald
Roger Mower

C. W. "Joe" Hickman (?-?)
Brother of Mattie Lockridge Hickman was in lumber business in W Va. His nephew, Frank,
Edwin Mower joined him in business in 1924.

Frank Edwin Mower (1899-1956)
Witchers Creek Lumber Company
F. Edwin Mower Lumber Company
The Mower Lumber Company

Donald Roger Mower (1910-1964)
The Mower Lumber Company
The Don Mower Lumber Company

All this will add another interesting chapter to the history of the Hickmans of Back Creek.

Hickmans of Back Creek

Another mystery in the history of this family is why there are no letters from some of the siblings and children of the second Roger Hickman (1813-1889). The following list of names shows the number of letters that I have found that were written by the Hickmans of Back Creek and their children.

Number of letters found from the various Hickmans
3. William Hickman (1770-1843)	—0—
4. Martha Elliott "Patsy" Hickman (1800-1875)	1 and 1 from her husband
5. William H. Taylor (1812-1902)	1 and two books he authored
5. Archibald Taylor (1830-?)	2
4. Jane Elliott Hickman (1802-ca.1841)	—0—
4. Arthur Hickman (1803-1884)	1
5. William W. Hickman (1828-?)	2
4. James Elliott Hickman (1804-1885)	—0—
5. Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926)	—0—
6. John M. Hickman (1881-1942)	2
6. Russell Murray Hickman (1895-1954)	2
4. Huldah Shallum Hickman (1806-1888)	5 and 1 from her husband
5. Minda Ann Callison (-1933)	1
6. Mable Edith Bond (1889-1967)	3 written for her by Anna M. McGinnis
4. William P. Hickman (1810-1864)	78
4. Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880)	9
4. Roger Hickman (1813-1889)	5
5. Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906)	1
6. Mattie Lockridge "Lockie" Hickman (1879-1967)	3
7. Frank Edwin Mower (1899-1956)	19
7. Donald Roger Mower (1910-1964)	3
5. Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Hickman (1840-1909)	6
5. Virginia Alice "Jennie" Hickman (1848-1933)	3 and 2 from her husband
5. Thomas Brown Hickman (1849-1928)	—0—
6. Sallie Dawson Hickman (1885-1978)	1
6. Mary Brown "Brownie" Hickman (1887-1975)	11
5. Emma Susan Sabina Hickman (1852-1919)	3 and 3 from her husband
5. Matilda Margaret Hickman (1854-1935)	—0—
5. Peter Lightner "Pete" Hickman (1858-1937)	2, but many from his wife
5. Robert Sidney Hickman (ca.1872-1954)	1

There are several things strange about this list. The most obvious is that there are no letters from Jane Elliott Hickman, James Elliott Hickman, or their children. I wonder if they did not write to their brother Roger at the ancestral home, or if they wrote but he did not save their letters. In either case, the question is why? Was there some reason for ill feelings and lack of correspondence?

Another question is why there are no letters from the children of William P. Hickman (1810-1864) and Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880). Those two men accounted for the largest volume of surviving correspondence, and there is evidence that Andrew lived in Pulaski County with William's survivors in 1875 and that William P. Hickman's children had some contact with Roger on Back Creek into the 1880's. If they wrote to Back Creek the letters have been lost.

There are few surviving letters written by the second Roger or his son Peter Lightner Hickman, largely because they were the ones saving the correspondence and they could hardly save their own letters —although Roger managed to do a bit of that by asking his brother and his daughter to return letters to him. I had hoped, when I started this project, to find some of Roger's letters to his siblings squirreled away somewhere in the family papers of one of their descendants, but nothing has turned up.

Roger and Peter were both justices of the Bath County Court, ruling elders in the Presbyterian church, and farmers who should have had reasons to correspond with a variety of persons outside the family. It would be nice to find some of those letters also. Thomas Brown Hickman and Robert Sidney Hickman were also in business and Robert, in particular, should have left a long paper trail in his capacity as the manager of the Pocahontas Supply Co., the large "company store" in Case, W. Va., and as a justice of the Pocahontas County Court.

Hickmans of Back Creek

Another mystery in the history of this family is why there are no letters from some of the siblings and children of the second Roger Hickman (1813-1889). The following list of names shows the number of letters that I have found that were written by the Hickmans of Back Creek and their children.

Number of letters found from the various Hickmans
3. William Hickman (1770-1843)	—0—
4. Martha Elliott "Patsy" Hickman (1800-1875)	1 and 1 from her husband
5. William H. Taylor (1812-1902)	1 and two books he authored
5. Archibald Taylor (1830-?)	2
4. Jane Elliott Hickman (1802-ca.1841)	—0—
4. Arthur Hickman (1803-1884)	1
5. William W. Hickman (1828-?)	2
4. James Elliott Hickman (1804-1885)	—0—
5. Hamilton Burton Hickman (1857-1926)	—0—
6. John M. Hickman (1881-1942)	2
6. Russell Murray Hickman (1895-1954)	2
4. Huldah Shallum Hickman (1806-1888)	5 and 1 from her husband
5. Minda Ann Callison (-1933)	1
6. Mable Edith Bond (1889-1967)	3 written for her by Anna M. McGinnis
4. William P. Hickman (1810-1864)	78
4. Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880)	9
4. Roger Hickman (1813-1889)	5
5. Lanty William Hickman (1838-1906)	1
6. Mattie Lockridge "Lockie" Hickman (1879-1967)	3
7. Frank Edwin Mower (1899-1956)	19
7. Donald Roger Mower (1910-1964)	3
5. Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Hickman (1840-1909)	6
5. Virginia Alice "Jennie" Hickman (1848-1933)	3 and 2 from her husband
5. Thomas Brown Hickman (1849-1928)	—0—
6. Sallie Dawson Hickman (1885-1978)	1
6. Mary Brown "Brownie" Hickman (1887-1975)	11
5. Emma Susan Sabina Hickman (1852-1919)	3 and 3 from her husband
5. Matilda Margaret Hickman (1854-1935)	—0—
5. Peter Lightner "Pete" Hickman (1858-1937)	2, but many from his wife
5. Robert Sidney Hickman (ca.1872-1954)	1

There are several things strange about this list. The most obvious is that there are no letters from Jane Elliott Hickman, James Elliott Hickman, or their children. I wonder if they did not write to their brother Roger at the ancestral home, or if they wrote but he did not save their letters. In either case, the question is why? Was there some reason for ill feelings and lack of correspondence?

Another question is why there are no letters from the children of William P. Hickman (1810-1864) and Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880). These two men accounted for the largest volume of surviving correspondence, and there is evidence that Andrew lived in Pulaski County with William's survivors in 1875 and that William P. Hickman's children had some contact with Roger on Back Creek into the 1880's. If they wrote to Back Creek the letters have been lost.

There are few surviving letters written by the second Roger or his son Peter Lightner Hickman, largely because they were the ones saving the correspondence and they could hardly save their own letters —although Roger managed to do a bit of that by asking his brother and his daughter to return letters to him. I had hoped, when I started this project, to find some of Roger's letters to his siblings squirreled away somewhere in the family papers of one of their descendants, but nothing has turned up.

Roger and Peter were both justices of the Bath County Court, ruling elders in the Presbyterian church, and farmers who should have had reasons to correspond with a variety of persons outside the family. It would be nice to find some of those letters also. Thomas Brown Hickman and Robert Sidney Hickman were also in business and Robert, in particular, should have left a long paper trail in his capacity as the manager of the Pocahontas Supply Co. the large "company store" in Case, W.Va., and as a justice of the Pocahontas County Court.

Hickmans of Back Creek

The Rev. Joe McCoy sent some more church records from which I have extracted the following partial chronology of mentions of the family of William P. Hickman, after his death, in the minutes of the Session of the Bell Spring Presbyterian Church, Pulaski County, Virginia.

25 May 1875
Ruling Elder ...Andrew J. Hickman of Nicholas W.Va. being present, were invited to sit as corresponding members. [Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880) brother of William P. Hickman, I have nine letters written by him between 1833 and 1855 from Greenbrier and Nicholas counties, then contact was lost. Here he is 20 years later in Pulaski County, and maybe staying at the home of his sister-in-law.]

6 October 1875
A. J. Hickman, a ruling elder from Nicholas Co. W. Va. residing in this neighborhood, & being present, was invited to sit with us whenever present as a corresponding member, while he remains in this community....
Session then adjourned to meet at the House of Mrs. M. R. Hickman on the 25th day of Dec....[she was the widow of the Rev. William P. Hickman]

25 December 1875
House of Mrs. M. R. Hickman, ...
Mrs. Florence J. Hickman, wife of James B. Hickman, was, on certificate of membership & dismission from the Grace Street Baptist Church, Richmond, Va., admitted to the communion & fellowship of this church. [Florence J. "Fannie" Suede (1857-1878?) married to James Brown Hickman in Richmond, Va., on 27 January 1875 by the Rev. Moses D. Hoge]

13 December 1879
Deacons ... absent Wm. A. Chumbley (having removed to Nebraska with his family).

26 November 1882
On application of Wm. A. Chumbley, a Deacon in this church & Mary C. his wife, they were, at their own request, with their baptized children as follows, Harper, Eliza H. C., Frederick dismissed to unite with the Central Park Presbyterian Church to be organized in Nebraska. [they had children named William Harper (1867-1927), Edgar (?-?), Snsie (?-?), Emma S. (ca.1873-?), Elizabeth Bessie (1874-?), Frederick (1877-1947) before leaving Virginia.]

9 December 1883
Mrs. Florence B. Hickman & her two baptized children, George & Charles Lewis, were at her own request, dismissed to unite with the 2nd Church, Richmond, (Dr. M. D. Hoge's.) [James and Florence had, as far as I know, three children identified as son, daughter, George H. (1877-1923), however this entry is a great mystery because one of William P. Hickman's descendants told me she died in 1878. James B. Hickman is reported to have taken another wife in 1880 in Iowa, and a third in 1885 in Nebraska.]

4 April 1891
The following named were ordered to be placed on the retired list....J.B. Hickman.... [he was living in Nebraska, and died there in 1908, but the Bell Spring church had lost track of him]

This makes me wonder if James Brown Hickman abandoned his wife and children, or if they were divorced, before he went west and acquired two more wives and additional children. I have not been able to find a death certificate for Florence or a divorce decree, but something may eventually turn up.

James Brown Hickman may be a black sheep, but he was not the only one in the family, and sometimes they add spice to the tale. We should not hide the stories of these ancestors whose conduct or accomplishments do not "measure up," but I have found old letters suggesting that those compiling the family history do exactly that to "avoid embarrassment."
I hope that none of you are hiding black sheep from the rest of the flock.

Bill Gabriel

Hickmans of Back Creek

The Rev. Joe McCoy sent some more church records from which I have extracted the following partial chronology of mentions of the family of William P. Hickman, after his death, in the minutes of the Session of the Bell Spring Presbyterian Church, Pulaski County, Virginia.

- 25 May 1875
 Ruling Elder ...Andrew J. Hickman of Nicholas W.Va. being present, were invited to sit as corresponding members. [Andrew Johnson Hickman (1811-1880) brother of William P. Hickman, I have nine letters written by him between 1833 and 1855 from Greenbrier and Nicholas counties, then contact was lost. Here he is 20 years later in Pulaski County, and maybe staying at the home of his sister-in-law.]
- 6 October 1875
 A. J. Hickman, a ruling elder from Nicholas Co. W. Va. residing in this neighborhood, & being present, was invited to sit with us whenever present as a corresponding member, while he remains in this community....
 Session then adjourned to meet at the House of Mrs. M. R. Hickman on the 25th day of Dec....[she was the widow of the Rev. William P. Hickman]
- 25 December 1875
 House of Mrs. M. R. Hickman, ...
 Mrs. Florence J. Hickman, wife of James B. Hickman, was, on certificate of membership & dismission from the Grace Street Baptist Church, Richmond, Va., admitted to the communion & fellowship of this church. [Florence J. "Fannie" Sueade (1857-1878?) married to James Brown Hickman in Richmond, Va., on 27 January 1875 by the Rev. Moses D. Hoge]
- 13 December 1879
 Deacons ... absent Wm. A. Chumbley (having removed to Nebraska with his family).
- 26 November 1882
 On application of Wm. A. Chumbley, a Deacon in this church & Mary C. his wife, they were, at their own request, with their baptized children as follows, Harper, Eliza H. C., Frederick dismissed to unite with the Central Park Presbyterian Church to be organized in Nebraska. [they had children named William Harper (1867-1927), Edgar (?-?), Susie (?-?), Emma S. (ca.1873-?), Elizabeth Bessie (1874-?), Frederick (1877-1947) before leaving Virginia.]
- 9 December 1883
 Mrs. Florence B. Hickman & her two baptized children, George & Charles Lewis, were at her own request, dismissed to unite with the 2nd Church, Richmond, (Dr. M. D. Hoge's.) [James and Florence had, as far as I know, three children identified as son, daughter, George H. (1877-1923), however this entry is a great mystery because one of William P. Hickman's descendants told me she died in 1878. James B. Hickman is reported to have taken another wife in 1880 in Iowa, and a third in 1885 in Nebraska.]
- 4 April 1891
 The following named were ordered to be placed on the retired list....J.B. Hickman.... [he was living in Nebraska, and died there in 1908, but the Bell Spring church had lost track of him]

This makes me wonder if James Brown Hickman abandoned his wife and children, or if they were divorced, before he went west and acquired two more wives and additional children. I have not been able to find a death certificate for Florence or a divorce decree, but something may eventually turn up.

James Brown Hickman may be a black sheep, but he was not the only one in the family, and sometimes they add spice to the tale. We should not hide the stories of these ancestors whose conduct or accomplishments do not "measure up," but I have found old letters suggesting that those compiling the family history do exactly that to "avoid embarrassment." I hope that none of you are hiding black sheep from the rest of the flock.

Bill Gabriel

RICHMOND TIMES-DISPATCH

HARDY

Ruth Hickman Gabriel Hardy of Richmond died January 2, 1997, just a few days before her 89th birthday. Born at Sun Rise near Warm Springs in Bath County, Va. on January 16, 1908, Ruth was one of seven children of Peter L. and Ollie L. Hickman. She attended one-room schools in Bath County for her grammar school education. In order to attend high school, Ruth moved to Milboro where she lived with her two younger brothers in a small rented house. There, Ruth did the cooking, cleaning, and chauffeuring until she graduated. One of Ruth's fondest memories was of being the sole graduate of Milboro High in 1927. Her situation made the newspapers from coast to coast because M. L. Condis of Richmond, the supervisor of the research division of the Virginia State Board of Education, traveled 196 miles to address the graduating class of one. Ruth married Herman W. Gabriel Jr. in 1933 in Richmond and they had two sons. She entered the Insurance business with the local firm of Muhlenman & Kayhoe in 1941. At a time when few women held such positions, Ruth H. Gabriel became well known in the field and was an officer in the firm before she retired in 1969. Ruth H. Gabriel and Edward I. Hardy were married in 1969 and she acquired a new set of children and grandchildren to delight and entertain her. Ed preceded Ruth in death in 1975. Ruth Gabriel Hardy had lived in The Hermitage since 1987. Survivors include two sons, Herman W. Gabriel III, Montana, and Henniar R. Gabriel, Texas; a stepson, Edward I. Hardy Jr., Richmond; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Richard M. Lewis, North Carolina and Mrs. William E. Welsh, Ohio; twelve grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She is also survived by two of her six brothers and sisters: Clare B. Hickman, Stannion, and Harry H. Hickman, Tenn. Her remains rest at the Hiley Funeral Home's Central Chapel, 3801 August Ave. where the family will receive friends 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday. Graveside services will be conducted 11 a.m. Monday in Westhampton Memorial Park. Memorial contributions may be made to The Hermitage Home in her name.

Harper History - Page 2

Anna Harper (4) married A. Washington Moore.

1. Sally Moore (5) married Zepharish Gum, son of James Henry Gum.
Second husband: David Burnside.

2. Mary Moore (5) married John Varnor & lived at Big Spring of Elk.
3. Ella Moore (5) married Benjamin Varnor and moved to Iowa.
4. Newton Moore (5)
5. Zane Moore (5)
6. John Andrew Moore (5)
7. Price Moore (5)
8. Annie Moore (5) married James Lounry of Huntersville. (no children)

Susan Harper (4) married John McCarty.

1. Ella McCarty (5)
2. Mrs. G. H. Curry (5)
3. Della McCarty (5)

Samuel Harper (4) married Melinda Moore. Second wife: Margaret Jane Gum.

1. Elizabeth Luema Harper (5) married Rev. James Moore.
2. Sarah Ann Harper (5) married Washington Herold near Frost.
3. Matilda Harper (5) married Francis Dever.
4. Frank Wilson Harper (5) married Phoebe Ann Gum, daughter of Henry Gum of Frost.
5. Preston Moore Harper (5) married Frances Lucretia Gum, daughter of Henry Gum. (Her brothers: James Henry Gum married Demma Gum. Zachariah Gum married Sally Moore(5)).
6. William Lightner Harper (5) married Emma Hamilton, daughter of George Hamilton near Sunset.

Samuel Harper (4) married Margaret Jane Gum, daughter of John Gum.

1. America (5) married R. D. Hibel.
2. Virginia (5) died of diphtheria at age 5.

Sally Moore (5) married Zachariah Gum.

1. Henry Gum (6)
2. Edsonia Gum (6) married Henry Eberting. (Daughter: Annabelle).

Gelly Moore (5) married David Burnside.

1. Robert Burnside (6)
2. Mary Burnside (6) married Ford.
3. Mattie Burnside (6) married Alfred Pollic.
4. Ruth Burnside (6)

Matilda Harper (5) married Francis Dever.

1. Alice Dever (5) married John Barnett.

Frank Wilson Harper (5) married Phoebe Ann Gum, daughter of Henry Gum.

1. Ernest Fletcher Harper (6) married Georgia Ann May Baxter, daughter of George Baxter and Sarah Ann Poage. Ernest born May 10, 1870.

2. Harry Wilson Harper (6) married Mary Auldridge.
3. Blanche Lucretia Harper (6) born 7/22/1879, married Jacob Beard. Second husband: John Hambrick.
4. Forest Harper (6) died of Meningitis at age 16.

Alice Dever (6) married John Barnett.

1. Winifred Dever (7)
2. Ruth Dever (7)
3. Virginia Dever (7)

Harper History - Page 3

Ernest Fletcher Harper (6) born 5/18/1870, married Georgia Ann May Baxter. (born 5/17/1878.)

1. Annie Frances Harper (7) born 3/6/10, married James Kyle Rock (born 11/15/06) on 7/23/38. (married)
2. Blanche Margaret Harper (7) born 5/11/12, married Elmer Wymer, son of Eva & Robert Alexander Wymer of Cass.
3. Evalene Baxter Harper (7) married Herbert Claiborne Hawkins of Petersburg, Va. (Evalene born 11/7/13.)
4. Edna Ernestine (7) born 4/25/17, married Charles Edward Hall of Luray, Va.

Harry Wilson Harper (6) married Mary Auldridge. (Born 7/23/1877).

1. Edith March Harper (7) married Samuel Austin Burdette.
2. Windell Wardelle Harper (7) married Dora Browning of Huntington.
3. Frank Ruben Harper (7) married Grace Johnson of Marlinton.
4. Henry Lee Harper (7) married Virginia Miller.
5. Harry Julian Harper (7) married Nadine Lightner of Knapps Creek.

Blanche Lucretia Harper (6) married Jacob Beard.

1. Henry Harper Beard (7) married Elizabeth Clark. Henry born 12/19/
2. Lillian Frances Beard (7) 8/28/07-10/12/08, died from overdose of Morphine.
3. Stillborn infant 7/9/04.

Annie Frances Harper (7) married James K. Rock.

1. Edward Wilson Rock (8) born 3/27/39, married Anita Susan McDougal.
2. Jane Ann Rock (8) born 12/20/44, married James H. Marshall.

Blanche Margaret Harper (7) born 5/11/12, married Elmer Wymer on 5/10/44.

1. Margaret Ruth Wymer (8) born 3/3/45, married Robert Melvin Taylor.
2. Robert Ernest Wymer (8) born 2/9/47, married Holly Elisabeth Cline.
3. Wanda Jean Wymer (8) born 1/5/52.

Evalene Baxter Harper (7) and Herbert Claiborne Hawkins.

1. Kay Hawkins (8) married Thomas Carwile.

Edna Ernestine Harper (7) married Charles Edward Hall.

1. Charles Ann Hall (8) married Samuel Hockman, who died of heart disease shortly after their marriage.
2. Charles Edward Hall (8) married Linda G. D. N. Z. a. H. H. S.

Edith March Harper (7) born 5/31/1900, died 12/1/79. Married Samuel Burdette.

1. John Austin "Jack" Burdette (8) married Winnie _____.
2. David Burdette (8) married Carol Huddleston. Second wife: Jean Davis.

Windell Wardelle Harper (7) married Dora Frances Browning.

1. Betty Jean Browner (8) married Glen Arbaugh.
2. William Winchell Harper (8) married Dorothy _____.

Frank Ruben Harper (7) married Jean Dorton.

1. Fred Harper (8) died at age 21.

Harry Julian Harper (7) married Belle _____.

HARPER HISTORY - Page 4

Frank Ruben Harper (7) married Grace Johnson.

1. Barbare Ann Harper (8) married Porter Smith.
2. Elizabeth Sue Harper (8) married Charles Richardson II.
3. Harry Daniel Harper (8) married Mary Elizabeth Heller.
4. Diane Harper (8) married Gary Crane of Montgomery.
5. Wayne Harper (8) married Carol Young.

Henry Lee Harper (7) married Virginia Miller.

1. Henry Lee Harper II "H.L." (8) married
2. Alfred Harper (8) married
3. Mary Elizabeth Harper (8) married _____ Brodbeck.

Harry Julian Harper (7) married Nadine Lightner.

1. Harry Julian Harper, Jr. (8) married Donna Compton.
2. Jerry Harper (8) married

Henry Harper Beard (7) married Elizabeth Clark.

1. Jacob Beard (8) born 4/10/45, married Linda Mae Dean.

Edward Wilson Rock (8) married Anita Susan McDougal.

1. Melinde Susan Rock (9) born 10/15/64, married Don Smith, D.O.

Jane Ann Rock (8) married James Marshall.

1. Robert Ray Marshall (9) born 1/1/65.

Robert Ernest Wymer (8) married Holly Gline.

1. Robert Ernest Wymer, Jr. (9) born 7/1/70.
2. Jill Allison Wymer (9) born 9/11/80.

Ray Hawkins (8) married Thomas Carwile.

1. Tommye Lynn Hawkins Carwile (9) married Billy Jefferson.

Charlee Edward Hall II (8) married Linda CONZALE

1. Charlee Edward "Ched" Hall III (9)
2. Sara Frances Hall (9)

John Austin "Jack" Burdette (8) married Winnie _____.

1. Timothy Burdette (9)
2. Gregory Burdette (9)
3. Steven Burdette (9)
4. Ann Burdette (9)

David Burdette (8) married Carol Huddleston.

1. Mike Burdette (9)
2. Patrick Burdette (9)
3. Jeffrey Burdette (9)

David Burdette (8) married Jean Davis.
Three daughters

Betty Jean Harper (8) married Glen Arbaugh.

1. Larry Arbaugh (9) married Mary Brandy.

William Wendell Harper (8) married Dorothy Newman.

1. Roger Harper (9) married Teresa
2. Connie Harper (9) married George Hartman.

Barbara Ann Harper (8) married Porter Smith.

1. Elizabeth Smith (9)
2. Greg Smith (9)

HARPER HISTORY - Page 4

Frank Ruben Harper (7) married Grace Johnson.

1. Barbara Ann Harper (8) married Porter Smith.
2. Elizabeth Sue Harper (8) married Charles Richardson II.
3. Harry Daniel Harper (8) married Mary Elizabeth Heller.
4. Diane Harper (8) married Gary Crane of Montgomery.
5. Wayne Harper (8) married Carol Young.

Henry Lee Harper (7) married Virginia Miller.

1. Henry Lee Harper II "H.L." (8) married
2. Alfred Harper (8) married
3. Mary Elizabeth Harper (8) married _____ Brodbeck.

Harry Julian Harper (7) married Nadine Lightner.

1. Harry Julian Harper, Jr. (8) married Donna Compton.
2. Jerry Harper (8) married

Henry Harper Beard (7) married Elizabeth Clark.

1. Jacob Beard (8) born 4/10/45, married Linda Mae Dean.

Edward Wilson Rock (8) married Anita Susan McDougal.

1. Melinda Susan Rock (9) born 10/15/64, married Don Smith, D.O.

Jane Ann Rock (8) married James Marshall.

1. Robert Ray Marshall (9) born 1/1/65.

Robert Ernest Wymer (8) married Holly Gline.

1. Robert Ernest Wymer, Jr. (9) born 7/1/70.
2. Jill Allison Wymer (9) born 9/11/80.

Ray Hawkins (8) married Thomas Carwile.

1. Tommy Lynn Hawkins Carwile (9) married Billy Jefferson.

Charles Edward Hall II (8) married Linda Gonzales

1. Charles Edward "Ched" Hall III (9)
2. Sara Frances Hall (9)

John Austin "Jack" Burdette (8) married Winnie _____.

1. Timothy Burdette (9)
2. Gregory Burdette (9)
3. Steven Burdette (9)
4. Ann Burdette (9)

David Burdette (8) married Carol Huddleston.

1. Mike Burdette (9)
2. Patrick Burdette (9)
3. Jeffrey Burdette (9)

David Burdette (8) married Jean Davis.
Three daughters

Betty Jean Harper (8) married Glen Arbaugh.

1. Larry Arbaugh (9) married Mary Brandy.

William Wendell Harper (8) married Dorothy Newman.

1. Roger Harper (9) married Teresa
2. Connie Harper (9) married George Hartman.

Barbara Ann Harper (8) married Porter Smith.

1. Elizabeth Smith (9)
2. Greg Smith (9)

Harper History - Page 5

- Elizabeth Sue Horper (8) married Charles Richardson II.
1. Vickia Richardson (9) married
2. Terry Richardson (9) married Nathalie Dolan of Greanbank.
- Harry Daniel Harper (8) married Mary Elizabeth Heller.
1. Matthew Wayne Harper (9)
2. Andrew Patrick Harper (9)
3. Justin Daniel Harper (9)
- Diane Harper (8) married Gary Crane.
1. Berry Wilson Crane (9)
2. Troy Crane (9)
3. Stevan Riffle Crane (9) - Foster son.
- Henry Lea Harper II "H.L." (8) married Karen ____.
1. Allen Harper (9)
- Alfred Harper (8) married Karen ____.
1. Johnnie Harper (9)
2. Jamie Harper (9)
- Mary Elizabeth Harper (8) married ____ Brodbeck.
1. David Brodbeck (9)
- Harry Julian Harper (8) born 2/4/42, married Donna Compton.
1. Brian Scott Harper (9) born 8/9/66
2. Deron Keith Harper (9) born 7/2/69
3. Beth Ellen Harper (9) born 1/8/75
- Jerry Samuel Harper (8) born 8/25/50, married Nancy Jo Schahinger.
1. Angelique Harper (9) born 8/10/69
2. Shani Lana Harper (9) born 2/22/71
- Jacob Beard (8) married Linda Mae Dean, daughter of Samuel & Martha Dean.
1. Teresa Beard (9)
2. Tamara Beard (9)
- Larry Arbaugh (9) married Mary Brandy.
1. Katherine Arbaugh (10)
- Terry Richardson (9) married Nathalie Dolan of Greanbank.
1. Zechary Harper Richardson (10)

*() Number in brackets indicates generation in America.

HENRY HARPER from the Pocahontas County History Book

Among the persons whose industry, economical habits, and wise engagement of diversified useful industries did much for the development of our county, the name of Henry Harper, Senior, is richly deserving of respectful notice. He was a native of Pendleton Co. a son of Nicholas Harper, a native of Germany, who lived on the South Branch. Henry Harper's wife was Elizabeth Lightner, daughter of William Lightner, Senior, on Back Creek. For a few years after his marriage he lived on the branch. About 1812, Nicholas Harper bought two hundred acres from Abram Buffield and Colonel John Baxter, on Knapps Creek, and on this purchase Henry settled.

Harper History - Page 5

- Elizabeth Sue Harper (8) married Charles Richardson II.
1. Vickie Richardson (9) married
2. Terry Richardson (9) married Nathalie Dolan of Greenbank.
- Harry Daniel Harper (8) married Mary Elizabeth Heller.
1. Matthew Wayne Harper (9)
2. Andrew Patrick Harper (9)
3. Justin Daniel Harper (9)
- Diane Harper (8) married Gary Crane.
1. Barry Wilson Crane (9)
2. Troy Crane (9)
3. Steven Riffle Crane (9) - Foster son.
- Henry Lee Harper II "H.L." (8) married Karen ____.
1. Allen Harper (9)
- Alfred Harper (8) married Karen ____.
1. Johnnie Harper (9)
2. Jamie Harper (9)
- Mary Elizabeth Harper (8) married ____ Brodbeck.
1. David Brodbeck (9)
- Harry Julian Harper (8) born 2/4/42, married Donna Compton.
1. Brian Scott Harper (9) born 8/3/66
2. Deron Keith Harper (9) born 7/2/69
3. Beth Ellen Harper (9) born 1/8/75
- Jerry Samuel Harper (8) born 8/25/50, married Nancy Jo Schabinger.
1. Angelique Harper (9) born 8/10/69
2. Shani Lana Harper (9) born 2/22/71
- Jacob Beard (8) married Linda Mae Dean, daughter of Samuel & Martha Dean.
1. Teresa Beard (9)
2. Tamara Beard (9)
- Larry Arbaugh (9) married Mary Brandy.
1. Katherine Arbaugh (10)
- Terry Richardson (9) married Nathalie Dolan of Greenbank.
1. Zachary Harper Richardson (10)

"() Number in brackets indicates generation in America."

HENRY HARPER from the Pendleton County History Book

Among the persons whose industry, economical habits, and wise management of diversified useful industries did much for the development of our county, the name of Henry Harper, Senior, is richly deserving of respectful notice. He was a native of Pendleton Co. a son of Nicholas Harper, a native of Germany, who lived on the South Branch. Henry Harper's wife was Elizabeth Lightner, daughter of William Lightner, Senior, on Back Creek. For a few years after his marriage he lived on the Branch. About 1812, Nicholas Harper bought two hundred acres from Abner Huffard and Colonel John Baxter, on Knappa Creek, and on this purchase Henry settled.

The young settlers from Pendleton Co. found a few acres of cleared land. The thickets of thorn and crab apple and wild plums were almost impenetrable. The sheep, pigs, and calves had to be penned by the house to protect them from wolves and bears. By patient and persistent effort land was cleared and a home reared.

At his suggestion, William Civey, of Anthony's Creek, sunk a tan yard. Then Mr. Harper established a blacksmith shop and built the first tilt hammer in this region. This shop was carried on under his own personal supervision. Ralph Wenloss, George Hevener of Pendleton Co. and the late Anthony Lightner of Swago, and others, learned the trade with him, and were all good blacksmiths. Mr. Harper also reared a flouring mill, which was operated by himself and son Samuel, chiefly. Father and son were smiths and millers and alternated in their work. William Gibson, of Huntersville, and Henry Harper were the contractors that built the Warm Springs and Huntersville turnpike sixty-five years ago. Captain William Cochran, of Stony Creek, was their principal foreman and manager in construction. In the meantime, the farm was duly attended to and much land bought and a splendid estate became his.

He had a passion for hunting, which he indulged in more for recreation.

He died in 1859, aged 70 years. Mrs. Harper followed her husband in 1875, aged 86 years.

In personal appearance Mr. Harper was of medium stature, somewhat stooped in the shoulders. His voice was soft and flute like in tone, very quiet and retiring in his manners and leisurely in his movements, and yet his establishment was a busy hive of industry, and all moved on like clockwork.

His family consisted of five sons and four daughters; Elizabeth, Sally, Anna, and Susan. The sons were Jacob, William, Samuel, Henry and Nicholas who died at fourteen.

Jacob Harper married Lydia Civey, daughter of George Civey of Anthony's Creek, and settled on Meadow Creek, Greenbrier Co., and finally moved to Monroe Co.

William Harper married Elizabeth Civey, sister of Jacob's wife and settled on the farm now held by William L. Harper, near Sunset. His last years were passed on Greenbrier River at the Friel place, where his son William now resides.

Samuel Harper married Malinda Moore, and lives on the old homestead, where he yet resides in the 87th year of his life. Their daughter Elizabeth Luana is the widowed wife of Rev. James E. Moore. Sarah Ann married Huntington Herold, near Frost. Matilda married Frances Dever. Their son, Preston Harper, married Lucretia Gum, daughter of Henry Gum, near Frost. Frank Wilson Harper married Anna Gum, sister of Mrs. Preston Herold near Sunset. William Lightner Harper married Emma, daughter of George Samuel Harper's second wife was Margaret Jane, daughter of John of Miland Co. Her daughter Aaron married R.D. Rinal, and Virginia died of diphtheria at the age of five years.

Henry Harper, Jr., married Phoebe Sharp, and lived on the place now owned byaddy Goulet, near Sunset. Their children were Peter and Rachel. Peter died in early manhood. Rachel Ann married William Herold of Co. Henry Harper, Jr., died of an accidental wound, inflicted while clearing a gate.

Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the pioneer, married the late James R. near Carey, on land now held by Preston Clark, fifteen years from rheumatic affection, most of the time too weak to work. Her husband for many years spent most of the days sed

The young settlers from Pendleton Co. found a few acres of cleared land. The thickets of thorn and crab apple and wild plums were almost impenetrable. The sheep, pigs, and calves had to be penned by the house to protect them from wolves and bears. By patient and persistent effort land was cleared and a home reared.

At his suggestion, William Givcy, of Anthonys Creek, sunk a tan yard. Then Mr. Harcor established a blacksmith shop and built the first tilt hammer in this region. This shop was carried on under his own personal supervision. Ralph Wanloss, George Hevener of Pendleton Co. and the late Anthony Lightner of Swago, and others, learned the trade with him, and were all good blacksmiths. Mr. Harper also reared a flouring mill, which was operated by himself and son Samuel, chiefly. Father and son were smiths and millers and alternated in their work. William Gibson, of Huntersville, and Henry Harper were the contractors that built the Warm Springs and Huntersville turnpike sixty-five years ago. Captain William Cochran, of Stony Creek, was their principal foreman and manager in construction. In the meantime, the farm was duly attended to and much land bought and a splendid estate became his.

He had a passion for hunting, which he indulged in morsly for recreation.

He died in 1859, aged 70 years. Mra. Harper followed her husband in 1875, aged 86 years.

In personal apperance Mr. Harper was of medium stature, somewhat stooped in the shoulders. His voice was soft and flute like in tone, very quiet and retiring in his manners and leisurely in his movements, and yet his establishment was a busy hive of industry, and all moved on like clockwork.

His family consisted of five sons and four daughters; Elizabeth, Sally, Anna, and Susan. The sons were Jacob, William, Samuel, Henry and Nicholas who died at fourteen.

Jacob Harper married Lydia Givcy, daughter of George Givcy of Anthonys Creek, and settled on Meadow Creek, Greenbrier Co., and finally moved to Monroe Co.

William Harper married Elizabeth Givcy, sister of Jacob's wife and settled on the farm now held by William L. Harper, near Sunset. His last years were passed on Greenbrier River at the Friel place, where his son William now resides.

Samuel Harper married Melinda Moore, and lives on the old homestead, where he yet resides in the 87th year of his life. Their daughter, Elizabeth Luena is the widowed wife of Rev. James E. Moore. Sarah Ann married Washington Herold, near Frost. Matilda married Frances Dyer. Their son, Preston Harper, married Lucrotie Gum, daughter of Henry Gum, near Frost. Frank Wilson Harper married Anna Gum, sister of Mrs. Preston Herold. William Lightner Harper married Emma, daughter of George Samuel Harper's second wife was Margaret Jane, daughter of John of Miland Co. Her daughter Annellen married R.D. Rimol, and Virginia died of diphtheria at the age of five years.

Henry Harper, Jr., married Phoebe Sharp, and lived on the place now owned by Paddy Goulet, near Sunset. Their children were Peter and Rachel. Peter died in early manhood. Rachel Ann married William Herold of Miland Co. Henry Harper, Jr., died of an accidental wound, inflicted while rambling a gate.

Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the pioneer, married the late James R. near near near, on land now held by Preston Clark. She was an invalid sixteen years from rheumatic affection, most of the time too weak to move. Her husband for many years spent most of the days and all of the nights a patient and helpful watcher at her bedside. Her sons were J.R. Poage, Henry Poage, and William Poage. Their daughters: Elizabeth Poage, the first wife of Rev. George P. Moore; Mary Poage, the wife of Amos Barlow; Sarah Ann Poage, the first wife of George Baxter, near Edray, and Amanda, first wife of Levi Waugh, on the old homestead.

Page 7

Anna Harper was the first wife of A. Waahington Moore, near Frost. Her daughter Sally married Zachariah Gum, son of the late Henry Gum. Her husband was killed by a falling limb. She was left a widow with three small children. Mary Moore married John Varner at the Big Spring of Elk. Ella Moore married Benjamin Varner and now lives in Iowa. Newton Moore, Zaue Moore, J.A. Moore and Price are their sons.

Sally Harper married James Malcomb and located in Nicholas Co.

Susan Harpor married John D. McCarty near Hillsboro. Their children were Ellis McCarty, the late Mrs. G.H. Curry, and Della McCarty.

Page 7

all of the nights a patient and helpful watcher at her bedside. Her sons were J.R. Poage, Henry Poage, and William Posge. Their daughters: Elizabeth Poage, the first wife of Rev. George P. Moors; Mary Posgo, the wife of Amos Barlow; Sarah Ann Poage, the first wife of George Baxter, near Edray, and Amanda, first wife of Levi Waugh, on the old homestead.

Anna Harper was the first wife of A. Washington Moore, near Frost. Her daughter Sally married Zachariah Gum, son of the late Henry Gum. Her husband was killed by a falling limb. She was left a widow with three small children. Mary Moore married John Varner at the Big Spring of Elk. Ella Moore married Benjamin Varner and now lives in Iowa. Newton Moore, Zane Moore, J.A. Moore and Price are their sons.

Sally Harper married James Malcomb and located in Nicholas Co.

Susan Harper married John D. McCarty near Hillsboro. Their children were Ellis McCarty, the late Mrs. G.H. Curry, and Della McCarty.

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
February 10, 1997

Dear Hickman cousins:

My mother, Ruth Gertrude Hickman, died in January. Born at Sun Rise, in Bath County, Virginia, on 16 January 1908, Ruth was the fifth of seven children of Peter Lightner Hickman (1858-1937) and Ollie Gertrude Lockridge (1870-1965). She got her grammar school education in one-room schools along Back Creek but, in order to attend high school, Ruth moved across the mountains to Millboro where she lived with her two younger brothers in a small rented house. There, Ruth did the cooking, cleaning, and chauffeuring until she graduated in 1927.

She was born the year Henry Ford's Model-T was introduced, and she finished high school the last year that durable car was manufactured. Ruth learned to drive the Model-T when she was 14 and, because neither her father or mother learned to crank-start and drive a car, she, like her older brothers before her, had an important job as family driver. For the rest of her life she enjoyed driving and traveling, but Ruth did not have a car of her own until 1954 when she inherited a Plymouth that had belonged to her bachelor brother Forrest Elwood Hickman (1898-1954).

Ruth married Herman W. Gabriel Jr. (1910-1972) in 1933 and they had two sons, Herman William Gabriel III (1933-) and Henmar Ruskin Gabriel (1936-). In 1941 her husband abandoned the family to run off with a younger woman and we moved to Richmond to spend the four years of WWII living in the attic of the home of her sister, Ollie Virginia Hickman Campbell (1902-1996). There, Ruth set about "pulling herself up by her own bootstraps," and teaching her sons to be self-sufficient.

Henmar, Ruth, and Bill after the move to Richmond in 1941

Ruth Hickman Gabriel found a secretarial job with the Richmond-based construction and real estate firm of Muhleman & Kayhoe in 1943 and began working her way up in the insurance world. She learned the property and casualty insurance business and, at a time when very few women held such positions, headed the insurance department of Muhleman & Kayhoe. Ruth became well known in Richmond, and Virginia, in the insurance field and was made an officer in the firm before she retired in 1969.

Hickman Family History Newsletter

Box 520
Florence, MT 59833
February 10, 1997

Dear Hickman cousins:

My mother, Ruth Gertrude Hickman, died in January. Born at Sun Rise, in Bath County, Virginia, on 16 January 1908, Ruth was the fifth of seven children of Peter Lightner Hickman (1858-1937) and Ollie Gertrude Lockridge (1870-1965). She got her grammar school education in one-room schools along Back Creek but, in order to attend high school, Ruth moved across the mountains to Millboro where she lived with her two younger brothers in a small rented house. There, Ruth did the cooking, cleaning, and chauffeuring until she graduated in 1927.

She was born the year Henry Ford's Model-T was introduced, and she finished high school the last year that durable car was manufactured. Ruth learned to drive the Model-T when she was 14 and, because neither her father or mother learned to crank-start and drive a car, she, like her older brothers before her, had an important job as family driver. For the rest of her life she enjoyed driving and traveling, but Ruth did not have a car of her own until 1954 when she inherited a Plymouth that had belonged to her bachelor brother Forrest Elwood Hickman (1898-1954).

Ruth married Herman W. Gabriel Jr. (1910-1972) in 1933 and they had two sons, Herman William Gabriel III (1933-) and Henmar Ruskin Gabriel (1936-). In 1941 her husband abandoned the family to run off with a younger woman and we moved to Richmond to spend the four years of WWII living in the attic of the home of her sister, Ollie Virginia Hickman Campbell (1902-1996). There, Ruth set about "pulling herself up by her own bootstraps," and teaching her sons to be self-sufficient.

Henmar, Ruth, and Bill after the move to Richmond in 1941

Ruth Hickman Gabriel found a secretarial job with the Richmond-based construction and real estate firm of Muhleman & Kaylow in 1941 and began working her way up in the business world. She learned the property and casualty insurance business and, at a time when very few women held such positions, headed the insurance department of Muhleman & Kaylow. Ruth became well known in Richmond, and Virginia, in the insurance field and was made an officer in the firm before she retired in 1969.

Hickmans of Back Creek

In another break with conventions of the day, Ruth established her own identity and never used her husband's name —she was always Ruth H. Gabriel not Mrs. Herman W. Gabriel Jr.

N&K built commercial buildings, apartments, and houses, and at war's end we moved into one of those apartments on a trolley line and convenient to the best schools in Richmond at the time. Educating their children had always been a Hickman priority and, at a time when money was scarce and toys were few, mother bought the Compton's Encyclopedia to further our studies. Roaming alone in the evening was also a Hickman tradition encouraged by our grandmother and our mother and I am reminded of a piece of poetry that stated:

"Richer than I own, will never be

"Richer than I you will never be,
For I had a mother that read to me."

We were as poor as the proverbial church mice, but mother was thrifty and, having grown up on a use-it-up, wear-it-out, make-it-last farm taught her sons to do the same. However, there seemed little chance of Henmar and me being able to afford college until, as a winner of the Virginia Academy of Science Talent Search, I got scholarships to Va. Tech. Academy at West Point. So, her sons became college graduates and went on to other accomplishments of which mother was very proud.

Ruth was fortunate to find new love in her new home. In 1960 Ruth accomplished another of her dreams when she was able to buy a house in the Fan District of Richmond. Best of all, it required remodeling and redecorating—things which gave her much pleasure. She also joined the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Bath County Historical Society to reestablish contact with her roots.

Ruth was fortunate to find new love in later life and in 1969 she married Edward I. Hardy and acquired a new set of children and grandchildren to delight and entertain her. Ed's death only six years later, in 1975, was devastating and I am not sure she ever really recovered from it.

After a series of strokes and a long decline in her health, Ruth Gertrude Hickman Gabriel Hardy died 2 January 1997, just a few days before her 89th birthday.

Wade Lorraine Hickman (Marcel Hurdy) (1928-1997)
in 1975

We at staff of the "Hickman of Black Creek," when Little Rose Hinkley Rose died at her home in Virginia on 13 December 1960. Little Rose Hinkley was born 3 May 1874 in Black Creek, Bull County, Virginia. She and her sister Corinna received their education in the state school located in Harrisonburg. Now James Madison University. They are now in Black Creek to teach in two of the one-room schools. Little Hinkley

[illegible]

Hickmans of Back Creek

In another break with conventions of the day, Ruth established her own identity and never used her husband's name —she was always Ruth H. Gabriel not Mrs. Herman W. Gabriel Jr.

N&K built commercial buildings, apartments, and houses, and at war's end we moved into one of those apartments on a trolley line and convenient to the best schools in Richmond at the time. Educating their children had always been a Hickman priority and, at a time when money was scarce and toys were few, mother bought the Compton's Encyclopedia to further our studies. Reading aloud in the evening was also a Hickman tradition encouraged by our grandmother and our mother and I am reminded of a piece of poetry that

"Richer than I you will never be.

For I had a mother that read to me."

We were as poor as the proverbial church mice, but mother was thrifty and, having grown up on a use-it-up, wear-it-out, make-it-last farm taught her sons to do the same. However, there seemed little chance of Henmar and me being able to afford college until, as a winner of the Virginia Academy of Science Talent Search, I got scholarships to Va. Tech. Academy at West Point. So, her sons became college graduates and went on to other accomplishments of which mother was very proud.

In 1960 Ruth accomplished another of her dreams when she was able to buy a house in the Fan District of Richmond. Best of all, it required remodeling and redecorating—things which gave her much pleasure. She also joined the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Bath County Historical Society to reestablish contact with her roots.

Ruth was fortunate to find new love in later life and in 1969 she married Edward J. Hardy and acquired a new set of children and grandchildren to delight and entertain her. Ed's death only six years later, in 1975, was devastating and I am not sure she ever really recovered from it.

After a series of strokes and a long decline in her health, Ruth Gertrude Hickman Gabriel Hardy died 2 January 1997, just a few days before her 89th birthday.

The song is over but the melody lingers on."

North Carolina Hickman (Arlene) Harty (1908-1997)
in 1925

We had students at the "Kitchen of Black Creek" when Little Rose (Frankley Rose) died at we know as being at Virginia on 13 December 1902. Little Rose (Frankley Rose) died at age 13 in Blackburg, West County Virginia. She and her sister Cornelia received teacher training at the state normal school in Harrisonburg. Now James Madison University and had gone to Black Creek to teach in two of the one room schools. Little boarded with the Emmitt Lightner family and taught at the Lightner School. It was about four miles north of the home of my grandparents and about another mile from that of Lula Georgia Hickman (1874-1943) and George Washington Rose (1864-1962), known as the "old Hickman home place," where the pavilion now stands in the recreation area below the Vepco dam.

[illegible]

In 1923 Lillie Brinkley married their son, Bedford Dewey Rose (1898-1960), and moved into a house that had been purchased from Emmitt Lightner by Bedford's uncle, Robert Sidney Hickman (1872-1954). Bedford and Lillie had eight children, some of whom were born after they left Back Creek in 1941 for greener pastures in Southwest Virginia. During WWII she was a government inspector at the Hercules Powder Company in Radford, and she later taught school in Giles County.

Two sons of Lillie Brinkley Rose, George Scott Rose and Lewis Kent Rose, have since "moved back" and purchased land on Back Creek downstream from where the Hickmans lived at Sun Rise.

Lillie's sister, Cornelia Brinkley, boarded with my grandparents and taught seven grades at the "Hickman School Number 2" where her teaching salary was $65 per month. From that she paid $19 a month to Ollie Lockridge Hickman (1870-1965) for room and board. That wood-frame school building stood across the road from the Puffenberger house and had been the home of my grandfather's oldest half-sister, Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Hickman Ryder (1840-1909) before becoming a school. The school closed after 1923 due to a lack of students and grandfather tore it down and used the lumber to build a granary behind his house on the other side of Joe Hollow.

In 1924 Cornelia married Walter Lawson Sively from a bit further down Back Creek. It is in the Sively Cemetery that my grandfather, great-grandfather, and other Hickmans are buried.

Now the old Sively farm is owned by a grandson of Lillie Brinkley and Bedford Rose.

Another of the "Hickman cousins" was quite sick in the hospital at Hot Springs recently. She is Louise "Sue" Hepler (1913-), one of three children of Forrest Franklin Hepler (1884-1939), and grand-daughter of Matilda Margaret Hickman (1854-1939), who was another sister of my grandfather. In 1933 Sue married George Brown Venable (1913-1987) and they had one son, George Franklin Venable (1934-1989). For many years their house on the road between Millboro and Warm Springs was marked by a fancy mailbox in the shape of Uncle Sam.

Sue had a broken hip, pneumonia, and a series of strokes and I have heard that she is now living at the nursing home on the hill near Hot Springs.

Murray C. Hepler (1910-1971) and Louise "Sue" Hepler (1913-)
about 1912

Sue Hepler's brother Murray married Lillian Corbett (1912-1977) and they had two daughters — Marian Carol Hepler (1936-) and Norma Jean Hepler (1938-). Lillian and Murray